Racism A Global Reader:

Racism Kevin Reilly, Stephen Kaufman, Angela Bodino, 2003 Racism has existed throughout the world for centuries and has been at the root of innumerable conflicts and human tragedies including war genocide slavery bigotry and discrimination Defined broadly racism has had many forms and effects from caste prejudice in India and mass extermination in Tasmania to slavery in the Americas and the Holocaust in Europe Put simply racism has been one of the overriding forces in world history for more than a millennium This book provides a global perspective of racism in its myriad forms Consisting of twelve parts and fifty one articles it focuses on racism worldwide over the past thousand years It includes three types of articles original documents scholarly essays and journalistic accounts The Oxford Handbook of Global Studies Mark

Juergensmeyer, Saskia Sassen, Manfred B. Steger (ed), 2019 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has been reshaping the modern world and an array of new scholarship has risen to make sense of it in its various transnational manifestations including economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and in new communications The chapters discuss various aspects in the field through a broad range of approaches This handbook focuses on global studies more than on the phenomenon of globalization itself although the various aspects of globalization are central to understanding how the field is currently being shaped Policing the World on Screen Marilyn Yaquinto, 2019-11-08 This book analyzes Hollywood storytelling that features an American crimefighter whether cop detective or agent who must safeguard society and the nation by any means necessary That often means going rogue and breaking the rules even deploying ugly violence but excused as self defense or to serve the greater good This ends justifies means approach dates back to gunfighters taming the western frontier to urban cowboy cops battling urban savagery first personified by Dirty Harry Callahan and later dispatched in global interventions to vanquish threats to national security America as the world's policeman often means controlling the Other at home and abroad which also extends American hegemony from the Cold War through the War on Terror This book also examines pioneering portrayals by males of color and female crimefighters to embody such a social or national defender which are frustrated by their existence as threats the white knight exists to defeat Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer, 2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society

The Vanishing Black African Woman:

Volume Two Olumide, Yetunde Mercy, 2016-10-06 Skin lightening is currently one of the most common forms of potentially harmful body modification practices in the world and African women are among some of the most widely represented users of skin lightening products The overall objective of this book is to provide up to date evidence based recommendations for reducing the global burden of cosmetic skin bleaching and preventing injuries related to skin bleaching in sub Saharan Africa and Africans in diaspora The book aims to offer an appraisal of all relevant literature on cosmetic bleaching practices to date

focusing on any key developments identify and address important medical public health issues as well as historical genetic psychosocial cultural behavioural socioeconomic political institutional and environmental determinants provide guideline recommendations that would help attenuate the burden and possibly eliminate the injuries related to skin bleaching discuss potential developments and future directions International Human Rights Law and Practice Ilias Bantekas,Lutz Oette,2024-02-15 Now in its fourth edition this well respected textbook blends the theory of human rights with its context debates and practice The World that Trade Created Kenneth Pomeranz,Steven Topik,2006 Why are railroad tracks separated by the same four feet eight inches as ancient Roman roads How did 19th century Europeans turn mountains of bird excrement from Peru into mountains of gold The answers to these tantalizing questions and dozens more will be revealed

The African Diaspora Patrick Manning,2010-03-05 Patrick Manning follows the multiple routes that brought Africans and people of African descent into contact with one another and with Europe Asia and the Americas In joining these stories he shows how the waters of the Atlantic Ocean the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian Ocean fueled dynamic interactions among black communities and cultures and how these patterns resembled those of a number of connected diasporas concurrently taking shaping across the globe Manning begins in 1400 and traces the connections that enabled Africans to mutually identify and hold together as a global community He tracks discourses on race changes in economic circumstance the evolving character of family life and the growth of popular culture He underscores the profound influence that the African diaspora had on world history and demonstrates the inextricable link between black migration and the rise of modernity Inclusive and far reaching The African Diaspora proves that the advent of modernity cannot be fully understood without taking the African peoples and the African continent into account Human Rights in the World Community Richard

Pierre Claude,Burns H. Weston,2006-10-04 This unique textbook seeks to promote students critical and analytical skills and to provide a teacher friendly resource featuring in depth scholarly introductions to each chapter multiple questions for discussion and reflection and an extensive bibliography and annotated filmography The Human Journey Kevin Reilly,2018-05-04 The Human Journey offers a truly concise yet satisfyingly full history of the world from ancient times to the present The book s scope as the title implies is the whole story of humanity in planetary context Its themes include not only the great questions of the humanities nature versus nurture the history and meaning of human variation the sources of wealth and causes of revolution but also the major transformations in human history agriculture cities iron writing universal religions global trade industrialization popular government justice and equality In each conceptually rich chapter Kevin Reilly concentrates on a single important period and theme sustaining a focused narrative and analytical perspective Free of either a confined limiting focus or a mandatory laundry list of topics this book begins with our most important questions and searches all of our past for answers Well grounded in the latest scholarship this is not a fill in the blanks text but world history in a grand humanistic tradition An instructor s manual includes questions for classroom discussion substance exam

Slavery and the Culture of Taste Simon Gikandi, 2014-04-27 It would be easy to assume that in the eighteenth century slavery and the culture of taste the world of politeness manners and aesthetics existed as separate and unequal domains unrelated in the spheres of social life But to the contrary Slavery and the Culture of Taste demonstrates that these two areas of modernity were surprisingly entwined Ranging across Britain the antebellum South and the West Indies and examining vast archives including portraits period paintings personal narratives and diaries Simon Gikandi illustrates how the violence and ugliness of enslavement actually shaped theories of taste notions of beauty and practices of high culture and how slavery's impurity informed and haunted the rarified customs of the time Gikandi focuses on the ways that the enslavement of Africans and the profits derived from this exploitation enabled the moment of taste in European mainly British life leading to a transformation of bourgeois ideas regarding freedom and selfhood He explores how these connections played out in the immense fortunes made in the West Indies sugar colonies supporting the lavish lives of English barons and altering the ideals that defined middle class subjects Discussing how the ownership of slaves turned the American planter class into a new aristocracy Gikandi engages with the slaves own response to the strange interplay of modern notions of freedom and the realities of bondage and he emphasizes the aesthetic and cultural processes developed by slaves to create spaces of freedom outside the regimen of enforced labor and truncated leisure Through a close look at the eighteenth century's many remarkable documents and artworks Slavery and the Culture of Taste sets forth the tensions and contradictions entangling a brutal practice and the distinctions of civility

On the Offensive Karen Stollznow, 2020 You people She was asking for it That's so gay Don't be a Jew My ex girlfriend is crazy You'd be pretty if you lost weight You look good for your age These statements can be offensive to some people but it is complicated to understand exactly why It is often difficult to recognize the veiled racism sexism ableism lookism ageism and other isms that hide in our everyday language From an early age we learn and normalize many words and phrases that exclude groups of people and reinforce bias and social inequality Our language expresses attitudes and beliefs that can reveal internalized discrimination prejudice and intolerance Some words and phrases are considered to be offensive even if we're not trying to be

AfroSymbiocity as a Psychology of Conflict and Conflict Resolution in Africa Ilongo Fritz Ngale, 2018-11-07 This book highlights original and traditional African strategies for conflict resolution based on four Basotho cultural concepts namely Botho or unity of being Pula or universalism Khotso or communalism and Nala or humanism In doing so it provides the missing psychological and African cultural pieces in the puzzle of conflict and conflict resolution This paradigm AfroSymbiocity is Sub Saharan African in scope but will have universal relevance The book transcends theory by demonstrating the application of traditional African peace and conflict resolution strategies through considering a historical personage King Moshoeshoe who effectively used authentic African conflict resolution strategies to forge harmony in Southern Africa in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The book represents a major contribution to research and literature in peace and conflict studies and will be vital for students researchers and professionals in peace studies national and international decision makers and bodies which strive for world peace Grainger Journal Vol. 1 David Pear,Belinda Nemec,2011 Fearing the Black Body Sabrina Strings,2019-05-07 Winner 2020 Body and Embodiment Best Publication Award given by the American Sociological Association Honorable Mention 2020 Sociology of Sex and Gender Distinguished Book Award given by the American Sociological Association How the female body has been racialized for over two hundred years There is an obesity epidemic in this country and poor black women are particularly stigmatized as diseased and a burden on the public health care system This is only the most recent incarnation of the fear of fat black women which Sabrina Strings shows took root more than two hundred years ago Strings weaves together an eye opening historical narrative ranging from the Renaissance to the current moment analyzing important works of art newspaper and magazine articles and scientific literature and medical journals where fat bodies were once praised showing that fat phobia as it relates to black women did not originate with medical findings but with the Enlightenment era belief that fatness was evidence of savagery and racial inferiority The author argues that the contemporary ideal of slenderness is at its very core racialized and racist Indeed it was not until the early twentieth century when racialized attitudes against fatness were already entrenched in the culture that the medical establishment began its crusade against obesity An important and original work Fearing the Black Body argues convincingly that fat phobia isn't about health at all but rather a means of using the body to validate race class and gender prejudice Genocide, Ethnonationalism, and the United Nations Hannibal Travis,2013-01-17 Genocide Ethnonationalism and the United Nations examines a series of related crises in human civilization growing out of conflicts between powerful states or empires and indigenous or stateless peoples This is the first book to attempt to explore the causes of genocide and other mass killing by a detailed exploration of UN archives covering the period spanning from 1945 through 2011 Hannibal Travis argues that large states and empires disproportionately committed or facilitated genocide and other mass killings between 1945 and 2011 His research incorporates data concerning factors linked to the scale of mass killing and recent findings in human rights political science and legal theory Turning to potential solutions he argues that the concept of genocide imagines a future system of global governance under which the nation state itself is made subject to law The United Nations however has deflected the possibility of such a cosmopolitical law It selectively condemns genocide and has established an institutional structure that denies most peoples subjected to genocide of a realistic possibility of global justice lacks a robust international criminal tribunal or UN army and even encourages security cooperation among states that have proven to be destructive of peoples in the past Questions raised include What have been the causes of mass killing during the period since the United Nations Charter entered into force in 1945 How does mass killing spread across international borders and what is the role of resource wealth the arms trade and external interference in this process Have the United Nations or the International

Criminal Court faced up to the problem of genocide and other forms of mass killing as is their mandate

Imagining Global Amsterdam Marco de Waard, 2012-01-01 Imagining Global Amsterdam gaat over het beeld van Amsterdam in film literatuur visuele kunst en in het moderne stedelijke discours in het bijzonder in de context van de mondialisering De essays gaan onder andere dieper in op Amsterdam als een lieu de mmoire van de vroeg moderne wereldhandel Wat betekent deze herinnering in de hedendaagse cultuur Waarom verwijzen zo veel contemporaine films en romans naar dit verleden terug Ook het inter nationale imago van Amsterdam als een multicultureel en ultra tolerant %x global village %x komt aan bod Waarom is dit beeld zo persistent en hoe heeft het zich in de loop van de laatste decennia ontwikkeld Tot slot wordt ingegaan op de vraag hoe mondialiseringsprocessen ingrijpen in de stadscultuur zoals in het prostitutiegebied op de Wallen en via de erfgoedindustrie Hoe manifesteert de mondialisering zich in de stad en welke rol speelt beeldvorming daarbij Deze bundel vormt een rijk geschakeerd onderzoek naar de relatie tussen Amsterdam mondialisering en stedelijke beeldvorming Marco de Waard is als docent literatuurwetenschap verbonden aan het Amsterdam University College

Lifelines from Our Past L. S. Stavrianos, 2015-03-04 This book offers an extraordinary interpretation of world history from the paleolithic era to the present Renowned historian L S Stavrianos conceptualizes human history into three categories kinship societies tributary societies and capitalist societies In each he discerns and studies four life line issues ecology gender relations social relations and war that encompass the broadest areas of human experience The revised edition projects forward to the twenty first century offering the author s views on possible future scenarios involving the same lifeline issues

Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Racisms John Solomos, 2020-02-25 The study of contemporary forms of racism has expanded greatly over the past four decades Although it has been a focus for scholarship and research for the past three centuries it is perhaps over this more recent period that we have seen important transformations in the analytical frames and methods to explore the changing patterns of contemporary racisms The Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Racisms brings together thirty four original chapters from international experts that address key features of contemporary racisms The Handbook has a truly global orientation and covers contemporary racisms in both the western and non western geopolitical environments In terms of structure the volume is organized into ten interlinked parts that include Theories and Histories Contemporary Racisms in Global Perspective Racism and the State Racist Movements and Ideologies Anti Racisms Racism and Nationalism Intersections of Race and Gender Racism Culture and Religion Methods of Studying Contemporary Racisms and the End of Racism These parts contain chapters that draw on original theoretical and empirical research to address the evolution and changing forms of contemporary racism The Handbook is framed by a General Introduction and by short introductions to each part that provide an overview of key themes and concerns Written in a clear and direct style and from a conceptual multidisciplinary and international perspective the Handbook will provide students scholars and practitioners with an overview of the most pressing issues of Racisms in our time
