Race Sex And Gender:

Gender Nonconformity, Race, and Sexuality Toni P. Lester, 2002 How are culturally constructed stereotypes about appropriate sex based behavior formed If a person who is biologically female behaves in a stereotypically masculine manner what are the social political and cultural forces that may police her behavior And how will she manage her gendered image in response to that policing Finally how do race ethnicity or sexuality inform the way that sex based roles are constructed policed or managed The chapters in this book address such questions from social science perspectives and then examine personal stories of reinvention and transformation including discussions of the lives of dancers Isadora Duncan and Bill T Jones playwright Lorraine Hansberry and surrealist artist Claude Cahun Writers from fields as diverse as history art psychology law literature sociology and the activist community look at gender nonconformity from conceptual theoretical and empirical perspectives They emphasize that gender nonconformists can be gay lesbian bisexual transgender or anyone else who does not fit a model of Caucasian heterosexual behavior characterized by binary masculine and feminine roles

After Identity Georgia Warnke, 2007 Social and political theorists have traced in detail how individuals come to possess gender sex and racial identities This book examines the nature of these identities Georgia Warnke argues that identities in general are interpretations and as such have more in common with textual understanding than we commonly acknowledge A racial sexed or gendered understanding of who we and others are is neither exhaustive of the meanings we can be said to have nor uniquely correct We are neither always or only black or white men or women or males or females Rather all identities have a restricted scope and can lead to injustices and contradictions when they are employed beyond that scope In concluding her argument Warnke considers the legal and policy implications that follow for affirmative action childbearing leave the position of gays in the military and marriage between same sex partners
