Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies Cary Nelson, Dilip Gaonkar, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996 As recently as the early 1990s people wondered what was the future of cultural studies in the United States and what effects its increasing internationalization might have What type of projects would cultural studies inspire people to undertake Would established disciplines welcome its presence and adapt their practices accordingly Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies answers such questions It is now clear that while striking and innovative work is underway in many different fields most disciplinary organizations and structures have been very resistant to cultural studies Meanwhile cultural studies has been subjected to repeated attacks by conservative journalists and commentators in the public sphere Cultural studies scholars have responded not only by mounting focused critiques of the politics of knowledge but also by embracing ambitious projects of social political and cultural commentary by transgressing all the official boundaries of knowledge in a broad quest for cultural understanding This book tracks these debates and maps future strategies for cultural studies in academia and public life The contributors to Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies include established scholars and new voices In a series of polemic and exploratory essays written especially for this book they track the struggle with cultural studies in disciplines like anthropology literature and history and between cultural studies and very different domains like Native American culture and the culture of science Contributors include Arjun Appadurai Michael Denning Lawrence Grossberg Cary Nelson Constance Penley Andrew Ross and Lynn Spigel

Experimental Practice Dimitris Papadopoulos, 2018-07-16 In Experimental Practice Dimitris Papadopoulos explores the potential for building new forms of political and social movements through the reconfiguration of the material conditions of existence Rather than targeting existing institutions in demands for social justice Papadopoulos calls for the creation of alternative ontologies of everyday life that would transform the meanings of politics and justice Inextricably linked to technoscience these alterontologies which Papadopoulos examines in a variety of contexts from AIDS activism and the financialization of life to hacker communities and neuroscience form the basis of ways of life that would embrace the more than social interdependence of the human and nonhuman worlds Speaking to a matrix of concerns about politics and justice social movements matter and ontology everyday practice technoscience the production of knowledge and the human and nonhuman Papadopoulos suggests that the development of alterontologies would create more efficacious political and social organizing

Women Online Steven D. Atkinson, Judith Hudson, 1990 Women Online focuses on the problems of investigating interdisciplinary topics in women's studies working with controlled vocabularies and inconsistent indexing and locating feminist scholarship The authoritative contributors to the book not only analyze these problems in general terms but also suggest practical strategies for making online research more effective and productive The sixteen chapters in this much needed book are organized into three broad categories covering disciplines such as humanities and social sciences format of the material covered such as non bibliographic and cited reference databases and specific topics such as lesbian studies and women of color Chapter authors employ a variety of useful methods to analyze issues of coverage and content They compare the results of controlled vocabulary and free text or full text searching and make use of search examples cited reference and multi file searching and bibliometric techniques including analysis of recall precision overlap relevancy uniqueness and trends in file growth The Database Matrix provides an alphabetical listing of files discussed in the book and serves as a directory for online research in women s studies Women Online will be useful to librarians scholars and students who search databases as well as to producers who design and market them The Gender/sexuality Reader Roger N. Lancaster, Micaela Di Leonardo, 1997 Textbook on gender The A to Z of the Lesbian Liberation Movement JoAnne Myers, 2009-08-20 The Lesbian Liberation Movement is both a movement that encompasses liberating a sexual practice from stigmatization and a political movement challenging the dual oppression of women by the patriarchy s assumption of male supremacy and heterosexuality Over the years much has been written on homosexuality and the Gay Liberation Movement yet much of the focus has been on male homosexuals especially male homosexual activity and the politics that activity raises The A to Z of the Lesbian Liberation Movement Still the Rage is a comprehensive overview and resource guide for one of the most invisible social political movements the Lesbian Liberation Movement This book helps to make the still active movement visible the history successes setbacks controversies and issues This book is a good resource for those studying this social political movement containing a chronology contextual overview dictionary entries that cover persons laws terminology issues and countries and an extensive bibliography of primary resources and current work AIDS: Setting A Feminist Agenda Lesley Doyal, Jennie Naidoo, Tamsin Wilton, 2018-12-07

AIDS Setting a Feminist Agenda presents an overview of the important issues raised for feminist theory and practice by the HIV AIDS epidemic and outlines the direction in which feminist debates about the subject are developing It makes essential links between feminism and HIV AIDS work and not only demonstrates that AIDS is a feminist issue but also suggests areas where feminism is long overdue The essays discuss medical issues the specific social and political impact of HIV AIDS on the lives of women of colour lesbians injecting drug users and prostitute women And Current Health Educational And Health Promotional Practice As It relates to women The volume is theoretical and practical suggesting theoretical models for understanding and challenging the social factors which are conducive to the spread of HIV among women and among men as well as offering models of good practice for working with and for women Introducing the New Sexuality Studies
