"Making a Way Out of No Way" Wolfgang Mieder, 2010 In barely forty years of life Martin Luther King

1929-1968 distinguished himself as one of the greatest social reformers of modern times, civil rights leader, defender of nonviolence in the struggle of desegregation, champion of the poor, anti-war proponent and broad-minded visionary of an interrelated world of free people. His many verbal and written communications in the form of sermons, speeches, interviews, letters, essays, and several books are replete with Bible proverbs as "Love your enemies. He who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword" and "Man does not live by bread alone" as well as folk proverbs as "Time and tide wait for no man", "Last hired, first fired", "No gain without pain", and "Making a way out of no way". He also delighted in citing quotations that have become proverbs to wit, "No man is an island. All men are created equal" and "No lie can live forever". King recycles these bits of traditional wisdom in various contexts, varying his proverbial messages as he addresses the multifaceted issues of civil rights. His rhetorical prowess is thus informed to a considerable degree by his effective use of his repertoire of proverbs which he frequently uses as leitmotifs or amasses into set pieces of fixed phrases to be employed repeatedly.

Operations Executive in Malaya Rebecca Kenneison, 2019-05-30 During World War II agents of the Special Operations Executive SOE infiltrated Japanese occupied Malaya. There they worked with Malayan guerrilla groups including the communist sponsored Malayan Peoples Anti Japanese Army MPAJA regarded as the precursor of the communist insurgent army of the Malayan Emergency. This book traces the development of SOE's Malayan operations and analyses the interactions between SOE and the various guerrilla groups. It explores the reasons for and the extent of Malay disillusionment with Japanese rule and demonstrates how guerrilla service acted as a training ground for some later Malay leaders of the independent nation. However the reports written about the MPAJA by SOE operatives just after the war failed to draw out the likely future threat posed by the communists to the returning colonial administration. Rebecca Kenneison shows that the British possessed a wealth of local information but failed to convert it into active intelligence in the period prior to the Malayan Emergency. In doing so she provides new insights into the impact of SOE on Malayan politics, the nature of Malayan communism's challenge to colonial rule and British post war intelligence in Malaya.
