Making Of Equal Opportunities Policies In Universities:

The Making of Equal Opportunities Policies in Universities Sarah Neal, 1998 This is an exploration of how higher education in contemporary Britain has responded to questions of equal opportunities particularly questions of race what types of responses have been made and how effective they have been The book analyzes the political character of equal opportunities policies the process of their formation and the structure put in place to implement them Foregrounding research dilemmas the author draws upon four university case studies using both equal opportunities documents and interviews with key personnel She focuses on the institutional discourses which surround equal opportunities in the universities and is concerned not only with their treatment of the issues but also with the positions taken up by academic trade unions Equal Opportunities in Colleges and Universities Maureen Farish, 1995

Researching into Equal Opportunities in Colleges and Universities Kate Ashcroft, Stephen Bigger, David Coates, 2021-10-29 This work explores the issues dilemmas and situations which confront the stakeholders in further and higher education in the area of equal opportunities Such dilemmas include ways that gender influences male and female students experience and special education needs of students Resources in Education, 2000 Gender, Policy and Educational Change Sheila Riddell, Jane Salisbury, 2003-05-20 Gender equality has been a major educational theme for the past two decades and has become interwoven with other policy themes including those of marketisation and managerialism Contributors to this strong collection are key researchers in their fields and seek to address the following questions What patterns are discernible in the educational attainment of girls and boys over the past two decades To what extent are changes attributable to gender equality policies What form have gender equality policies taken in different parts of the UK What has been the impact of European equality policies How have gender equality policies been experienced by particular groups including pupils from ethnic minority and working class backgrounds This book aims to take an overall look at how significant have been the changes in experiences aspirations and culture of girls and boys and male and female teachers It explores how attempts to improve equal opportunities in education have fared and examines the tensions and contradictions in recent policies

Racism and Equal Opportunity Policies in the 1980s Richard Jenkins, John Solomos, 1989 This edition first published in 1989 looks at the problems of racism and equal opportunity in employment and government policies towards them in Britain It brings together a group of specialist contributors and covers the major areas of debate including the law policies towards unemployment job training and the labour market the role of the public and private sectors the role of trade unions the gap between policies and pronouncements on equal opportunity and their implementation and the related issue of sectarian discrimination in Northern Ireland It looks at the future prospects for equal opportunities and provides conclusions for policy In particular it aims to address important topics such as the assumptions underlying policies and whether they realistically reflect reality the actual effect of legislation and the relationship between power disparities in society as a whole and racial inequality Security: Welfare, Crime And Society Cochrane, Allan, Talbot, Deborah, 2008-10-01 Why is the concept of security so important in modern society Why do people and governments invest so much in the pursuit of different forms of security How do we make sense of the changing nature of the relationship between security and insecurity This book focuses on the concept of security as an idea an ideal and a practice and explores the ways in which it can shed light on the relationship between welfare and crime and the ambiguities that arise from them The authors investigate these issues by examining particular areas of social life and policy development with a focus that ranges from global to local and neighbourhood concerns The book is integrated with engaging activities such as case studies review and reflection sections Adopting an inter disciplinary approach to explore criminological and social policy perspectives the chapters reflect the increasingly blurred area between social and crime control policy and the way in which it is managed The contributors delve into the consequences and implications of policies and practices aimed at creating security which can all too often have the opposite effect Security is key reading for students in criminology social policy and social justice Critical Perspectives
