Tierra y Libertad Steven W. Bender,2010-09-29 One of the quintessential goals of the American Dream is to own land and a home a place to raise one s family and prove one s prosperity Particularly for immigrant families home ownership is a way to assimilate into American culture and community However Latinos who make up the country s largest minority population have largely been unable to gain this level of inclusion Instead they are forced to cling to the fringes of property rights and ownership through overcrowded rentals transitory living arrangements and at best home acquisitions through subprime lenders In Tierra y Libertad Steven W Bender traces the history of Latinos struggle for adequate housing opportunities from the nineteenth century to today s anti immigrant policies and national mortgage crisis Spanning southwest to northeast rural to urban Bender analyzes the legal hurdles that prevent better housing opportunities and offers ways to approach sweeping legal reform Tierra y Libertad combines historical cultural legal and personal perspectives to document the Latino community s ongoing struggle to make America home

Race Rules Baodong Liu,James M. Vanderleeuw,2007-01-01 Race Rules examines electoral politics over forty years up to the present day Liu and Vanderleeuw show that an understanding of New Orleans politics must start with the city s racial composition and must be viewed in terms of racial conflict and accommodation reflected in the electoral arena during the last four decades

College Completion for Latino/a Students: Institutional and System Approaches Melissa L. Freeman,Magdalena Martinez,2015-12-04 Latino as are the fastest growing demographic in the United States Despite recent gains in postsecondary enrollment the Latino a population is severely underrepresented when it comes to baccalaureate attainment Hispanic serving institutions HSIs will play a critical role in turning the tide but there is little existing research about these institutions This volume synthesizes Existing research on HSIs emerging HSIs as well as research about Latino a students themselves A wide range of best practices across institutional types and Examples of service to undocumented students in states where they do and do not qualify for in state tuition benefits Topics include Latino a undergraduate student success graduate student success community colleges four year institutions financial aid and undocumented students This is the 172nd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education Addressed to presidents vice presidents deans and other higher education decision makers on all kinds of campuses it provides timely information and authoritative advice about major issues and administrative problems confronting every institution

At the Core and in the Margins Julia Albarracín,2016-05-01 Beardstown and Monmouth Illinois two rural Midwestern towns have been transformed by immigration in the last three decades This book examines how Mexican immigrants who have made these towns their homes have integrated legally culturally and institutionally What accounts for the massive growth in the Mexican immigrant populations in these two small towns and what does the future hold for them Based on 260 surveys and 47 in depth interviews this study combines quantitative and qualitative research to explore the level and characteristics of immigrant incorporation in Beardstown and Monmouth It assesses the advancement of immigrants in the immigration residency citizenship process the immigrants level of cultural integration via language their connectedness with other members of society and their relationships with neighbors the degree and characteristics of discrimination against immigrants in these two towns and the extent to which immigrants participate in different social and political activities and trust government institutions Immigrants in new destinations are likely to be poorer to be less educated and to have weaker English language skills than immigrants in traditional destinations Studying how this population negotiates the obstacles to and opportunities for incorporation is crucial Korean American Evangelicals New Models for Civic Life Elaine Howard Ecklund, 2006-11-09 Studies of religion among our nation s newest immigrants largely focus on how religion serves the immigrant community for example by creating job networks and helping retain ethnic identity in the second generation In this book Ecklund widens the inquiry to look at how Korean Americans use religion to negotiate civic responsibility as well as to create racial and ethnic identity She compares the views and activities of second generation Korean Americans in two different congregational settings one ethnically Korean and the other multi ethnic She also conducted more than 100 in depth interviews with Korean American members of these and seven other churches around the country and draws extensively on the secondary literature on immigrant religion American civic life and Korean American religion Her book is a unique contribution to the literature on religion race and ethnicity and on immigration and civic life Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations John Ishiyama, William J. Miller, Eszter Simon, 2015-02-27 With a focus on providing concrete teaching strategies for scholars the Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations blends both theory and practice in an accessible and clear manner In an effort to help faculty Political And Economic Determinants of Population Health and Well-Being: Vincente Navarro, Caries Muntaner, 2020-11-25 The field of social inequalities in health continues its vigorous growth in the early years of the 21st century This volume following in the footsteps of Vicente Navarro s edited collection The Political Economy of Social Inequalities is a compilation of recent contributions to the areas of social epidemiology health disparities health economics and health services research The overarching theme is to describe and explain the evergrowing health inequalities across social class race and gender as well as neighborhood city region country and continent The approach of this book is distinctly multi trans and interdisciplinary the fields of public health population health epidemiology economics sociology political science philosophy medicine and history are all represented here Asian American Women and Gender Franklin Ng, 1998 Women have shaped immigrant families reared new generations and pioneered significant changes in their communities These essays illuminate the complex and changing roles of Asian American women examining such diverse subjects as war brides international marriages split households stereotyping women centered kin networks employment immigrant prostitution conflict with patriarchal attitudes feminism and lesbianism
