religion is a theme of the human capacity for hope According to Ricoeur hope is a capacity of expectation oriented toward some future action which aims at a good for self and others The conditions for the possibility of hope are the unity and difference that exist within the self in transcendental practical and effective realms and the self's ability to narrate which is made possible by the self's existence within and understanding of time Our capacity for hope is understood via the symbols of good and evil found in myths and sacred writings Furthermore hope is not limited to those who are religious atheists may be just as hopeful as the devout Exploring the nature of hope in Ricoeur's work allows for a greater understanding of hope and a greater ability to cultivate hope in oneself and others
