

The background of the entire slide is a dense, overlapping pattern of various Islamic coins. These coins feature intricate calligraphic designs, including the Basmala (Bismillah) and other religious or historical inscriptions in Arabic script. Some coins also show depictions of architectural elements or symbols. The coins are rendered in a monochromatic, sepia-toned style, giving the background a textured, historical feel.

Islam, Meltem Islam, M. A. H. Mughal, 2018-09-14 Co written by a pioneer of the sustainability movement this groundbreaking volume offers a new way of thinking about the economics of sustainable energy a goal that has eluded scientists and economists for decades Every year as soon as reports on global economic inequality remind us about the direction our civilization is heading there is a hysterical reaction but hysteria dies down within weeks and we go back to the lifestyle that brought us here today Often the blame is laid on the Millennial generation for their apathy lust for comfort and bratty attitude Yet business insider surveys indicate it's the same Millennial generation that overwhelmingly cares for the state of the world and the direction in which our civilization is heading Nearly 50% of them ranked climate change and destruction of nature as their primary concern This is followed by concern for war and global conflict and then global economic inequality The vast majority of those surveyed are willing and eager to make lifestyle changes This book breaks open the hypocrisy of our civilization and stops the blame game in its tracks and identifies the root causes of today's world economy ecology and global politics The book demonstrates that changes in lifestyle are necessary but not sufficient No economic policy or technology development mode has a chance to survive let alone thrive unless supported by the political establishment In this process the government plays a pivotal role The challenge is to change the attitude of the government from a self serving controlling mode to a representative philanthropic mode This new system of economic development and political governance is inspired by a long forgotten understanding of political economics medieval Islamic economics In reviewing the history of economics from trade currencies and interest the strengths and weaknesses of various economic developments over our

Economic Empowerment Of Women In The Islamic World: Theory And Practice Toseef Azid,Jennifer L Ward-batts,2020-06-22 The book Economic Empowerment of Women in the Islamic World discusses the economic social and political rights and status of women in Islam which is theoretically given by the Islamic Jurisprudence Shariah law The chapters in this volume will address historical practices in comparison to the status of women in the contemporary Muslim world Men and women in Islam regardless of their age social class and education are equal as citizens and individuals but not identical in their rights and responsibilities It can be observed from Islamic history that in the early age of Islam women were given full confidence trust and high responsibilities in leadership educational guidance and decision making This volume will try to clarify the confusion in the status of the women in Islam that is presented by the media as it is assumed that theoretical Islamic empowerment of women bears little relation to the real conditions of women in modern Muslim societies It has been widely claimed in the media that Muslim women suffer more than men in Muslim societies and communities in terms of insecurity domestic abuse and low access to education and medical care It is also stated in the press and media that absence of good governance also results in gender inequality and violation of the rights of Muslim women This volume also aims to provide the solutions for the empowerment of women in the Islamic world We assumed that without good governance the status of women is not likely to improve Muslim women have the potential to play a fundamental role in curbing corruption social ills violence and crime in the Muslim world This volume will make the case that in order to achieve stability and prosperity the government must ensure a platform for women to participate in decision making and hence benefit from the rights they are accorded in Islam By covering a range of perspectives on the economic lives of Muslim women around the world it hopes to shed light on the problems faced and to offer possible solutions to the empowerment of women in the Islamic world

Religion and Finance Mervyn K. Lewis, Ahmad Kaleem, 2019

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam all impose obligations and constraints upon the rightful use of wealth and earthly resources. All three of these religions have well-researched views on the acceptability of practices such as usury, but the principles and practices of other non-interest financial instruments are less well known. This book examines each of these three major world faiths, considering their teachings, social precepts, and economic frameworks, which are set out as a guide for the financial dealings and economic behaviour of their adherents.

Shariah Governance in Islamic Banking Institutions Shafiullah Jan, Muhammad Ismail, 2023-07-04

Shariah governance assumes the primary instrument through which Islamic Banking Institutions (IBIs) ensure the Islamicity of their products, services, operations, and internal environments. It is considered to be one of the fundamental elements that differentiates IBIs from their traditional counterparts. Shariah Governance in Islamic Banking Institutions provides a critical overview of the key aspects pertaining to Shariah governance within Islamic financial institutions and presents a detailed analysis of its conceptual background. The authors have identified the unique issues that have emerged due to the integration of Shariah, namely the involvement of the Shariah supervisory board (SSB) in the corporate governance arrangements of Islamic banks. These issues relate to disclosure, transparency, independency, consistency, confidentiality, competency, and reputation. The book details the doctrines of Shariah pronouncements in Islamic banks, the importance of having a central advisory board at a regulatory level in the standardization of Islamic banking practices, as well as the competence required for Shariah supervisory board members. It provides a critical analysis of the Shariah governance framework in Pakistan and introduces the authors' vision of an ideal Shariah governance framework. Furthermore, the chapters offer guidance in promoting effective policies for improving Shariah governance. This is one of the core challenges facing Islamic banks, namely to ensure compliance with faith and provide legitimacy to the business of IBIs, and as such, the book will appeal to both the research and professional communities.

Islam and Economic Policy Rodney Wilson, 2015-05-15 This textbook looks at the impact of Islamic teaching on public economic policy and asks how Islamic economics differs from mainstream micro and macroeconomics

What Is Wrong with Islamic Economics? Muhammad Akram Khan, 2013-01-01 I read with great interest the current state of Islamic economics and finance as examined by Muhammad Akram Khan who has given a fresh outlook for the readers to find out its limitations and to search for its solutions Khan has read widely in the subject matter and presented his views with reference to literature and thoughtful and logical arguments While many may not agree with his arguments or will have a better explanation I find his arguments at least worthy of examination to strengthen the arguments of those who might oppose him Although Khan is critical of the subject matter he is very sympathetic to the greater objectives of Islamic economics and provides his own prescriptions to achieve those objectives M Kabir Hassan University of New Orleans US This is a very thought provoking book coming at a crucial stage in the development of Islamic economics and finance Although the reader may not agree with some of the conclusions reached it is clearly a scholarly and extensively researched piece of work it should be read by all serious students of the subject area Amongst other things it throws light on the reasons why the practical implementation of Islamic economics and finance particularly in relation to the financial system and financial institutions has not always conformed to the true theoretical foundations laid down by Islamic scholars John Presley Loughborough University UK and recipient of Islamic Development Bank Prize in Islamic Finance 2001 2002 Islamic economic system is a type of capitalism with a spiritual dimension is a major conclusion of this book I applaud this insight of Muhammad Akram Khan The same can be perhaps said of Islamic finance which in its hurry to build viable and efficient financial institutions has ignored the very same need to start with profits and risk sharing principle and no riba principles to build pricing models to anchor the new sub discipline The good news is that in the course of time to come Akram s advocacy may be realised since such serious works have already begun Mohamed Ariff University Putra Malaysia and Bond University Australia Although there are many books on Islamic economics this critical but sympathetic account by Muhammad Akram Khan is worthy of attention The author has clearly read widely on the subject and appreciates the limitations of much that he has read Islamic economics is a work in progress and by focusing on its shortcomings Khan challenges the assumptions of many working in the field His discussion of methodology is insightful and even the prohibition of riba for many the defining characteristic of Islamic finance is examined from a fresh perspective While many will not agree with the analysis and the conclusions even critics should be able to appreciate the strengths of the arguments made In summary this is a worthwhile and in many respects an innovative survey of the state of Islamic economics and finance It deserves to be widely read Rodney Wilson Durham University UK What is Wrong with Islamic Economics takes an objective look at the state of the art in Islamic economics and finance It analyses reasons for perceived stagnation and also suggests a way forward As well as probing various myths the book presents several innovative ideas and a methodology for developing the subject on new foundations It also highlights weaknesses in the conventional position on prohibition of interest which has led Islamic banks devise a series of legal tricks The author notes how the original aim of devising a new brand of banking has become less prominent whilst Islamic banks now position themselves more closely to conventional banks The book also offers insights into how certain traditional thinking has seemingly ignored the egalitarian spirit of the law of zakah and created a scenario where zakah is not able to help the billions of poor people around the globe This detailed book will appeal to students professors researchers Islamic banks and finance houses consulting companies accounting firms and regulatory bodies Professional economists libraries in research and training organizations as well as anyone with a general interest in the topic will find much to interest them

the potential for collaborative public diplomacy initiatives between the two nations As mentioned earlier defense continues to be a critical domain in Turkish foreign policy due to its strategic significance In this context Recep Ehito lu and Ibrahim Karata offer a fresh perspective in their article arguing that the rise of T rkiye s defense sector has contributed to establishing a form of Pax Turka in certain conflicts They suggest that as the Turkish defense industry develops more advanced weaponry the influence of Pax Turka could become increasingly pronounced particularly in parts of the region Their study further predicts that the scope of Pax Turka may expand significantly by the 2030s The Kurdish Question has long been a pivotal element in T rkiye s domestic affairs with significant implications for its foreign policy While this issue is analyzed in detail regarding the current government s policies there is a noticeable gap in the discussion concerning the stance of opposition parties particularly the CHP Addressing this gap Halime K k e and Ramazan Akk r s article examines and compares the policies of two CHP leaders namely Deniz Baykal and Kemal K l daro lu They argue that during Baykal s tenure the CHP s approach to the Kurdish Question was largely shaped by concerns about protecting the regime In contrast under K l daro lu the party s stance shifted to focus more on the socio economic challenges faced by Kurds marking a partial departure from nationalist policies The growing importance of T rkiye in regional and global affairs has become particularly evident in the context of the Russia Ukraine war where it has emerged as a key actor striving to end the conflict through various initiatives This issue of Insight Turkey focuses on this topic with both a commentary and a research article Specifically Bar a lar s commentary emphasizes that the true adversary in the Russia Ukraine conflict is not any specific nation or faction but the looming threat of nuclear war arguing that preventing nuclear escalation must be the foremost priority The author also highlights how T rkiye by promoting dialogue and facilitating peace negotiations exemplifies a strategic and alternative approach to conflict resolution one that seeks not only to prevent further escalation but also to lay the groundwork for lasting peace On the other hand Merve Suna zel zcan in her qualitative study examines the mediating role of militarist and internationalist sentiments in shaping the relationship between the personal values of Turkish society and their attitudes toward the war in Ukraine This issue of Insight Turkey also places significant emphasis on developments in the Middle East particularly the events in Palestine and Iran s policies Within this framework the commentaries by Mahmoud al Rantisi and Mustafa Caner provide detailed analyses of these topics Specifically al Rantisi explores the impact of Yahya Sinwar s martyrdom on the Palestinian resistance and the Hamas movement offering also an analysis of how Israel consistently misunderstands the mindset of the Palestinian resistance a dynamic that is expected to persist in the future Furthermore Mustafa Caner s commentary focuses on Iran Israel relations examining Iran s policy toward Israel through historical strategic and contemporary lenses The analysis delves into Iran s strategic calculations and the balancing actions and mechanisms it has employed in the post October 7 period to avert a full scale war in the region Two additional research articles focusing on Iran are also included in this issue The first by Hakk Uygur offers a detailed and significant analysis of the evolution and institutionalization of Iran's intelligence apparatus including the internal dynamics and developments among its intelligence agencies The second article by Yousof Qorashi examines the efforts of Iran and India to expand their influence in Central Asia highlighting how the U S has not only obstructed these ambitions but also hindered cooperation between the two states This issue also addresses developments in Iraq Azerbaijan and Afghanistan First Mohamad Hassan Soueidan's article highlights two major projects in Iraq the Grand Faw Port and the Dry Canal According to the author these initiatives which aim to connect Iraq with Europe through Turkey and Syria have the potential to transform Iraq's role in global trade and reshape its economic landscape Second Shamkhal Abilov Natig Abdullayev and Eldar Hamzal shed light on the Sumgait events of 1988 and the Khojaly massacre of 1992 focusing on Russia's involvement in both cases Furthermore their analysis also examines whether Azerbaijan and Armenia demonstrate tendencies of denialism when comparing these events Third Shahid Ahmed Afridi uses Afghanistan as a case study employing post structuralism to deconstruct the theoretical foundations of the liberal peace order He critically examines the U S peacebuilding framework in Afghanistan offering fresh insights into its limitations and implications Last but not least this issue of Insight Turkey features a commentary that examines the implications of the forthcoming Trump Administration for the global order Written by K l Bu ra Kanat the commentary provides a detailed analysis of the potential policies of the new administration toward key global actors including Russia China and the Middle East As we bid farewell to another year Insight Turkey proudly concludes its 26th year of publication marked by impactful and comprehensive analyses of Turkish foreign policy and regional developments As we prepare to embark on a new year we are excited to bring fresh topics innovative perspectives and in depth insights to our readers We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our readers for their continued support and engagement We look forward to your continued readership and invite you to join us on this journey as we explore the evolving dynamics of our world in the year ahead
