Black Reflective Sociology John H. Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 John H. Stanfield II the leading contemporary Black sociologist of knowledge distills decades of his research and thinking in a set of articles, some original to the volume, others from fugitive sources that address race in the formation of epistemologies, theories, and methodologies in social science. Stanfield's contributions to the discipline, such as the adoption of restorative justice as an anti-racism solution in multiracial societies and the development of African diasporic sociological reasoning, are highlighted here. Ranging widely across theoretical, methodological, and substantive topics, Stanfield creates a reflective sociology viewed through an African diasporic lens that enriches the thinking and practice of social science. A Quarterly Bibliography on Cultural Differences, 1979. Research Methods in Education and Psychology Donna M. Mertens, 1998. It not only covers two of the standard paradigms, postpositivist and interpretive constructivist, but discusses a relative newcomer, the emancipatory paradigm that is inclusive of the perspectives of feminists, ethnic racial minorities, and persons with disabilities. In each chapter, Donna M. Mertens carefully explains a step of the research process, from the literature review to types of research method to analysis and reporting of quantitative or qualitative approaches. Ideologies of Marginality in Brazilian Hip Hop D. Pardue, 2008-07-07.
