The Making of an Atlantic ruling class Kees van der Pijl, 2004      The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl, 1984      Historical Materialism and Globalisation Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2016-04-29 Now that Soviet style socialism has collapsed upon itself and liberal capitalism offers itself as the natural necessary and absolute condition of human social life on a worldwide scale this book insists that the potentially emancipatory resources of a renewed and perhaps reconstructed historical materialism are more relevant in today's world than ever before Rather than viewing global capitalism as an elutable natural force these essays seek to show how a dialectic of power and resistance is at work in the contemporary global political economy producing and contesting new realities and creating conditions in which new forms of collective self determination become thinkable and materially possible It will be vital topical reading for anyone interested in international relations international political economy sociology and political theory      Historical Materialism and Globalization Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2002 13 The politics of regulated liberalism a historical materialist approach to European integration 14 Historical materialism ideology and the politics of globalizing capitalism Index      Rooted Globalism Kevin Funk, 2022-10-18 Does the concept of nationality apply to the economic elite or have they shed national identities to form a global capitalist class In Rooted Globalism Kevin Funk unpacks dozens of ethnographic interviews he conducted with Latin America's urban based Arab descendant elite class some of whom also occupy positions of political power in countries such as Argentina Brazil and Chile Based on extensive fieldwork Funk illuminates how these elites navigate their Arab ancestry Latin American host cultures and roles as protagonists of globalization With the term rooted globalism Funk captures the emergence of classed intersectional identities that are simultaneously local national transnational and global Focusing on an oft ignored axis of South South relations between Latin America and the Arab world Rooted Globalism provides detailed analysis of the identities worldviews and motivations of this group and ultimately reveals that rather than obliterating national identities global capitalism relies on them      Innovation and Transformation in International Studies Stephen Gill, James H. Mittelman, 1997-05-15 This book explores the nature of and conditions for theoretical innovation in international studies      Transnational European Union Wolfram Kaiser, Peter Starke, 2005-11-16 At the beginning of the twenty first century the European Union is an increasingly dense transnational social and political space More and more non governmental organisations develop transnational links which are usually more intensive within the EU even if they often extend beyond its borders to the wider world This multi disciplinary volume explores the importance of these structures actors and relations for EU and European governance in the context of the theoretical debate about European integration in the social sciences This book delivers theoretical chapters examining and discussing the main conceptual perspectives to studying the transnational EU to provide a current overview empirical case studies of transnationalism in practice on transnational party trade union and police cooperation to transnational education policy making and transnational consensus

Restructuring Hegemony in the Global Political Economy Henk W Overbeek, 1993-05-06 Since the late 1970s the spread of Neo liberalism and the failure of socialist economies and systems in Eastern Europe have resulted in a practically unchallenged hegemony of international capital across the globe Neo liberalism is now the dominant ideology legitimizing the privatisation of state controlled economies and the substitution of the Sweden and the 'Third Way' Philip Whyman, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 The creation of a Third Way between unfettered capitalism and old style Keynesian corporatist forms of social democracy has become the driving force behind the policy programmes of many left of centre political parties in the industrialised nations of the world today Sweden and the Third Way critically evaluates this new social democracy by examining the profound shift in Swedish political economy from being the prototype old style social democracy towards the Third Way synthesis of neo liberalism and elements of traditional social democracy Philip Whyman evaluates internal and external challenges to Swedish macroeconomic policy including globalisation European and Transformation offers unique perspectives into a range of important current topics for both activists and scholars concerned with globalization. The articles combine the study of globalization as an integrated world system with the specifics of how individual nations and groups are inserted into the larger economic, social, cultural and political patterns. This essential approach seeks out those forces that create a shared world system yet understands the multiple levels and variances under which that system develops. Chapters explore the relationship between class and state under the impact of globalization, how nations particularly in the South are affected by globalization and the development of national identity and consciousness within the context of global relationships. Contributors include JoAnn Chirico, Ryan D Griffiths, Magda von der Heydt, Coca Ismael, Hossein Zadeh, Kwangkun Lee, Patrick Loy Cori, Madrid Georgina, Murray Greg, Nowell Rubin, Patterson Isa, R Rivera Lorena, Garcia Ruiz Ivan, Savi David, Schweickart Sandeep, Sen Jason, Struna John, W Sutherlin, Kumru Toktamis, Joshua W Walker, Veda Ward, William Tabb. Global Restructuring, State, Capital and Labour A. Bieler, W. Bonefeld, P. Burnham, A. Morton, 2006-04-26. This book provides a critical engagement between contending historical materialist approaches that have played a crucial role in shaping post-positivist International Relations theory. It analyzes globalization as a process of state formation and argues that its fate depends on the neo-liberal recomposition of labour relations.

A Ruined Fortress? Alan W. Cafruny, Magnus Ryner, 2003-06-28. This challenging book argues convincingly that research on European integration has lagged behind important theoretical developments in the fields of international relations, international political economy and international organization. The contributors contend that prevailing theories of integration, despite their considerable differences, all suffer from an excessive focus on institutions and ideas while overlooking the ways in which these institutions and ideas have promoted a neoliberal agenda during the last decade. To overcome these weaknesses, this volume draws on one of the key strands of theoretical innovation: critical political economy or transnational historical materialism, to develop a more comprehensive and consistent analysis of processes of European integration. Although not claiming that states have ceded their role as masters of the treaties, the contributors develop innovative case studies of national and transnational processes to illustrate the salience of trans-European business networks and the primacy of neoliberalism as central organizing concepts of the post-Maastricht European project. Contributions by Baastian van Apeldoorn, Hans Jørgen Bieling, Alan W Cafruny, Ben Clift, Stephen Gill, Colin Hay, Otto Holman, Henk Overbeek, Kees van der Pijl, Magnus Ryner, Thorsten Schulten, Giles Scott, Smith Leila, Simona Talani and Matthew Watson.

Images of Gramsci Andreas Bieler, Adam Morton, 2014-06-03. A comprehensive reassessment of the relevance of Gramsci's theory and practice at the beginning of the twenty-first century. This volume brings together leading authorities engaged in common debates to

The Oxford Handbook of Global Studies Mark Juergensmeyer, Saskia Sassen, Manfred B. Steger (ed), 2019 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has been reshaping the modern world and an array of new scholarship has risen to make sense of it in its various transnational manifestations including economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and in new communications The chapters discuss various aspects in the field through a broad range of approaches This handbook focuses on global studies more than on the phenomenon of globalization itself although the various aspects of globalization are central to understanding how the field is currently being shaped

From the Nation State to Europe Anand Menon, Vincent Wright, 2001 The relationship between the European Union and its member states is complex and evolving This book explores not only the nature of this relationship but also the broader implications of European integration for the ways in which the subject of European politics is studied
