Making Of The Pre By Francis Ponge:

The Making of the Pre by Francis Ponge Francis Ponge, 1982-10-01 La Fabrique Du Pré Francis Ponge, 1979 The making of the Pr is the culmination of Francis Ponge's loving struggle with language To say that this work is just a text with illustrations or simply a notebook of preliminary sketches leading to a final poem or to call it merely a self-demonstrating development of a thought process a hymn of praise or an essay on the way that language represents objects and emotions would be insufficient Introduction Francis Ponge and the Nature of Things Patrick Alan Meadows, 1997 One of the most significant French poets of the twentieth century Francis Ponge is treated in this study The fundamental role of atomistic philosophy in Ponge's writings especially as expressed in Lucretius's De Rerum Natura is discussed Meadows is the first author to examine Ponge's writings in a book-length study The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press Philosophy and Poetry Ranjan Ghosh, 2019-06-04 Ever since Plato's Socrates exiled the poets from the ideal city in The Republic Western thought has insisted on a strict demarcation between philosophy and poetry Yet might their long-standing quarrel hide deeper affinities This book explores the distinctive ways in which twentieth-century and contemporary continental thinkers have engaged with poetry and its contribution to philosophical meaning making challenging us to rethink how philosophy has been changed through its encounters with poetry In wide-ranging reflections on thinkers such as Heidegger Gadamer Arendt Lacan Merleau-Ponty Deleuze Irigaray Badiou Kristeva and Agamben among others distinguished contributors consider how different philosophers encountered the force and intensity of poetry and the negotiations that took place as they sought resolutions of the quarrel Instead of a clash between competing worldviews they figured the relationship between philosophy and poetry as one of productive mutuality leading toward new modes of thinking and understanding Spanning a range of issues with nuance and rigor this compelling and comprehensive book opens new possibilities for philosophical poetry and the poetics of philosophy The Making of an Avant-Garde Niilo Kauppi, 2013-08-26 No detailed description available for The Making of an Avant-Garde Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint Aubert, 2020-08-04 Merleau-Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau-Ponty's extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau-Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co-naisance from Valéry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau-Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau-Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression Circling the Canon, Volume I Marjorie Perloff, 2019-11-15

Radium of the Word Craig Dworkin, 2020-12-09 With fresh insight and contemporary relevance Radium of the Word argues that a study of the form of language yields meanings otherwise inaccessible through ordinary reading strategies Attending to the forms of words rather than to their denotations Craig Dworkin traces hidden networks across the surface of texts examining how typography and even individual letters and marks of punctuation can reveal patterns that are significant without being symbolic fully meaningful without communicating any preordained message Radium of the Word takes its title from Mina Loy's poem for Gertrude Stein which hails her as the Madame Curie of the laboratory of vocabulary In this spirit Dworkin considers prose as a dynamic literary form characterized by experimentation Dworkin draws on examples from writers as diverse as Lyn Hejinian William Faulkner and Joseph Roth He takes up the status of the proper name in Modernism with examples from Stein Loy and Guillaume Apollinaire and he offers in depth analyses of individual authors from the counter canon of the avant garde including P Inman Russell Atkins N H Pritchard and Andy Warhol The result is an inspiring intervention in contemporary poetics

The Art Criticism of Francis Ponge Shirley Ann Jordan,1994 This study of Francis Ponge s essays on contemporary artists L Atelier contemporain attempts to broaden the popular view of the author as a poet of objects It explores Ponge s perception of art criticism as an inherently problematic genre and exposes the inhibitions surrounding the production of the essays The study demonstrates how Ponge s essays on artists parallel developments in his other works They are seen as instrumental in his movement towards open texts and a stress on the creative process itself as well as opportunities to reaffirm his philosophical and aesthetic stance

The Storm of Creativity Kyna Leski,2020-08-11 The stages of the creative process from unlearning to beginning again seen through examples from the practice of artists architects poets and others Although each instance of creativity is singular and specific Kyna Leski tells us the creative process is universal Artists architects poets inventors scientists and others all navigate the same stages of the process in order to discover something that does not yet exist All of us must work our way through the empty page the blank screen writer's block, confusion, chaos, and doubt. In this book, Leski draws from her observations and experiences as a teacher, student, maker, writer, and architect to describe the workings of the creative process. Leski sees the creative process as being like a storm: it slowly begins to gather and take form until it overtakes us if we are willing to let it. It is dynamic, continually in motion; it starts, stops, rages, and abates; ebbs and flows. In illustrations that accompany each chapter, she maps the arc of the creative process by tracing the path of water droplets traveling the stages of a storm. Leski describes unlearning, ridding ourselves of preconceptions, only when we realize what we don't know can we pose the problem that we need to solve. We gather evidence with notebook jottings, research, the collection of objects propelling the process. We perceive and conceive; we look ahead without knowing where we are going; we make connections. We pause, retreat, and stop only to start again. To illustrate these stages of the process, Leski draws on examples of creative practice that range from Paul Klee to Steve Jobs, from the discovery of continental drift to the design of Antoni Gaudí's Sagrada Família. Creativity, Leski tells us, is a path with no beginning or end; it is ongoing. This revelatory view of the creative process will be an essential guide for anyone engaged in creative discovery.
