

An aerial photograph of a vast, frozen body of water, likely a lake or bay. A line of small, white, rectangular markers is laid out in a slightly curved path across the ice, leading from the foreground towards the background. In the lower-left foreground, a small, white, boat-like object is visible on the ice. The background shows a dark, wooded shoreline with some snow patches. The overall scene is serene and cold.

Mirror Travels Robert Smithson And History:

Mirror-travels Jennifer L. Roberts, 2004 Robert Smithson 1938 1973 an artist of paramount importance in postwar America created radical new perspectives for landscape architecture photography art criticism and site specific installation His Spiral Jetty a 1 500 foot long coil of rock built in 1970 at the edge of the Great Salt Lake is widely appreciated as one of the most significant art projects of the twentieth century Less well known is the connection between the Jetty and the nearby Golden Spike National Historic Site location of the completion of the first U S transcontinental railroad The link between these two monuments is but one facet of an entire complex of historical reference and reflection that structures Smithson's work close analysis of the artist's working model of history and featuring comprehensive case studies of three of his most influential works The Monuments of Passaic Incidents of Mirror Travel in the Yucatan and The Spiral Jetty Incorporating abundant new material from Smithson's personal papers and library Jennifer Roberts offers surprising new interpretations about the artist and his responses to the social ideological and material contradictions of his time Publisher's description

Robert Smithson, Land Art, and Speculative Realities Rory O'Dea, 2023-10-23 This book explores the ways Robert Smithson's art revealed and defamiliarized the constructs of rational reality in order to allow radically speculative alternatives to emerge In this way his art is conceived as a true fiction that eradicates a false reality By tracing the web of correspondences between Smithson and science fictional speculative and mystical modes of thought Rory O'Dea explores the aesthetic encounters engendered by his art as a means to warp the contours of reality and loosen the boundaries of being human Given the current and impending catastrophes of the Anthropocene which represents the ever expanding planetary shadow cast by humanism the possibility of being other than human posited by Smithson's art is a matter of urgent concern The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art American studies and environmental humanities Robert Smithson Robert Smithson, Eugenie Tsai, Cornelia H. Butler, Thomas E. Crow, Alexander Alberro, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), Moira Roth, Whitney Museum of American Art, 2004 This catalogue is the major study of Smithson 1938 1973 who is most renowned as an early earthworks artist and creator of Spiral Jetty a 1 500 foot rock coil dramatically situated in the Great Salt Lake Allan Kaprow, Robert Smithson, and the Limits to Art Philip Ursprung, Fiona Elliott, 2013-05-10 This innovative study of two of the most important artists of the twentieth century links the art practices of Allan Kaprow and Robert Smithson in their attempts to test the limits of art both what it is and where it is Ursprung provides a sophisticated yet accessible analysis placing the two artists firmly in the art world of the 1960s as well as in the art historical discourse of the following decades Although their practices were quite different they both extended the studio and gallery into desert landscapes abandoned warehouses industrial sites train stations and other spaces Ursprung bolsters his argument with substantial archival research and sociological and economic models of expansion and limits SpatioTemporalities on the Line Sebastian Dorsch, Jutta Vinzent, 2017-11-20 Lines are omnipresent in our everyday experience and language They reflect and influence the spatial and temporal structures of our world view Taking Tim Ingold s cultural history of the line as a starting point this book understands lines as expressions that allow insights into cultural theoretical phenomena and thus go beyond their mere form The essays will investigate this premise from various disciplines architecture art cartography film literature and philosophy Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis

Mid-Twentieth Century Beth Williamson,2017-07-05 The work of mid twentieth century art theorist Anton Ehrenzweig is explored in this original and timely study An analysis of the dynamic and invigorating intellectual influences institutional framework and legacy of his work Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis reveals the context within which Ehrenzweig worked how that influenced him and those artists with whom he worked closely Beth Williamson looks to the writing of Melanie Klein Marion Milner Adrian Stokes and others to elaborate Ehrenzweig s theory of art a theory that extends beyond the visual arts to music In this first full length study on his work including an inventory of his library previously unexamined archival material and unseen artworks sit at the heart of a book that examines Ehrenzweig s working relationships with important British artists such as Bridget Riley Eduardo Paolozzi and other members of the Independent Group in London in the 1950s and 1960s In Ehrenzweig s second book The Hidden Order of Art 1967 his thinking on Jackson Pollock is important too It was this book that inspired American artists Robert Rauschenberg and Robert Morris when they deployed his concept of differentiation Here Williamson offers new readings of process art c 1970 showing how Ehrenzweig s aesthetic retains relevance beyond the immediate post war era Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik

Gustafsson,2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future Rereading

American Artists Engage the Built Environment, 1960-1979 Susanneh Bieber, 2023-07-31 This volume reframes the development of US American avant garde art of the long 1960s from minimal and pop art to land art conceptual art site specific practices and feminist art in the context of contemporary architectural discourses Susanneh Bieber analyzes the work of seven major artists Donald Judd Robert Grosvenor Claes Oldenburg Robert Smithson Lawrence Weiner Gordon Matta Clark and Mary Miss who were closely associated with the formal aesthetic innovations of the period While these individual artists came to represent diverse movements Bieber argues that all of them were attracted to the field of architecture the work of architects engineers preservationists landscape designers and urban planners because they believed these practices more directly shaped the social and material spaces of everyday life This book's contribution to the field of art history is thus twofold First it shows that the avant garde of the long 1960s did not simply develop according to an internal logic of art but also as part of broader sociocultural discourses about buildings and cities Second it exemplifies a methodological synthesis between social art history and poststructural formalism that is foundational to understanding the role of art in the construction of a more just and egalitarian society The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history architecture urbanism and environmental humanism

Urban Legends Peter L'Official, 2020-07-21 A cultural history of the South Bronx that reaches beyond familiar narratives of urban ruin and renaissance beyond the inner city symbol to reveal the place and people obscured by its myths For decades the South Bronx was America's inner city Synonymous with civic neglect crime and metropolitan decay the Bronx became the preeminent symbol used to proclaim the failings of urban places and the communities of color who lived in them Images of its ruins none more infamous than the one broadcast live during the 1977 World Series a building burning near Yankee Stadium proclaimed the failures of urbanism Yet this same South Bronx produced hip hop arguably the most powerful artistic and cultural innovation of the past fifty years Two narratives urban crisis and cultural renaissance have dominated understandings of the Bronx and other urban environments Today as gentrification transforms American cities economically and demographically the twin narratives structure our thinking about urban life A Bronx native Peter L Official draws on literature and the visual arts to recapture the history people and place beyond its myths and legends Both fact and symbol the Bronx was not a decades long funeral pyre nor was hip hop its lone cultural contribution L Official juxtaposes the artist Gordon Matta Clark's carvings of abandoned buildings with the city's trompe l'oeil decals program examines the centrality of the Bronx's infamous Charlotte Street to two Hollywood films offers original readings of novels by Don DeLillo and Tom Wolfe and charts the emergence of a global Bronx as graffiti was brought into galleries and exhibited internationally promoting a symbolic Bronx abroad Urban Legends presents a new cultural history of what it meant to live work and create in the Bronx public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson s artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist s concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson s oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea

Patricia Johanson and the Re-invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010 Xin Wu, 2013 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 year career of American painter and environmental artist Patricia Johanson Exploring the artist s search for an art of the real as a member of the postwar New York art world it demonstrates that visual translation cannot be understood solely through the works of art instead attention must be paid to the process of creation This book is an insightful attempt to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist

Thinking Plant Animal Human David Wood, 2020-06-23 Collected essays by a leading philosopher situating the question of the animal in the broader context of a relational ontology There is a revolution under way in our thinking about animals and indeed life in general particularly in the West The very words man animal and life have turned into flimsy conceptual husks impediments to thinking about the issues in which they are embroiled David Wood was a founding member of the early 1970s Oxford Group of philosophers promoting animal rights he also directed Ecology Action UK Thinking Plant Animal Human is the first collection of this major philosopher s influential essays on animals bringing together his many discussions of nonhuman life including the classic Thinking with Cats Exploring our connections with cats goats and sand crabs Thinking Plant Animal Human introduces the idea of kinnibalism the eating of mammals is eating our own kin reflects on the idea of homo sapiens and explores the place of animals both in art and in children s stories Finally and with a special focus on trees the book delves into remarkable contemporary efforts to rescue plants from philosophical neglect and to rethink and reevaluate their status Repeatedly bubbling to the surface is the remarkable strangeness of other forms of life a strangeness that extends to the human Wood shows that the best way of resisting simplistic classification is to attend to our manifold relationships with other living beings It is not anthropocentric to focus on such relationships they cast light in complex ways on the living communities of which we are part and exploring them recoils profoundly on our understanding of ourselves
