Pickens County Images Of America:

Boy General of the 11th Alabama Donald W. Abel, Jr., 2023-11-03 In the spring of 1861 John Caldwell Calhoun Sanders a 21 year old cadet at the University of Alabama helped organize a company of the 11th Alabama Volunteer Infantry Hailing primarily from Greene County the 109 men of Company C The Confederate Guards signed on for the duration of the war and made Sanders their first captain They would fight in every major battle in the Eastern Theater under Robert E Lee Leading from the front Sanders was wounded four times during the war yet rose rapidly through the ranks becoming one of the South s boy generals at 24 By Appomattox Sanders was dead and the remaining 20 men of Company C surrendered with what was left of the once formidable Army of Northern Virginia This is their story Gruesome Looking Objects Elijah

Gaddis, 2022-11-17 This original and provocative study uses objects made collected and imagined to examine lynching and racial terror Ghost Stories from the American South W. K. McNeil, 1985 Collects Southern legends and folk tales about haunted houses supernatural events and the appearances of ghosts

The Rock-Art of Eastern North America Carol Diaz-Granados, James R. Duncan, 2004-11-28 Showcases the wealth of new research on sacred imagery found in twelve states and four Canadian provinces In archaeology rock art any long lasting marking made on a natural surface is similar to material culture pottery and tools because it provides a record of human activity and ideology at that site Petroglyphs pictographs and dendroglyphs tree carvings have been discovered and recorded throughout the eastern woodlands of North America on boulders bluffs and trees in caves and in rock shelters These cultural remnants scattered on the landscape can tell us much about the belief systems of the inhabitants that left them behind The Rock Art of Eastern North America brings together 20 papers from recent research at sites in eastern North America where humidity and the actions of weather including acid rain can be very damaging over time Contributors to this volume range from professional archaeologists and art historians to avocational archaeologists including a surgeon a lawyer two photographers and an aerospace engineer They present information drawings and photographs of sites ranging from the Seven Sacred Stones in Iowa to the Bald Friar Petroglyphs of Maryland and from the Lincoln Rise Site in Tennessee to the Nisula Site in Quebec Discussions of the significance of artist gender the relationship of rock art to mortuary caves and the suggestive link to the peopling of the continent are particularly notable contributions Discussions include the history ethnography recording methods dating and analysis of the subject sites and integrate these with the known archaeological data Toward the Meeting of the Waters Winfred B. Moore, Jr., Orville Vernon Burton, 2022-03-23 2009 Choice Outstanding Academic Title A provocative look into civil rights progress in the Palmetto State from activists statesmen and historians Toward the Meeting of the Waters represents a watershed moment in civil rights history bringing together voices of leading historians alongside recollections from central participants to provide the first comprehensive history of the civil rights movement as experienced by black and white South Carolinians Edited by Winfred B Moore Jr and Orville Vernon Burton this work originated with a highly publicized landmark conference on civil rights held at the Citadel in Charleston The volume opens with an assessment of the transition of South Carolina leaders from defiance to moderate enforcement of federally mandated integration and includes commentary by former governor and U S senator Ernest F Hollings and former governor John C West Subsequent chapters recall defining moments of white on black violence and aggression to set the context for understanding the efforts of reformers such as Levi G Byrd and Septima Poinsette Clark and for interpreting key episodes of white resistance Emerging from these essays is arresting evidence that although South Carolina did not experience as much violence as many other southern states the civil rights movement here was more fiercely embattled than previously acknowledged The section of retrospectives serves as an oral history of the era as it was experienced by a mixture of locally and nationally recognized participants including historians such as John Hope Franklin and Tony Badger as well as civil rights activists Joseph A De Laine Jr Beatrice Brown Rivers Charles McDew Constance Curry Matthew J Perry Jr Harvey B Gantt and Cleveland Sellers Jr The volume concludes with essays by historians Gavin Wright Dan Carter and Charles Joyner who bring this story to the present day and examine the legacy of the civil rights movement in South Carolina from a modern perspective Toward the Meeting of the Waters also includes thirty seven photographs from the period most of them by Cecil Williams and many published here for the first time

Voices of Historical and Contemporary Black American Pioneers Vernon L. Farmer, Evelyn Shepherd-Wynn, 2012-05-15 The stories of black American professionals both historic and contemporary reveal the hardships and triumphs they faced in overcoming racism to succeed in their chosen fields This extraordinary four volume work is the first of its kind a comprehensive exploration of the obstacles black men and women both historic and contemporary have faced and overcome to succeed in professional positions Voices of Historical and Contemporary Black American Pioneers includes the life and career histories of black American pioneers past and present who have achieved extraordinary success in fields as varied as aviation and astronautics education social sciences the humanities the fine and performing arts law and government and medicine and science The set covers well known figures but is also an invaluable source of information on lesser known individuals whose accomplishments are no less admirable Arranged by career category each section of the work begins with a biographical narrative of early black pioneers in the field followed by original interviews conducted by the editors or autobiographical narratives written by the subjects In all more than 150 scholars and professionals share inspiring insights into how they persevered to overcome racism and succeed in an often hostile world

African American Life in South Carolina's Upper Piedmont, 1780-1900 W. J. Megginson, 2022-08-03 A rich portrait of Black life in South Carolina s Upstate Encyclopedic in scope yet intimate in detail African American Life in South Carolina s Upper Piedmont 1780 1900 delves into the richness of community life in a setting where Black residents were relatively few notably disadvantaged but remarkably cohesive W J Megginson shifts the conventional study of African Americans in South Carolina from the much examined Lowcountry to a part of the state that offered a quite different existence for people of color

In Anderson Oconee and Pickens counties occupying the state's northwest corner he finds an independent brave and stable subculture that persevered for more than a century in the face of political and economic inequities Drawing on little used state and county denominational records privately held research materials and sources available only in local repositories Megginson brings to life African American society before during and after the Civil War Orville Vernon Burton Judge Matthew J Perry Jr Distinguished Professor of History at Clemson University and University Distinguished Teacher Scholar Emeritus at the University of Illinois provides a new foreword
