If this be applicable to the multitude how much more essentially true is it in reference to the ethereal spirits endowed by the Supreme with a lavish portion of intellectual strength as well as with proportionate capacities for doing good. How serious therefore is the obligation to fidelity when the portraiture of a man is to be presented like Samuel Taylor Coleridge in whom such diversified and contrary qualities alternately predominated. Yet all the advantages to be derived from him and similar instructors of mankind must result from a faithful exhibition of the broad features of their earthly conduct and character so that they might stand out as landmarks and pharos towers to guide or warn or encourage all succeeding voyagers on the Ocean of Life.
