Morrison Memorial Lecture* United States. Agricultural Research Service,1968 Judicializing the Administrative State Hiroshi Okayama,2019-05-10 A basic feature of the modern US administrative state taken for granted by legal scholars but neglected by political scientists and historians is its strong judicality Formal or court like adjudication was the primary method of first order agency policy making during the first half of the twentieth century Even today most US administrative agencies hire administrative law judges and other adjudicators conducting hearings using formal procedures autonomously from the agency head No other industrialized democracy has even come close to experiencing the systematic state judicialization that took place in the United States Why did the American administrative state become highly judicialized rather than developing a more efficiency oriented Weberian bureaucracy Legal scholars argue that lawyers as a profession imposed the judicial procedures they were the most familiar with on agencies But this explanation fails to show why the judicialization took place only in the United States at the time it did Okayama demonstrates that the American institutional combination of common law and the presidential system favored policy implementation through formal procedures by autonomous agencies and that it induced the creation and development of independent regulatory commissions explicitly modeled after courts from the late nineteenth century These commissions judicialized the state not only through their proliferation but also through the diffusion of their formal procedures to executive agencies over the next half century which led to a highly fairness oriented administrative state Nobel Lectures ,2007 This is a collection in which meditations on imagination and the process of writing mingle with keen discussions of global affairs geography and colonialism cultural change and the deeply lasting influences of the past ABA Journal ,1962-01 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association Anglo-American Law Collections Mortimer D.
