Making Educated Decisions Charles A. Birnbaum, 2017-11-18 Excerpt from Making Educated Decisions A Landscape Preservation Bibliography Since the publication of Preserving Historic Landscapes by the National Park Service in 1990 the field of landscape preservation has witnessed a dramatic increase in project work and academic interest These developments have fueled the profession and can be measured by the increased number of books technical publications journal articles and conferences on the subject However readers are often challenged by conflicting approaches in landscape preservation literature practice and policy and interpretations of the Secretary of the Interior's Standards Additionally there is a growing number of articles in allied disciplines such as archaeology cultural geography anthropology natural sciences and computer technology which may not be known or easily obtained by landscape architects and preservation planners engaged in project work today Recognizing that the National Park Service mission includes a wise use of our land and preserving the environmental and cultural values of our national parks and historical places this document has been prepared to guide the user in obtaining practical guidance to make educated decisions when researching planning managing and undertaking project work in cultural landscape resources About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
