Making Choices Taking Chances Nurse Leaders Tell Their Stories:

Daring to Care Susan Gelfand Malka, 2022-08-15 Beginning in the 1960s second wave feminism inspired and influenced dramatic changes in the nursing profession Susan Gelfand Malka argues that feminism helped end nursing's subordination to medicine and provided nurses with greater autonomy and professional status She discusses two distinct eras in nursing history The first extended from the mid 1960s to the mid 1980s when feminism seemed to belittle the occupation in its analysis of gender subordination but also fueled nursing leaders drive for greater authority and independence The second era began in the mid 1980s when feminism grounded in the ethics of care appealed to a much broader group of caregivers and was incorporated into nursing education While nurses accepted aspects of feminism they did not necessarily identify as feminists Nonetheless they used passed on and developed feminist ideas that brought about nursing school curricula changes and the increase in self directed and specialized roles available to caregivers in the twenty first century Making Choices, Taking Chances Thelma M. Schorr, Anne Zimmerman, 1988 American Nursing Vern L. Bullough, 2000 In the fall of 2009 with the publication of her 1 national bestselling memoir Sarah Palin had the privilege of meeting thousands of everyday Americans on her extraordinary 35 city book tour Inspired by these encounters her new book America By Heart Reflections on Family Faith and Flag celebrates the enduring strengths and virtues that have made this country great Framed by her strong belief in the importance of family faith and patriotism the book ranges widely over American history culture and current affairs and reflects on the key values both national and spiritual that have been such a profound part of Governor Palin's life and continue to inform her vision of America's future Written in her own refreshingly candid voice America By Heart will include selections from classic and contemporary readings that have moved her from the nation's founding documents to great speeches sermons letters literature and poetry biography and even some of her favorite songs and movies Here too are portraits of some of the extraordinary men and women she admires and who embody her deep love of country her strong rootedness in faith and her profound love and appreciation of family She will also draw from personal experience to amplify these timely and timeless themes themes that are sure to inspire her numerous fans and readers all across the country Giving Through Teaching Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, Cathleen M. Shultz, Tonia D. Aiken, 2010-06-04 Giving Through Teaching presents compelling stories of nurse educators and their students who have given their time talents skills and resources to make the world a better place Sharing stories from more than 70 nurse educators this unique book inspires nurses to continue the work of their peers and to tell their own stories Highlighting the efforts of U S nurse educators both at home and abroad from areas devastated by Hurricane Katrina to Iraq the text showcases the diversity of the nursing profession itself This collection of stories also examines how the knowledge and expertise of nurse educators can help to improve health care standards and achieve the United Nations UN Millennium Development Goals MDGs such as improving maternal health and combating HIV AIDS malaria and other diseases A must have book for current and future generations of
