Lost Cause Of Rhetoric The Relation Of Rhetoric And Geometry In Aristotle And Lacan:

Lacan: Topologically Speaking Ellie Ragland, 2020-09-08 The study of topology examines the way something can change shape while still retaining the same properties Jacques Lacan devoted the last part of his teaching to the topology of the subject During the 50s he gauged the topology of surfaces torus Moebius strips Klein bottles crosscaps and from 1972 on he studied the topology of knots Borromean the sinthome Showing that bodily and mental life function topologically he did what no one had done before he added to the logic of how representations function the logic of jouissance or libidinal meaning that materializes language by making desire fantasy and the partial drives ascertainable functions of it For Lacan topology is neither myth nor metaphor It is the precise way we may understand the construction and appearance of the subject Space is multidimensional in terms of both meaning and logic Lacanian topology answers questions of post structuralism while revealing the flaws in its theories It also advances a 21st century teaching that obviates symbolic logic and its positivistic assumptions Applications are made to the clinic to literature and to the social sciences The authors collected here include world renowned Lacanian topologists such as Jacques Alain Miller Jeanne Lafont Jean Paul Gilson Pierre Skriabine Juan David Nasio Jean Michel Vappereau and several new theorists from the United States and Europe The Lost Cause of Rhetoric David Metzger, 1995 Metzger points out that contemporary researchers in rhetoric often assume a definition of rhetoric for the purpose of classification distinguishing for instance among a medieval rhetoric a feminist rhetoric or a phenomenological rhetoric This kind of research he believes examines rhetoric in terms of what it was or might be but not in terms of what it actually is Lacan in Public Christian Lundberg, 2012-11-26 Lacan in Public argues that Lacan's contributions to the theory of rhetoric are substantial and revolutionary and that rhetoric is in fact the central concern of Lacan's entire body of work Scholars typically cite Jacques Lacan as a thinker primarily concerned with issues of desire affect politics and pleasure And though Lacan explicitly contends with some of the pivotal thinkers in the field of rhetoric rhetoricians have been hesitant to embrace the French thinker both because his writing is difficult and because Lacan's conception of rhetoric runs counter to the American traditions of rhetoric in composition and communication studies Lacan's conception of rhetoric Christian Lundberg argues in Lacan in Public upsets and extends the received wisdom of American rhetorical studies that rhetoric is a science rather than an art that rhetoric is predicated not on the reciprocal exchange of meanings but rather on the impossibility of such an exchange and that rhetoric never achieves a correspondence with the real world circumstances it attempts to describe As Lundberg shows Lacan's work speaks directly to conversations at the center of current rhetorical scholarship including debates regarding the nature of the public and public discourses the materiality of rhetoric and agency and the contours of a theory of persuasion Rhetorics, Literacies, and Narratives of Sustainability Peter N. Goggin, 2011-02-23 In this volume rhetoricians literacy scholars and humanists have come together to examine the complex discursive constructions of sustainability Touching on topics including conservation efforts in specific locales social and political constructions of rhetorical place and space community literacy historical and archival analysis of institutional politics policies and practices concerning the environment and economic growth and development town planning and zoning issues and rhetorics of environmental remediation and sustainability this collection of essays provides rhetoricians and environmentalists a window into the complex and often contradictory arena of discourse on sustainability

Lacan and the Destiny of Literature Ehsan Azari, 2008-11-06 In contemporary academic literary studies Lacan is often considered impenetrably obscure due to the unavailability of his late works insufficient articulation of his methodologies and sometimes stereotypical use of Lacanian concepts in literary theory This study aims to integrate Lacan into contemporary literary study by engaging with a broad range of Lacanian theoretical concepts often for the first time in English and using them to analyse a range of key texts from different periods Azari explores Lacan's theory of desire as well as his final theories of littoral and the sinthome and interrogates a range of poststructuralist interpretive approaches In the second part of the book he outlines the variety of ways in which Lacanian theory can be applied to literary texts and offers detailed readings of texts by Shakespeare Donne Joyce and Ashbery This ground breaking study provides original insights into a number of the most influential intellectual discussions in relation to Lacan and will fill a recognised gap in understanding Lacan and his legacy for literary study and criticism Changing the Subject in English Class Marshall W. Alcorn, 2002 Alcorn English and humanities George Washington U argues that the gradual shift in the teaching of composition from a curriculum that looked at literature as an attempt to represent reality to one that stresses the subjectivity of the student in decoding texts has incorporated an insufficiently complex understanding of subjectivity The current cultural studies programs stress political ideas over expressive writing but Alcorn argues that political ideas will never be right unless there is attention to self expression Basing his work in the conceptual world of psychoanalytic theory he outlines a cultural studies practice that develops anti ideological identity Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Other Side of Pedagogy T. R. Johnson, 2014-10-15 University classrooms are increasingly in crisis though popular demands for accountability grow more insistent no one seems to know what our teaching should seek to achieve This book traces how we arrived at our current impasse and it uses Lacan's theory of the four discourses to chart a path forward via an analysis of the freshman writing class How did we forfeit a meaningful set of goals for our teaching T R Johnson suggests that by the 1960s the work of Bergson and Piaget had led us to see student growth as a journey into more and more abstract thought a journey that will happen naturally if the teacher knows how to stay out of the way Since the 1960s we've come to see development in turn only as a vague initiation into the academic community This book however offers an alternative tradition one rooted in Vygotsky and the feminist movement that defines the developing student writer in terms of a complex intersubjective ecology and then through these precedents proposes a fully psychoanalytic model of student development To illustrate his practical use of the four discourses Johnson draws on a wide array of concepts and a colorful set of examples including Franz Kafka

Keith Richards David Foster Wallace Hannah Arendt and many others Critical Essays on Jacques Lacan Ellie Ragland-Sullivan, 1999 The full range of literary traditions comes to life in the Twayne Critical Essays Series Volume editors have carefully selected critical essays that represent the full spectrum of controversies trends and methodologies relating to each author's work Essays include writings from the author's native country and abroad with interpretations from the time they were writing through the present day Each volume includes An introduction providing the reader with a lucid overview of criticism from its beginnings illuminating controversies evaluating approaches and sorting out the schools of thought The most influential reviews and the best reprinted scholarly essays A section devoted exclusively to reviews and reactions by the subject's contemporaries Original essays new translations and revisions commissioned especially for the series Previously unpublished materials such as interviews lost letters and manuscript fragments A bibliography of the subject's writings and interviews A name and subject index The Writing Instructor ,1995 Lacanian Ink ,1995 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1994 Gail E. Selfe, 1996-09 This volume lists and annotates more than two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1994 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter The 1994 Bibliography looks dramatically different from the Bibliography Erika Lindemann founded more than ten years ago Many more titles now relate to fields not represented in early editions Although composition and rhetoric has always borrowed methods of investigation from other disciplines areas such as critical theory science studies feminist theory technology studies and postmodern theory were much less a part of the discipline a decade ago These fields are well represented this year This volume like the 1993 Bibliography also differs from early editions in that it contains a section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups Yet the mission and goals of the Bibliography remain the same to ensure that it is sufficiently comprehensive that it can continue to function as a major bibliographical resource available to scholars and teachers in rhetoric composition communication and literary education As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine the entry's usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric remains a critical bibliographical resource one that reflects and respects the variety of scholarship in composition studies and that exerts a constructive productive influence on the composition and rhetoric community Publications of the State of Illinois 1994 , Publications of the State of Illinois ,1995 American Book Publishing Record ,1995 Works and Days ,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1995-02 Pre/Text ,1995 JAC ,2005 Language ,1995 Publications of the State of Illinois Illinois.
