Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Grief, Mourning, and Death Ritual Jennifer Lorna Hockey, Jeanne Katz, Neil Small, 2001 It does this by combining substantial reviews with shorter illustrative examples of grief mourning and death ritual as they are manifest in specific settings and with defined groups These illustrative examples include personal and institutional responses to death at different points in the life cycle and responses to different sorts of death the death of children and death in disasters for example Working with People with Learning Disabilities David Thomas, Honor Woods, 2003 The authors bring together the relevant theory for social workers nurses teachers and others working with people with learning disabilities Using jargon free explanations and case examples they present the information needed to inform good practice Achieving Positive Outcomes for Children in Care R J Cameron, Seán Cameron, Colin Maginn, 2009-09-10 This title looks at how achieving positive outcomes for children in care is possible when the root causes of failure are tackled Bereavement Care for Childbearing Women and their Families Caroline Hollins Martin, Eleanor Forrest, 2013-07-24 For many bereaved parents the care provided by health professionals at birth from midwives to antenatal teachers has a crucial effect on their response to a loss or death This interactive workbook is clearly applied to practice and has been designed to help practitioners deliver effective bereavement care Providing care to grieving parents can be demanding difficult and stressful with many feeling ill equipped to provide appropriate help Equipping the reader with fundamental skills to support childbearing women partners and families who have experienced childbirth related bereavement this book outlines What bereavement is and the ways in which it can be experienced in relation to pregnancy and birth Sensitive and supportive ways of delivering bad news to childbearing women partners and families Models of grieving How to identify when a bereaved parent may require additional support from mental health experts Ongoing support available for bereaved women their partners and families The impact on practitioners and the support they may require How to assess and tailor care to accommodate a range of spiritual and religious beliefs about death Written by two highly educated experienced midwifery lecturers this practical and evidence based workbook is a valuable resource for all midwives neonatal nurses and support workers who work with women in the perinatal period This book is suitable as a text for BSc and MSc courses in Midwifery BScs courses in Paediatric Nursing and for neonatal and bereavement counselling courses
