Waiting for Heaven Heather Gillis,2014-03-27 Life can sometimes lead us to unexpected places to only leave us broken desperate and hurting Heather Gillis and her husband Mac waited in anticipation for the birth of their third child Like many Christian couples their dreams and expectations in marriage parenthood and daily life developed differently than theyd planned and left them grieving a life that would never be Their journey gives insight into a new normal and uncovers the stepping stones of the healing process In their process they re discovered Gods abounding love through their experiences of joy heartbreak and purpose Heather reaches out to parents around the globe to speak openly about being a wife mother friend relative or stranger during life changing trials and devastating struggles In Gods love she has found beauty in the midst of pain as well as peace in His presence on Earth while waiting for heaven

The Race Myth Joseph Graves,2005-06-28 Graves integration of science and objective analysis with popular biological assumptions of race makes this an enlightening and provocative work Booklist DOES RACE AS WE KNOW IT REALLY EXIST Preeminent evolutionary biologist Joseph Graves proves once and for all that it doesn t Through accessible and compelling language he makes the provocative argument that science cannot account for the radical categories used to classify people and debunks ancient race related fallacies that are still held as fact from damaging medical profiles to misconceptions about sports He explains why defining race according to skin tone or eye shape is woefully inaccurate and how making assumptions based on these false categories regarding IQ behavior or predisposition to disease has devastating effects Demonstrating that racial distinctions are in fact social inventions not biological truths The Race Myth brings much needed sound science to one of America s most emotionally charged debates

Running in the Zone King, Steve,2005 Twenty six runners ranging in age from 46 to 76 share their secrets motivations and experiences in the fields of running All are active runners and many presently hold world age class records Some have held world records and have achieved world level performances at the Olympics Commonwealth and European games But Running in the Zone isn t about super achievement it is about getting the most out the running experience regardless of age or even ability This book is for anyone interested in running and running related sports whether they are elite age class runners wanting to keep up performances or newcomers considering taking up running in their middle or even advanced years Many of the contributors didn t start running until they were over 40 and some didn t achieve their best personal performances until they were in their 50 s You will meet men and women who have a life long interest in running as well as those who took it up as personal challenges All are inspiring in one way or another and have something valuable to teach not necessarily about running per se but rather personal satisfaction giving back through voluntarism and commitment to a goal or purpose The book was the idea of editors Steve King and Dan Cumming and has come together through Steve's contacts in the world of running and Dan's love of running and editorial ability to pull the best out of a story. Both Steve and Dan have a long-term relationship with the sport. They both perceived that a growing number of older runners are involved in the running and that Running in the Zone would answer many of the needs of this group of active men and women helping them to get the best out of one of the most fundamental of athletic endeavors. For more information visit author's blog www.runninginthezone.ca Running Times, 2007-11. Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches and scientists, rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview. First Ladies of Running Amby Burfoot, 2016-04-05. Today millions of women and girls around the world enjoy running and entering races. It wasn't always so. In 1961 when Julia Chase edged to the start of a Connecticut 5-miler, officials tried to push her off the road. At the 1966 Boston Marathon, Roberta Gibb hid behind a forsythia bush, worried that police might arrest her. The next year at Boston, Kathrine Switzer was assaulted mid-race by a furious race organizer. In the mid-60s, Indianapolis high schooler Cheryl Bridges was told not to run anywhere near the boys track team because she might distract them. When Charlotte Lettis signed up for the University of Massachusetts cross-country team in the fall of 1971, she was told to use the men's locker room. A few years later in coastal Maine, young Joan Benoit would stop her workouts to pretend she was picking roadside flowers, embarrassed that her neighbors might spot her running. First Ladies of Running tells the inspiring stories of these and other fiercely independent runners who refused to give up despite the cultural and sports barriers they faced. Legends such as Doris Brown, Francie Larrieu, Mary Decker, Jackie Hansen, Miki Gorman and Grete Waitz are chronicled by Runner's World editor Amby Burfoot. Burfoot even runs the 1994 Marine Corps Marathon with Oprah Winfrey, whose successful finish opened the floodgates for other women runners. First Ladies of Running is a beautiful and long-overdue tribute to the pioneers of women's running and a gift of empowerment for female runners everywhere. Boston Marathon Tom Derderian, 2017-03-14. From running legend Tom Derderian comes a comprehensive look at one of the most storied and celebrated athletic events in the nation, the Boston Marathon. For more than 110 years, the race has been regarded as one of the world's great racing traditions. From the narrow starting line on Main Street through the Screams Tunnel, past the coeds of Wellesley and up the infamous Heartbreak Hill, Derderian chronicles the unforgettable passions, triumphs and pitfalls of every race in the marathon's storied history. The book also includes interviews and race recaps from marathoning greats such as Bill Rodgers, Joan Benoit, Samuelson, Meb Keflezighi, Uta Pippig, Alberto Salazar, Frank Shorter, Kara Goucher, Ryan Hall, Desiree Davila, Geoffrey Mutai, Robert Kipkoech Cheruiyot and dozens more. Complete with more than one hundred photographs and results from every year, the Boston Marathon belongs on the shelf of every runner. Running Times, 2008-11. Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches and scientists, rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview. Native Americans in Sports C.
