Silverless Mirrors Self And Postmodern American Fiction:

Silverless Mirrors Charles Caramello,1983 The Play of the Double in Postmodern American Fiction Gordon Slethaug,1993 In The Hawkline Monster Brautigan's minimalist metafictional parody of the double depicts our narcissistic view of reality In Double or Nothing Federman subverts the conventional double exposing its gamelike structures and traditional views of life and text The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates The Troubles With Postmodernism Stefan Morawski,2013-06-17 In this original and eye opening study Stefan Morawski sheds light on the often confused debate about postmodernism postmodernity and human values Drawing upon a wide range of evidence from the experience of everyday life in the sciences religion visual arts literature film television and contemporary music The Troubles with Postmodernism is an indispensable guide to our understanding and evaluation of contemporary literature Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman,2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect some sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply

Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature Exploring Postmodernism Matei Calinescu, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1988-01-01 The great diversity of contexts in which the term Postmodernism is currently encountered reflects the remarkable success of a coinage that has been in circulation for only about forty years It has been used by philosophers sociologists art critics and literary historians to become finally a household word in the language of advertising and politics Before letting it fade to a derelict cliché an attempt is made in this volume of essays to use its potential as a cultural concept for the analysis and understanding of contemporary literature and thought Unpainted to the Last Elizabeth A. Schultz, 1995 The most continuously frequently and diversely illustrated of all American novels Moby Dick has attracted some remarkable book illustrators in Rockwell Kent Boardman Robinson Garrick Palmer Barry Moser and Bill Sienkiewicz among others represented here Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy Forgiving the Boundaries Terry Caesar, 1995 Caesar attempts to historicize the sustaining interplay between romanticism and travel writing but also emphasizes that his understanding of American travel writing has more to do with narrative form epistemology and cultural inheritance than particular historical shapings The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Textual Bodies Michael Kaufmann, 1994 Many have commented on the unusual appearance of modernist novels but few have bothered to examine what part is played by the unusual typography paginal arrangement and binding in the works themselves Examining Faulkner's As I Lay Dying Stein's Tender Buttons Joyce's Finnegans Wake and William Gass's Willie Masters Lonesome Wife Michael Kaufmann shows how these writers exposed the printed surface of their works and eventually made the print a part of the fiction itself Earlier English novels always presented themselves as printed artifacts letters diaries logs but by the nineteenth century writers played down the physical form of the novel positing the book as a space for tale telling and not of reading Print was simply the transparent medium that delivered the tale In the twentieth century modernist writers were aware that print had been subtly shaping language and consciousness so they felt the necessity for exposing the printed page To make readers aware of the print itself modernists broke up the conventional arrangements of the page and the book Kaufmann shows the gradual opening of the iconic space of the novel from Faulkner and Stein to Joyce and Gass Stein breaks with the conventional arrangement in Tender Buttons to split the husk of meaning that words had acquired through use Her apparent nonsense turned out to be the only way she could find to make sense Faulkner and Joyce employ a more conventional paginal arrangement but bring their narratives into the space of the page As I Lay Dying speaks itself physically enacting the narrative The enactment calls attention to the printed surface and shows the composed rows of interchangeable type comprising the narrative In Finnegans Wake Joyce overuses the conventions of print until they become visible as conventions Readers see fully the various textual spaces of the book alphabetic lexical paginal and compositional More spectacularly the paginal space becomes narrational space the printed characters on the page are the fictional characters The final novel studied Gass's Willie Masters Lonesome Wife meditates on its fictions especially the fictions of its physical form its body Gass uses the textual space of the novel with a thoroughness similar to Joyce's The Book of the Wife sounds a simultaneous delight and despair at the form that gives her the visible body of language but which also encloses her bodiless voice in a skin of print Recognizing the printed body of the modernist text as one of its defining features argues Kaufmann helps define high modernism and identifies the modernist strain of some writers considered postmodernist

Autobiographical Poetry in England and Spain, 1950-1980 Menotti Lerro, 2017-03-07

The volume traces the founding critical theories of the autobiographical genre from the Enlightenment period to the most recent developments which since the Sixties and the essays of Roy Pascal and Jean Starobinski have had a greater and greater influence It offers in contrast to the essential and by now classic definition of Philippe Lejeune an increased effectiveness of the poem to express the narrative purposes of autobiography recognizing poetic writing that has the extraordinary ability to say what the mortal language does not say to quote Leopardi The works of Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Carlos Barral and Jaime Gil de Biedma are analyzed here and show an unveiling of the self through memories places and objects that often characterize them and that allow to whomever recalls one s own experience through writing the recovery and restoration of essential meanings to the reconstruction not only of subjective identity but also of one s own community
