Coriden, Thomas Joseph Green, 2000 A complete and updated commentary on the Code of Canon Law prepared by the leading canonists of North America and Europe Contains the full newly translated text of the Code itself as well as detailed commentaries by thirty six scholars commissioned by the Canon Law Society of America The New Canon Law Stanislaus Woywod, 1918 A Commentary on the New Code of the Canon Law Charles Augustine (Rev. P., O.S.B.), 1919 A Commentary on the New Code of Canon Law Charles Augustine (Rev. P., O.S.B.), 1921 A Commentary on the New Code of Canon Law Charles Augustine (Rev. P., O.S.B.), 1918 A Commentary on the New Code of Canon Law Charles Augustine (Rev. P., O.S.B.), 1925 The New Canon Law Stanislaus Woywod, 2013-10-12 For several months past the articles by Father Stanislaus Woywod in the Ecclesiastical Review have informed the clergy of the most important features of the new Code of Canon Law The same author now gives to the public a Summary and Commentary of the whole Code As the present volume is published mainly with a view of the needs of the clergy engaged in the care of souls the bulk of the book has been kept as compact as possible wherefore in such places only where explanation and comment seemed necessary they have been given and in as brief a form as possible Chapters which are not needed by every priest have been mentioned only with few words and en passant as it were The fourth and the fifth Book have been summed up very briefly giving the most important points of legislation contained therein A very complete Index will make it easy to find any desired point of law We heartily congratulate Father Woywod on the good work and trust that the clergy of the United States will be pleased to find in this volume a welcome means of acquiring the necessary knowledge of the new legislation of the Church This book was published shortly after the promulgation of the Codex Juris Canonici in 1917 It must be remembered that the Code of Canon Law promulgated in 1917 did not replace the previous law it was merely a codification in one place of the law of the Catholic Church Canon Law remains constant throughout history adapting to changing circumstances in those which are adaptable and remaining firm in those which are unchangable such as the Natural Law and Divine Law which finds its way into the Code of Canon Law of the Church The New Canon Law Rev Stanislaus Woywod O F M, Stanislaus Woywod, Philip Bernardini, Monsignor, 2012-07-31 The first point that must be made of this book is that the dialect is older English But now my good uncle the world is here waxen such and so great perils appear here to fall at hand that me thinketh the greatest comfort that a man can have is when he may see that he shall soon be gone Pg 1 2 The reader will have to accustom themselves to a learning curve In the first Chapter St Thomas More tells us that philosophers of old created ways to be comforted in tribulation These pagan philosophers told their followers that they should place of little value on worldly goods and honors But as the Saint continues on for they never stretched so far but that they leave untouched for lack of necessary knowledge that special point which is not only the chief comfort of all but without which also all other comforts are nothing That is to wit the referring of the final end of their comfort unto God and the reput and take for the special cause of comfort that by the patient sufferance of their tribulation they shall attain His favour and for their pain receive reward at His hand in Heaven Pg 9 He ends the first chapter by saying Honorsa medicum propter necessitatem etenim ordinavit eum Altissimus honor the physician for him hath the high God ordained for thy necessity Eccl 38 St Thomas more points to this heavenly physician as Christ Himself applying His own blood as our medicine The second chapter tells us that it is faith that must be the foundation for men s comfort That is to wit the ground and foundation of faith without which had ready before all the spiritual comfort that any man may speak of can never avail a fly For likewise as it were utterly vain to lay natural reasons of comfort to him that hath no wit so were it undoubtedly frustrate to lay spiritual causes of comfort to him that hath no faith Pg 11 St Thomas More in the third chapter assigns the first comfort as the following the desire and longing to be by God comforted Pg 14 St Thomas more writes that those who seek comfort in anything outside of God will never become comforted He quotes St Bernard He that in tribulation turneth himself unto worldly vanities to get help and comfort by them fareth like a man that in peril of drowning catcheth whatsoever cometh next to hand and that holdeth he fast be it never so simple a stick but then that helpeth him not for that stick he draweth down under the water with him and there lie they drowned both together Pg 15 The fourth chapter bring forth the idea that tribulation was meant to bring men of good will Luke 2 14 to closer to God Some are in the beginning of tribulation very stubborn and stiff against God and yet at length tribulation bringeth them home Pg 18 St Thomas More continues to bring this point home by writing The proud king Pharaoh did abide and endure two or three of the first plagues and would not once stoop at them But then God laid on a sorer lash that made him cry to him for help and then sent he for Moses and Aaron and confessed himself a sinner and God for good and righteous and prayed them to pray for him and to withdraw that plague and he would let them go But when his tribulation was withdrawn then was he naught again So was his tribulation occasion of his profit and his help again cause of his harm For his tribulation made him call to God and his help made hard his heart again Pg 18

The New Canon Law Rev Stanislaus Woywod, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from The New Canon Law A Commentary and Summary of the New Code of Canon Law For several months past the articles by Father Stanislaus Woywod in the Ecclesiastical Review have informed the clergy of the most important features of the new Code of Canon Law The same author now gives to the public a Summary and Commentary of the whole Code As the present volume is published mainly with a view of the needs of the clergy engaged in the care of souls the bulk of the book has been kept as compact as possible wherefore in such places only where explanation and comment seemed necessary they have been given and in as brief a form as possible Chapters which are not needed by every priest have been mentioned only with few words and en passant as it were The fourth and the fifth Book have been summed up very briefly giving the most important points of legislation contained therein A very complete Index will make it easy to find any desired point of law We heartily congratulate Father Woywod on the good work and trust that the clergy of the United States will be pleased to find in this volume a welcome

Rights and Obligations in Canon Law Mary McAleese,2019-11-04 In the first study of its kind Mary McAleese subjects to comprehensive scrutiny the Roman Catholic Church's 1983 Code of Canon law as it applies to children The Catholic Church is the world's largest non governmental organisation involved in the provision of education and care services to children It has over three hundred million child members world wide the vast majority of whom became Church members when they were baptised as infants Canon law sets out their rights and obligations as members Children also have rights which are set out in the 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child to which the Holy See is State Party The impact of the Convention on Canon Law is examined in detail and the analysis charts a distinct and worrying sea change in the attitude of the Holy See to its obligations under the Convention since the clerical sex abuse scandals became a subject of discussion at the Committee on the Rights of the Child which monitors implementation of the Convention Mary McAleese wins Europe's richest theology prize for her study of canon law The former President of Ireland Mary McAleese has won one of the Catholic world's most prestigious prizes the Alfons Auer Ethics Award from Tbingen University in Germany for her doctoral thesis on Children's Rights and Obligations in Canon Law A Commentary on the New Code of Canon Law Charles Augustine

A Commentary on the New Code of the Canon Law Charles Augustine (Rev. P., O.S.B.),1931 Maxwell's Handbook for AACR2 Robert L. Maxwell,2004-05-24 For application of the most current Anglo American Cataloguing Rules there is but one standard Maxwell's Handbook for AACR2 This practical and authoritative cataloging how to now in its Fourth Edition has been completely revised inclusive of the 2003 update to AACR2 Designed to interpret and explain AACR2 Maxwell illustrates and applies the latest cataloging rules to the MARC record for every type of information format Focusing on the concept of integrating resources where relevant information may be available in different formats the revised edition also addresses the Program for Cooperative Cataloging PCC and the cataloging needs of electronic books and digital reproductions of physical items such as books and maps From books and pamphlets to sound recordings music manuscripts maps and more this is the most comprehensive and straightforward guide to interpreting and applying standard cataloging rules Learn How and when to apply the rules What has changed in MARC21 coding How the rules help organize descriptive and bibliographic information What are uniform titles for unusual formats or materials How to select access points Extensive updates have resulted in all new chapters covering cartographic materials electronic resources and continuing resources formerly called serials Illustrated with over 490 figures showing actual MARC catalog records this is the must have AACR2 guide for catalogers LIS students and cataloging instructors A Commentary on the New Code of Canon Law ,1919 Religious Actors and International Law Ioana Cismas,2014 This book assesses whether a new category of actors religious actors has been constructed within international law Religious actors through their interpretations of the religion s they are associated with uphold and promote or indeed may transform potentially oppressive structures or discriminatory patterns This study moves beyond the concern that religious texts and practices may be incompatible with international law to provide an innovative analysis of how religious actors themselves are accountable under international law for the interpretations they choose to put forward The book defines religious actors as comprising religious states international organizations and non state entities that assume the role of interpreting religion and so claim a special legitimacy anchored in tradition or charisma Cutting across the state non state divide this definition allows the full remit of religious bodies to be investigated It analyses the crucial question of whether religious actors do in fact operate under different international legal norms to non religious states international organizations or companies To that end the Holy See Vatican the Organization of Islamic Cooperation and churches and religious organizations under the European Convention on Human Rights regime are examined in detail as case studies The study ultimately establishes that religious actors cannot be seen to form an autonomous legal category under international law they do not enjoy special or exclusive rights nor incur lesser obligations when compared to their respective non religious peers Going forward it concludes that a process of two sided legitimation may be at stake religious actors will need to provide evidence for the legality of their religious interpretations to strengthen their legitimacy and international law itself may benefit from religious actors fostering its legitimacy in different cultural contexts Non-violent Education as a Children's Right - A Human Rights-based Response to Child Sexual Abuse in Educational Institutions Franz M. Wittmann, As stipulated in the 1989 UN Convention on the Rights of the Child protecting children from violence requires an approach looking beyond physical force in order to address all forms of violence or abuse including sexual abuse Through its reporting mechanism the 1989 CRC generates an unknown level of transparency and accountability in international relations Accordingly the role of the Holy See as a State party to the Convention has been traced over decades of early enthusiasm for implementing children's rights faithfully to aggressively rebuking the CRC Committee's authority eventually

The Sensus Fidelium and Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, Lisa Fullam, 2017 Presents points of view on the sensus fidelium from a wide range of theologians and pastors and makes an outstanding contribution by widening its application to ethical and not only doctrinal issues

The Case of the Pope Geoffrey Robertson KC, 2010-09-08 THE CASE OF THE POPE delivers a devastating indictment of the way the Vatican has run a secret legal system that shields paedophile priests from criminal trial around the world Is the Pope morally or legally responsible for the negligence that has allowed so many terrible crimes to go unpunished Should he and his seat of power the Holy See continue to enjoy an immunity that places them above the law Geoffrey Robertson QC a distinguished human rights lawyer and judge evinces a deep respect for the good works of Catholics and their church But he argues unless Pope Benedict XVI can divest himself of the beguilements of statehood and devotion to obsolescent canon law the Vatican will remain a serious enemy to the advance of human rights

Pope Francis and the Transformation of Health Care Ethics Todd A. Salzman, Michael G. Lawler, 2021 In June 2018 the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops USCCB released the sixth edition of the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services ERD The ERD seeks to provide ethical guidelines grounded in moral law Church teaching and canon law to guide Catholic institutions in their provision of health care This book presents a critical commentary on the revised ERD arguing that the ERD is problematic in a number of ways First it continues to prioritize a rules based over a person centered approach with an emphasis on absolute norms that proscribe particular acts Second the authors argue that the sex abuse scandal and its cover up has fundamentally undermined the Bishops credibility and yet the revised ERD omits this context and continues to emphasize the Bishop's authority over health care decisions Third the ERD does not take into account Pope Francis transformative papacy and plea for mutual understanding and dialog in implementing health care and in collaboration between Catholic and non Catholic health care providers Following this critique the authors propose new ways forward for US Catholic health care ethics First they suggest that the ERD should be grounded in the principle that human dignity is foundational to Catholic health care As there is pluralism in Catholic definitions of human dignity there must be pluralism in the norms or directives that facilitate realizing human dignity Second Pope Francis emphasis on the virtue of care should transition the ERD from a focus on specific directives and absolute norms to a focus on principles to guide patients and health care professionals as decision makers Third the authors argue that any future ERD must include consideration of climate change race refugees poverty and other social issues in its conception of health care ethics
