New Humanities and Academic Disciplines Jacob Neusner, 1997      New Humanities and Academic Disciplines Jacob Neusner, 2004-10-18 This book is about social change as it is even now being revealed in the creation of a new field of learning in an unprecedented setting and for an as yet unknown cultural and intellectual purpose It is about how a field of learning moves from one kind of institution to another is practiced by new people women not only men and outsiders as well as insiders and for new purposes secular not only religious and in new ways Out of these minute particulars in our imagination we may reconstruct the whole of modern history the universe out of a grain of sand Perhaps no group in the past two hundred years of revolutionary change has moved so far so fast and in so many directions as the Jews from the Introduction      Academic Approaches to Teaching Jewish Studies Zev Garber, 2000 Fourteen scholars and master teachers explore the challenges of teaching Jewish studies at American schools of higher education      The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Studies Martin Goodman, Jeremy Cohen, David Sorkin, 2002 This volume on Jewish studies presents surveys of today's interests and directions in the humanities and social sciences It covers the main areas taught and researched as part of Jewish studies in universities throughout the world especially in Europe the US and Israel      Jewish Studies as Counterlife Adam Zachary Newton, 2019-06-04 This book tells the story of a Jewish Studies that hasn't fully happened at least not yet Newton asks what we mean when we say Jewish Studies and when we imagine it not as mere amalgam but as a project Jewish Studies offers a unique perspective from which to view the horizon of the academic humanities because although it arrived belatedly it has spanned a range of disciplinary locations and configurations from an origin story in nineteenth century historicism and philology to the emancipatory politics of the Enlightenment to the ethnicity driven pluralism of the postwar decades to more recent configurations within an interdisciplinary cultural studies The conflicted allegiances with respect to traditions disciplines divisions stakes and stakeholders represent the structural and historical situation of the field as it comes into contact with the humanities more broadly At once a literary and philosophical thinker Newton deploys a tableau of texts in concert with an ensemble of vivid elastic tropes not only to theorize Jewish Studies but also to reimagine it as an agent of that potency Jacques Derrida calls leverage a force multiplier for the field's multiple possibilities In refiguring a Jewish Studies to come the book intervenes in a broader discourse about the challenge of professing disciplinary knowledges while promoting transit across their boundaries Jewish Studies as Counterlife further amplifies Newton's career long articulation of the dialogic as the staging ground of ethical encounter      Proceedings of the ... World Congress of Jewish Studies, 1990      The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis

Religion Aaron W Hughes, 2015-11-19 Jacob Neusner was a prolific and innovative contributor to the study of religion for over fifty years A scholar of rabbinic Judaism Neusner regarded Jewish texts as data to address larger questions in the academic study of religion that he helped to formulate Jacob Neusner on Religion offers the first full critical assessment of his thought on the subject of religion Aaron W Hughes delineates the stages of Neusner's career and provides an overview of Neusner's personal biography and critical reception This book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in Neusner specifically or in the history of Religious Studies Jewish Studies and philosophy of religion more broadly Survey of Jewish Affairs, 1983 Relating Religion Jonathan Z. Smith, 2004-11-10 One of the most influential theorists of religion Jonathan Z Smith is best known for his analyses of religious studies as a discipline and for his advocacy and refinement of comparison as the basis for the history of religions Relating Religion gathers seventeen essays four of them never before published that together provide the first broad overview of Smith's thinking since his seminal 1982 book Imagining Religion Smith first explains how he was drawn to the study of religion outlines his own theoretical commitments and draws the connections between his thinking and his concerns for general education He then engages several figures and traditions that serve to define his interests within the larger setting of the discipline The essays that follow consider the role of taxonomy and classification in the study of religion the construction of difference and the procedures of generalization and redescription that Smith takes to be key to the comparative enterprise The final essays deploy features of Smith's most recent work especially the notion of translation Heady original and provocative Relating Religion is certain to be hailed as a landmark in the academic study and critical theory of religion      The Bloomsbury Companion to Jewish Studies Dean Phillip Bell, 2013-08-15 The Bloomsbury Companion to Jewish Studies is a comprehensive reference guide providing an overview of Jewish Studies as it has developed as an academic sub discipline This volume surveys the development and current state of research in the broad field of Jewish Studies focusing on central themes methodologies and varieties of source materials available It includes 11 core essays from internationally renowned scholars and teachers that provide an important and useful overview of Jewish history and the development of Judaism while exploring central issues in Jewish Studies that cut across historical periods and offer important opportunities to track significant themes throughout the diversity of Jewish experiences In addition to a bibliography to help orient students and researchers the volume includes a series of indispensable research tools including a chronology maps and a glossary of key terms and concepts This is the essential reference guide for anyone working in or exploring the rich and dynamic field of Jewish Studies      Nomination of John Agresto United States.
