New Historicism And Cultural Materialism:

New Historicism and Cultural Materialism John Brannigan, 2016-02-12 New historicism and cultural materialism emerged in the early 1980s as prominent literary theories and came to represent a revival of interest in history and in historicising literature Their proponents rejected both formalist criticism and earlier attempts to read literature in its historical context and defined new ways of thinking about literature in relation to history This study explains the development of these theories and demonstrates both their uses and weaknesses as critical practices The potential future direction for the theories is explored and the controversial debates about their validity in literary studies are discussed Shakespeare and

Contemporary Theory Neema Parvini, 2012-09-06 In the thirty years since the publication of Stephen Greenblatt's Renaissance Self Fashioning overthrew traditional modes of Shakespeare criticism New Historicism and Cultural Materialism have rapidly become the dominant modes for studying and writing about the Bard This comprehensive guide introduces students to the key writers texts and ideas of contemporary Shakespeare criticism and alternatives to new historicist and cultural materialist approaches suggested by a range of dissenters including evolutionary critics historical formalists and advocates of the new aestheticism and the more politically active presentists Shakespeare and Contemporary Theory covers such topics as The key theoretical influences on new historicism including Michel Foucault and Louis Althusser The major critics from Stephen Greenblatt to Jonathan Dollimore and Alan Sinfield Dissenting views from traditional critics and contemporary theorists Chapter summaries and questions for discussion throughout encourage students to critically engage with contemporary Shakespeare theory for themselves The book includes a Who's Who of major critics a timeline of key publications and a glossary of essential critical terms to give students and teachers easy access to essential information

New Historicism and Cultural Materialism Kiernan Ryan, 1996 New Historicism and Cultural Materialism have become two of the most powerful and appealing movements in modern criticism Their conquest of Renaissance studies has escalated into global colonization of English and American literary history A wealth of innovative work has emerged on everything from the Canterbury Tales to the Cantos bringing intense theoretical controversy in its wake This Reader pulls the diversity and polemical vigor of this new critical constellation into focus for the first time IDEOLOGICAL INTERSTICES:
