influence on the development of contemporary garden design Heidi Howcroft has discovered these women's gardening secrets and writes sensitively and informatively about the individual women and their influence on the English country garden The individual gardens' charm and design are captured in photos by Marianne Majerus

The Englishwoman's Review of Social and Industrial Questions Janet Murray, Myra Stark, 2017-01-06 The Englishwoman's Review which published from 1866 to 1910 participated in and recorded a great change in the range of possibilities open to women The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle class woman economic independence from men choice of occupation participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government access to higher education admittance to the male professions particularly medicine and of course the power of suffrage equal to that of men First published in 1985 this fortieth volume contains issues from 1909 to 1910 With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark and an index compiled by Anna Clark this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth century feminism and the women's movement in Britain

Public Garden Management: a Global Perspective BIJAN DEHGAN, 2014-04-15 Public Gardens Management A Global Perspective provides essential information about public gardens and what is involved in designing managing and maintaining one Although suitable as a textbook its audience will include anyone with direct or peripheral responsibility for administration or supervision of a complex organization that requires scientific knowledge as well as public relations and business acumen It may also prove useful for homeowners for there is no fundamental difference between growing plants in a public garden or a home garden a fact reflected in the extensive reference citations The topic is multidisciplinary and as old as the beginning of human civilization when the concept of mental and physical restoration was realized by early man while he/she was in a natural but well ordered garden environment Thus began the art of garden making Many volumes have been written on every applicable subject discussed in this and similar publications Indeed the voluminous literature on history design horticulture and numerous related subjects is nothing short of overwhelming Accordingly anyone involved in management of public gardens whether as a director or area supervisor and irrespective of the type and size of such facility would have to have familiarity with various aspects of garden organization and administration However despite the enormous number and diversity of such publications there are very few books that deal with the multiplicity of the topics in such a manner as to be practical in approach and cover most relevant and unified issues in a single book These volumes provide the essential background information on plants animals management maintenance fundraising and finances as well as history art design education and conservation They also cover a host of interrelated subjects and responsible organization of such activities as creating a children's garden horticultural therapy conservatories zoological gardens and parks hence administration of multidimensional public gardens Nearly 500 full color plates representing illustrations from gardens in more than 30 countries are provided to assist and guide students and other interested individuals with history and the fundamental issues of public garden management The 15 chapters begin with the need for public gardens types of public gardens historical backgrounds as well as design diversity Numerous quotations are included from many garden lovers landscape architects philosophers and others The authors primary aim in writing this book was based on the confidence that a relevant reference between the encyclopedic nature of some and the specific subject matter of others could be used to provide fundamental information for management of public as well as private gardens The boundary between botanical and zoological gardens and parks is no longer as distinct as it once was In part it is because a garden is not a garden without plants and in part it has become apparent that for all practical intents and purposes all animals need plants for their survival Visitors of zoological gardens expect to see more than just animals zoos are landscaped grounds Moreover most communities find it financially difficult to simultaneously operate a botanical garden or an arboretum as well as a zoological garden and city parks A number of public gardens are currently referred to as botanical and zoological garden Population density and the publics desires and expectations as well as financial requirements are among the reasons for some major city parks such as Golden Gate in San Francisco Central Park in New York City and Lincoln Park in Chicago which integrate botanical or zoological divisions as well as museums and recreational facilities While this book attempts to provide basic principles involved in public garden management it does not claim to be a substitute for broader familiarity Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine ,1862

Englishwoman's Review which published from 1866 to 1910 participated in and recorded a great change in the range of possibilities open to women. The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle class woman: economic independence from men, choice of occupation, participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government, access to higher education, admittance to the male professions, particularly medicine, and of course the power of suffrage equal to that of men. First published in 1985, this thirty-ninth volume contains issues from 1907 to 1908. With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark and an index compiled by Anna Clark, this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth century feminism and the women's movement in Britain. The English Country House Garden George Plumptre, 2018-10-02. This book will inspire and delight the stories of these gardens so compellingly captured by George Plumptre. Make the reader stop and tarry awhile, marvelling at the energy, the vision, and the passion of the people who created gardens such as Hidcote, Sissinghurst, and Great Dixter. The English Garden: A feast of horticulture and Englishness. Here is a space to wander and relax, to share secrets and, above all, to enjoy afternoon tea. But even the most peaceful of gardens also take passion and hard work to create. This new book takes a fresh look at the English country house garden, starting with the owners and the stories behind the making of the gardens. Glorious photographs capture the gardens at their finest moments through the seasons, and a sparkling and erudite text presents twenty-five gardens, some grand, some personal, some celebrated, some never before photographed, to explore why this garden style has been so very enduring and influential. From the Victorian grandeur of Tyntesfield and Cragston to the Arts and Crafts from Scampston in the same family since the 17th century, to new gardens by Dan Pearson and Tom Stuart-Smith, and with favourites such as Hidcote and Great Dixter alongside new discoveries, this book will be a delicious treat for garden lovers.
