Christina Anderson, 2016-06-17 Gum Printing A Step by Step Manual Highlighting Artists and Their Creative Practice is a two part book on gum bichromate written by the medium's leading expert Christina Z Anderson. Section One provides a step by step description of the gum printing process. From setting up the dimroom no darkroom required to evaluating finished prints it walks the reader through everything that is needed to establish a firm gum practice with the simplest of setups at home. Section Two showcases contemporary artists' works illustrating the myriad ways gum is conceptualized and practiced today. The works in these pages range from monochrome to colorful and from subtle to bold representing a variety of genres including still lifes, portraits, nudes, landscapes, urbanscapes and more. Featuring over 80 artists and 400 full color images. Gum Printing is the most complete overview of this dynamic and expressive medium that has yet appeared in print. Key topics covered include: The history of gum, Simple digital negatives for gum, platinum and cyanotype, Preparing supplies, Making monochrome, duotone, tricolor and quadcolor gum prints, Printing gum over cyanotype, Printing gum over platinum, Troubleshooting gum, Advice on developing a creative practice. Photo-Imaging Jill Enfield, 2002 Explains different photo processing and digital negative techniques which include methods ranging from the use of infrared film, ink jet transfers and cyanotypes to tintypes, kallitypes and polaroid transfers. Jill Enfield's Guide to Photographic Alternative Processes Jill Enfield, 2020-02-21 Jill Enfield's Guide to Photographic Alternative Processes 2nd edition is packed with stunning imagery, how to recipes, techniques and historical information for emulating the ethereal dream like feel of alternative processing. This fully updated edition covers alternative processing from its historical roots through to digital manipulation and contemporary techniques and how to combine them. It features several new techniques alongside new approaches to older techniques including hand painting on silver gelatin prints, ceramics and photography, cyanotypes, wet plate collodion, digital prints and many more. Enfield showcases the different styles and methods of contemporary artists together with suggestions for vegan and vegetarian friendly alternative processing, transforming 2D images to 3D installations and how to apply darkroom techniques to digital captures. Professionals, students and hobbyists will discover how to bring new life and imagination to their imagery. Whether in a darkroom using traditional chemicals at the kitchen sink with pantry staples or in front of the computer re-creating techniques digitally you will learn how to add a richness and depth to your photography like never before. Photographic Possibilities Robert Hirsch, 2009 A reliable source of techniques and ideas for the use of alternative and contemporary photographic processes that photographers have come to depend on. Professional photographers and advanced students seeking to increase their skills will discover modern and classic methods of creating and manipulating images. Photography Beyond Technique: Essays from F295 on the Informed Use of Alternative and Historical Photographic Processes Tom Persinger, 2014-02-24 Photography is not dying and has not died. It has been an ever changing medium since its earliest days and while near obsession with the technology of the day may have defined photography over the course of its existence, photography is so much more than hardware and software. Photography is communication whether chemical or digital tangible or ephemeral in form Photography Beyond Technique is a compelling selection of essays and images that reveal the thoughts and methods of some of today's most exciting contemporary photographers These artists employ alternative historical or handmade processes and techniques and they share a comprehensive view of the medium that the choice of photographic process is just as important as the selection of subjects While other books concentrate solely on process or theory or artistic intent none focus on photography in which these decisions are considered inseparable These 20 essays originally presented at the annual F295 symposium and seminar series provide a thought provoking read for anyone interested in photography as an art form and as a medium through which to view the world Includes Looking Backward Seeing Forward Reframing Visual History by Robert Hirsch Mystery Memory and Narrative by Martha Casanave Finding Confidence Combining Process with Purpose by Mark Osterman Photograph Material and Metaphor by Jerry Spagnoli
