involves serving neighbors When Christ sets us free indeed John 8:36 we are set free to serve others in deed Ethics involves intentional and disciplined reflection together in community on the choices we must make in living out our lives in the world While the focus on loving the neighbor is not unique to Lutheran ethics the author contends in this book that it is the most distinctive feature of ethics in the Lutheran perspective To that end Nesson explores biblical authority and Lutheran hermeneutics alongside the authority of the traditional elements of tradition reason and experience He moves on to explore what gospel freedom looks like in the current American context Nesson acknowledges the misinterpretation of Luther's two kingdoms teaching opting to describe Luther's two kingdoms as God's two strategies to bring forth the kingdom shalom of God Also addressed are the themes of justification and sanctification the vocation of the universal priesthood the ethics of the cross Lutheran ethics and political advocacy and the ethics of forgiveness The book is accessibly written with theology students pastors and interested lay readers in mind
