California. Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District). Division 2. Records and Briefs California (State)., War, Peace and Terror in the Middle East Raphael Israeli, 2014-03-18 A collection of articles about the fateful issues of war and peace in the Middle East especially the evasive brands of war terrorism and incitement Horrific words of incitement followed by atrocious acts of terror have occurred during the past few years These have significantly eroded hope in the peace process that had been initiated by Sadat and Begin a quarter century ago 1977 All efforts to duplicate that feat between Israel and Palestinians have ended in frustration so far and it now seems that a tremendous amount of ground work will have to be done before a new peace venture This volume focuses on these themes and brings to bear both the benefit of the hindsight gained since the articles were published and the insight that the current world crisis occasioned by the terrorism and broadsides against Western culture that al Qai da and its allies have launched Gardens, Landscape, and Vision in the Palaces of Islamic Spain ,2000 Translation in Asia Ronit Ricci,Jan van der Putten,2014-04-08 The field of translation studies was largely formed on the basis of modern Western notions of monolingual nations with print literate societies and monochrome cultures A significant number of societies in Asia and their translation traditions have diverged markedly from this model With their often multilingual populations and maintaining a highly oral orientation in the transmission of cultural knowledge many Asian societies have sustained alternative notions of what text original and translation may mean and have often emphasized performance and change rather than simple copying or transference The contributions in Translation in Asia present exciting new windows into South and Southeast Asian translation traditions and their vast array of shared inter connected and overlapping ideas about and practices of translation transmitted between these two regions over centuries of contact and exchange Drawing on translation traditions rarely acknowledged within translation studies debates including Tagalog Tamil Kannada Malay Hindi Javanese Telugu and Malayalam the essays in this volume engage with myriad interactions of translation and religion colonialism and performance and provide insight into alternative conceptualizations of translation across periods and locales The understanding gained from these diverse perspectives will contribute to complicate and expand the conversations unfolding in an emerging international translation studies The Reformation of the Subject Linda Gregerson,1995-05-26 The Reformation of the Subject is a study of the cultural contradictions that gave birth to the English Protestant epic In lucid and theoretically sophisticated language Linda Gregerson examines the fraught ideological political and gender conflicts that are woven into the texture of The Faerie Queene and Paradise Lost She reminds us that Reformation iconoclasts viewed verbal images with the same aversion as visual images because they too were capable of waylaying the human imagination Through a series of detailed readings Gregerson examines the different strategies adopted by Spenser and Milton as they sought to distinguish their poems from idols yet preserve the shaping power that iconoclasts have long attributed to icons Tracing the transformation of the epic poem into an instrument for the reformation of the political subject Gregerson thus provides an illuminating contribution to our understanding of the ways in which subjectivities are historically produced Hyponoia; Or, Thoughts on a Spiritual Understanding, Συνεσις Πνευματικη, of the Apocalypse, Or Book of Revelation. With the Text in Greek and English.] ,1844 John Milton John T. Shawcross,2013-06-17 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer s work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare s plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen s novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author's reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer's published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes
