Making Fast Food From The Frying Pan Into The Fryer:

Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1996 Some say the adventurous days of grueling and dangerous scientific exploration are long gone but Reiter sociology Brock U undertook a 10 month trek without pay into the uncharted wilds of a Burger King kitchen to bring us first hand accounts of the strange and marvellous customs of the natives The illustrations are hilarious Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1991-09-03 The flourishing fast food industry represents one particular blueprint of how to live Reiter analyses the profound consequences of this blueprint for many spheres of life women s work youth employment the labour movement the family and the community Since the 1970s young people and women have increasingly entered the job market in low waged service sector jobs Family life she explains has changed dramatically in the last forty years as many activities that were traditionally part of the home have been replaced by services available in the marketplace The production of meals and those who produce them have moved from the family kitchen to the highly regulated corporate workplace where workers are like the interchangeable parts of a machine

Fast Food Nation Eric Schlosser, 2001 An exploration of the fast food industry in the United States from its roots to its long term consequences Making Fast Food Ester Reiter, 1996 Language and Hegemony in Gramsci Peter Ives, 2004-07-20 Language and Hegemony in Gramsci introduces Gramsci s social and political thought through his writings on language It shows how his focus on language illuminates his central ideas such as hegemony organic and traditional intellectuals passive revolution civil society and subalternity Peter Ives explores Gramsci s concern with language from his university studies in linguistics to his last prison notebook Hegemony has been seen as Gramsci s most important contribution but without knowledge of its linguistic roots it is often misunderstood This book places Gramsci s ideas within the linguistically influenced social theory of the twentieth century It summarizes some of the major ideas of Ferdinand de Saussure Ludwig Wittgenstein language philosophy and post structuralism in relation to Gramsci s position By paying great attention to the linguistic underpinnings of Gramsci s Marxism Language and Hegemony in Gramsci shows how his theorization of power language and politics address issues raised by post modernism and the work of Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Chantal Mouffe and Ernesto Laclau Understanding Global Environmental Politics M. Paterson, 2000-04-07 Understanding Global Environmental Politics develops a new critical approach to global environmental politics It argues that the major power structures of world politics are deeply problematic in ecological terms and that they cannot be easily used to resolve major environmental challenges such as global warming Instead of simply advocating the construction of new international institutions to respond to such challenges therefore the book argues that the construction of alternative social and political structures is necessary Identity in Organizations Paul C. Godfrey, 1998-07-21 This investigation of the fundamental character of organizational identity and identification with an organization is arranged in the form of a provocative discussion between key scholars The book focuses on three different paradigmatic views of identity

functionalist interpretive and postmodern Similarities and distinctions among these ways of understanding are explored and numerous theoretical and practical insights are gained The book concludes with a discussion of the relevance of identity as a construct in organizational study and observations on conversation and theory building Women, Work and

Computerization A. Frances Grundy,1997-05-20 This volume considers the submissions to the 6th International IFIP TC 9 WG 9 1 Conference on Women Work and Computerization WWC 97 The conference provides an interdisciplinary forum for researchers practitioners and users in the field of information technology In this book the authors discuss how different areas of society are being transformed by computer technology but with particular emphasis on changes in women s work and life and how these have come about Such transformations include the transitions from women s traditional work to work based on modern technology from communicating within personal communities to communicating within virtual communities from traditional job gendering to new perspectives on who does what Eating Out Alan Warde, Lydia Martens,2000-03-30

Eating Out first published in 2000 is a fascinating study of the consumption of food outside the home based on extensive original research carried out in England in the 1990s Reflecting the explosion of interest in food ranging from food scares to the national obsession with celebrity chefs the practice of eating out has increased dramatically over recent years Through surveys and intensive interviews the authors have collected a wealth of information into people s attitudes towards and expectations of eating out as a form of entertainment and an expression of taste and status Amongst other topics they examine social inequalities in access to eating out social distinction interactions between customers and staff and the economic and social implications of the practice Eating Out will be a valuable resource to academics advanced students and practitioners in the sociology of consumption cultural studies social anthropology tourism and hospitality home economics marketing and the general reader The McDonaldization of Society George Ritzer,2018-01-12 The book that made

McDonaldization part of the lexicon of contemporary sociological theory read by hundreds of thousands of students is now in its Ninth Edition George Ritzer s seminal work of critical sociology The McDonaldization of Society continues to stand as one of the pillars of modern day sociological thought Building on the argument that that the fast food restaurant has become the model for the rationalization process today this book links theory to contemporary life in a globalized world and resonates with students in a way that few other books do Ritzer opens students eyes to many current issues and shows how

McDonaldization s principles apply to other settings especially in the areas of consumption and globalization Through vivid story telling prose Ritzer provides an insightful introduction to this fascinating topic and aids students critical development This new edition has been fully updated to include a new focus on McDonaldization in the digital world Agricultural

Standards Jim Bingen, Lawrence Busch,2006-03-08 Food and agricultural standards have recently risen to the top of both national and international agendas Popular concerns about the power of the World Trade Organization focus on the intertwined relationships between environmental protection labor and human rights and the standards used to produce and supply our food and fiber globally In the developing world agricultural grades and standards are an important part of the reconfiguration of roles and responsibilities between various public and private actors in market reform This original and informative collection of studies of agri food standards in the modern economy addresses these and helps to define the scope of the emerging study of the politics of standards setting Following an overview essay dealing with the multiple ways of thinking about approaching and defining food and agricultural standards eleven case studies offer a rich body of evidence that assesses the processes dynamics and potential consequences of global agri food standards For all interested in the strategic use of food and agricultural standards from those in national and international governmental agencies researchers and others in the academic and private sector to those in the private business sector this volume offers a broader perspective on and will serve as an important resource

Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F.

Sherry,1995-05-02 This exploration of marketing and consumer behaviour comprises original articles both theoretical and empirical and serves as a sourcebook for those interested in consumption and managerial consequences Issues discussed include elements of the marketing mix advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and stakeholder response organization behaviour economic development class and gender linked consumer behaviour and the production of consumption They are examined using anthropological perspectives and methods ranging from materialistic to semiotic

Eating Chinese Lily Cho,2010-01-01 In Eating Chinese Lily Cho examines Chinese restaurants as spaces that define for those both inside and outside the community what it means to be Chinese and what it means to be Chinese Canadian

Wheel of Fortune Jamie Swift,1995-05-01 Jamie Swift combines sharp eyed journalism that brings out the nuances of daily life with a penetrating analysis of jobless recovery He describes the emerging world of work through the eyes and experiences of people in Kingston and Windsor two Ontario cities with roots in the pre industrial past places poised for the post industrial information age

The Cinema of the Precariat Tom Zaniello,2020-02-20 The Cinema of the

Precariat is the first book to lay out the incredible range of the precariat the social class suffering from precarity as well as a detailed report on the cinematic record of their work and lives It discusses a thorough and definitive selection of more than 250 films and related visual media that take the measure of the precariat worldwide For example thousands of Haitians including children harvest sugar cane in the Dominican Republic The Price of Sugar while illegal Afghan refugees work in Iran Delbaran More familiar are the millions of Latino immigrants legal or not of all ages that work in the United States Food Chains Each chapter focuses on a sub class of the precariat or a contested zone of labor or the evolving political manifestation of the struggles of the unorganized and the dispossessed Among the hundreds of bewildering film choices available nowadays this book offers the reader reliable guidance to the films bringing to life the economic political and social dilemmas faced by millions of the world s global workforce and their families

Getting by in Hard Times David

Livingstone,Meg Luxton,June Shirley Corman,2001-01-01 Describes the experiences of daily life for predominantly white working class women and men during the period of economic restructuring begun in the 1980s Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla, Wallace Clement, 2007-03-12 Using a progressive approach to political economy contributors propose alternative policies and practices that might secure more decent livelihoods for workers and their families Creating Postwar Canada Magda Fahrni, Robert Rutherford, 2008-07-01 Creating Postwar Canada showcases new research on this complex period exploring postwar Canada's diverse symbols and battlegrounds Contributors to the first half of the collection consider evolving definitions of the nation examining the ways in which Canada was reimagined to include both the Canadian North and landscapes structured by trade and commerce The essays in the latter half analyze debates on shopping hours professional striptease the provider role of fathers interracial adoption sexuality on campus and illegal drug use issues that shaped how the country defined itself in sociocultural and political terms This collection contributes to the historiography of nationalism gender and the family consumer cultures and countercultures Storytelling Organizations David M Boje, 2008-10-07 Boje does not reflect trends he is among those who set them Herv Corvellec Department of Service Management Lund University How can I know what I think until I see what David Boje says What he says about storytelling will forever change what we thought we knew about stories With remarkable control over a complex argument Boje recovers re punctuates and re animates a world of narrative and sensemaking that we have previously taken for granted Karl E Weick Rensis Likert Distinguished University Professor of Organizational Behavior and Psychology Stephen M Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan Few people understand stories and storytelling as well as David Boje It is a measure of Boje's success as a theorist that the word story can never reclaim the innocence and simplicity it once enjoyed Nor with the benefit of his work can organizations be viewed as spaces which occasionally or incidentally spawn stories Boje's eagerly awaited book forces us to question many of our assumptions about storytelling it also demands that we revise several of our assumptions about what organizations are Yiannis Gabriel The School of Management Royal Holloway University of London Our company is made up of lots of stories We've found that stories get told and retold and become the fabric of an organization Policies lay unread in the company handbook or training manual David Boje taught me the value of stories in an organization Stories are the oil that makes the gears work How do you get your message heard in an organization with thousands of people David Boje taught me the value of telling stories at Stew Leonard's Stew Leonard Jr Stew Leonard Organization David Boje is one of the world's leading authorities on storytelling His work has influenced a generation of organizational theorists and students He not only provides new ways of understanding organizations but also provides fresh insights into the way in which stories function to provide meanings Heather H pfl University of Essex The idea of organizations using storytelling to make sense of themselves and their environment has generated a lot of excitement Written by the leading scholar in this field David Boje explores how narrative and storytelling is an important part of an organization's strategy development and learning processes With excellent examples from Nike McDonald's and Disney readers are shown how the theory that underpins organizational storytelling connects with storytelling in everyday organizational life David Boje's theories and ideas in relation to the study of storytelling in organizations are highly influential and this book will be a must have for any student or scholar interested in the area Measured Meals Jessica J. Mudry, 2009-02-18 2009 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title As nutritional studies proliferate producing more and more knowledge about the connection between diet and health Americans seem increasingly confused about what to eat to stay healthy In Measured Meals Jessica J. Mudry looks at the language used in the United States to communicate about health and nutrition and reveals its effects on reframing reshaping and controlling what and how Americans eat Analyzing the USDA and American federal food guidelines over the past one hundred years Mudry shows how the language of nutrition has evolved over time She critiques the trend of discussing food in terms of quantification calories vitamins and serving sizes She also examines how organizations such as the USDA attempt to legislate a healthy diet by mandating quantities of food based on measurable nutrients revealing the power of language to make meaning and influence social action
