Privacies Philosophical Evaluations Cultural Memory In The Present:

Privacies Beate Rössler, 2004 This ambitious interdisciplinary collection responds to present intellectual debates concerning the value and limits of privacy Ever since the beginning of modernity the line of demarcation between private and public spaces and the distinction between them have continually been challenged and redrawn Such developments as new technologies that introduce previously unforeseen possibilities for infringement upon privacy and the modern spectacles of television talk shows and reality TV give added urgency to the discussion on privacy This collection examines the fundamental issues structuring that debate Bringing together for the first time leading contributors to the recent debates on privacy from both Europe and the United States this collection affirms that privacy in all its dimensions remains a central value of liberal democracies Its essays expose the complex ways in which privacy is essentially and intimately intertwined with our ideas of freedom identity and the good life

Religion and Cultural Memory Jan Assmann, Rodney Livingstone, 2006 In ten brilliant essays Jan Assmann explores the connections between religion culture and memory Building on Maurice Halbwachs's idea that memory like language is a social phenomenon as well as an individual one he argues that memory has a cultural dimension too He develops a persuasive view of the life of the past in such surface phenomena as codes religious rites and festivals and canonical texts on the one hand and in the Freudian psychodrama of repressing and resurrecting the past on the other Whereas the current fad for oral history inevitably focuses on the actual memories of the last century or so Assmann presents a commanding view of culture extending over five thousand years He focuses on cultural memory from the Egyptians Babylonians and the Osage Indians down to recent controversies about memorializing the Holocaust in Germany and the role of memory in the current disputes between Israelis and Palestinians in the Middle East and between Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland

Deleuzian Concepts Paul Patton, 2010-05-19 Patton's book is an important and innovative contribution to Deleuze studies and to contemporary debates in philosophy and the humanities His arguments are convincing and stimulating they open the way for a new and sober reading of Deleuze and bring him into dialogue with the tradition of political liberalism and pragmatism His use of the concept of the event to understand the history of colonization gives the reader a compelling example of what the political function of philosophy is or could be Paola Marrati The Johns Hopkins University Book Jacket

The Crossing of the Visible Jean-Luc Marion, 2004 Ranging across artists from Raphael to Rothko Caravaggio to Pollock The Crossing of the Visible offers both a critique of contemporary accounts of the visual and a constructive alternative According to Marion the proper response to the nihilism of postmodernity is not iconoclasm but rather a radically iconic account of the visual and the arts which opens them to the invisible

The Aesthetic Paths of Philosophy Alison Ross, 2007 Ross argues that the thinking of Heidegger Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy must be understood as ways of addressing the problem of presentation as framed by and inherited from Kant's Critique of Judgment

The Event and Its Terrors Stuart John McLean, 2004 The Event and its Terrors undertakes a critical reimagining of one of the major events of Irish history the Great Famine of the 1840s and of its subsequent legacies Drawing on a wide range of sources past and present it considers the emergence of the Famine as an object of historical knowledge and controversy with reference both to the experience of modernity and to the production of academic and nationalist histories in colonial and post independence Ireland In doing so it explores the possibility of alternative modes of engagement with the past via contemporary eyewitness accounts oral histories literature folklore and present day commemorative events Image, Icon, Economy Marie-José Mondzain, 2005 This book argues that the extraordinary force of the image in contemporary life the contemporary imaginary can be traced back to the Byzantine iconoclastic controversy of the eighth and ninth centuries

Genesis and Trace Paola Marrati, 2005 Paola Marrati considers the philosophical sources of Derrida's thought through his reading of both Husserl and Heidegger Notions such as the contamination of the empirical and the transcendental dissemination and writing are explained as a guiding thread that runs through Derrida's early and later works Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 2004 The Antigone Complex Cecilia Sjöholm, 2004-10-08 What if psychoanalysis had chosen Antigone rather than Oedipus This book traces the relation between ethics and desire in important philosophical texts that focus on femininity and use Antigone as their model It shows that the notion of feminine desire is conditioned by a view of women as being prone to excesses and deficiencies in relation to ethical norms and rules Sjöholm explains Mary Wollstonecraft's work as well as readings of Antigone by G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Luce Irigaray Jacques Lacan and Judith Butler This book introduces the concept of the Antigone complex in order to illuminate the obscure and multifaceted question of feminine desire which has given rise to the fascination of generations of philosophers and other theoreticians as well as readers and spectators At the same time the book argues for a notion of desire that is intrinsically related to ethics The ethical question posed by Antigone and explored in the book is what determines those actions that one must do as opposed to those that one ought to do
