To Make Myself a Word Michael J. Tan Creti, 2010-03-27 This small collection of poems was written in the course of a decade by an Episcopal priest approaching retirement The inspiration for them came from the metaphysical poetry of the Seventeenth century English priest poets Donne Herbert and Traherne They were first used in his teaching and spiritual direction and continue to inspire readers James Delmont of the National Book Critics Circle offers the following description Michael Tan Creti's To Make Myself a Word is a marvelous collection of free verse poems and poetic prose reflections that provide a running commentary on life faith and history history that is both collective and personal From the point of view of a pastor in the American Episcopal Church the author muses with irony and sensitivity on ethics memories relationships expectations disappointments and the daily search for God in our lives There is a skein of faith stubbornly running through these often exquisitely crafted word portraits that reward the reader with wisdom continuing questions and even some answers It is well worth reading and not all at once Recently the text one of the poems The Father's Face has been set as a cappella anthem by the composer Michael McCabe and is available from Parachute Press under the title Seek God Face

Seeking Love in Modern Britain Zoe Strimpel, 2020-03-05 Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Computate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time the first full length English language study of one of the world's most exciting and innovative cinemas. Covering a period from 1909 to the end of Hong Kong cinema in the present day, this book features information about the films, the studios, the personalities and the contexts that have shaped a cinema famous for its energy and style. It includes studies of the films of King Hu, Bruce Lee and Jackie Chan as well as those of John Woo and the directors of the various New Waves. Stephen Teo explores this cinema from both Western and Chinese perspectives and encompasses genres ranging from melodrama to martial arts, kung fu, fantasy and horror movies as well as the international art house successes.

Figurations in Indian Film Meheli Sen, Anustup Basu, 2013-10-21. This volume brings together a series of essays that interrogate the notion of figuration in Indian cinemas. The essays collectively argue that the figures which exhibit maximum tenacity in Indian cinema often emerge in the interface of recognizable binaries: self/other, Indian/foreign, good/bad, virtue/vice, myth/reality and urban/rural.

Nollywood Stars Noah A. Tsika, 2015-04-10. A revelation. It will introduce readers to one of the most significant global centers of film production: Nigeria. An important work. Essential Choice. In this comprehensive study of Nollywood stardom around the world, Noah A. Tsika explores how the industry's top on-screen talents have helped Nollywood to expand beyond West Africa and into the diaspora to become one of the globe's most prolific and diverse media producers. Carrying VHS tapes and DVDs onto airplanes and publicizing new methods of film distribution, the stars are active agents in the global circulation of Nollywood film. From Omotola Jalade Ekeinde's cameo role on VH1's popular series Hit the Floor to Oge Okoye's startling impersonation of Lady Gaga, this book follows Nollywood stars from Lagos to London, Ouagadougou, Cannes, Paris, Porto Novo, Sekondi, Takoradi, Dakar, Accra, Atlanta, Houston, New York and Los Angeles. Tsika tracks their efforts to integrate into various entertainment cultures but never to the point of effacing their African roots. Tsika breaks new ground in showing that Nollywood stars are not the passive creations of an industry but rather have been essential conditions of its existence and phenomenal success. Jacquelyn Southern, Center for Urban Global Studies, Trinity College. There is no doubt that this is a pioneering book, one that raises important questions about the transnational and transmedial dimensions of an emergent corporate culture of stardom and models an entirely new approach to the study of African movies and media. African Studies Review. Makes a convincing case that one cannot fully understand Nollywood without a thorough and rigorous examination of its stars. Christina Lane, University of Miami.

Dream Lover Zachary Chincio, 2022-02-01. Many people have a Dream Lover or a Fantasy Sweetheart that makes them very happy within themselves, feeling the inspirational, loving and having the sweetest pleasure within themselves. Many love the good vibration, having the splendor, brightness, enjoying the sexual loving with the fascinating exoticness that stimulates them with sweetness. Many of them do have a private world with the fabulous rendezvous, caressing and sweet embrace, reaching the top of their ecstasies, enjoying the majestic stimulation with the colorful atmosphere, loving all the romantic sceneries with the passionate desires. Dream Lover and Fantasy Sweetheart will always be in our feelings, having the passionate loving and the shimmering affection that will never end at all. This is how I truly feel and there is nothing wrong at all to have a lovely Dream Lover that will make very happy Elizabeth Alexander Walker,2001-06-01 A serious and in depth look at one of the great legends of Hollywood by the London film critic and author of Audrey Her Real Story Elizabeth Taylor was perhaps the most public of the great stars an Oscar winning actress who lived her entire life in the glare of the spotlights Much has been written about her but now with the readability sensitivity and thoroughness that have made his previous biographies bestsellers Alexander Walker explores the roots of Taylor s extraordinary personality and extraordinary life Here is a life to rival the very movies she played in told with immense candor wit and sympathy from her privileged London childhood the enormous influence of her strong willed mother and her swift rise to stardom in such films as National Velvet A Place in the Sun and the catastrophe ridden Cleopatra to her six husbands her desperate need to love and be loved her obsession with jewelry and the amazing resilience that helped her weather not only condemnation for the most public adultery in history but also dramatic illnesses that brought her to the verge of death and according to her beyond Using scores of unpublished documents and interviews with those who knew Taylor best as well as his own meetings with her over thirty years Alexander Walker recreates the comedies and tragedies in the life of a woman whose rewards and scandals have become the stuff of legend Catalog of Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf ,1991
