New Humanities Reader:

The New Humanities Reader (with 2016 MLA Update Card) Richard E. Miller, Kurt Spellmeyer, 2016-08-16 THE NEW HUMANITIES READER presents 25 challenging and important essays from diverse fields that address current global issues This cross disciplinary anthology helps you attain the analytical skills necessary to become informed citizens Ideas and research from wide ranging sources provide opportunities for you to synthesize materials and formulate your own ideas and solutions The thought provoking selections engage and encourage you to make connections for yourself as you think read and write about the events that are likely to shape your life The fifth edition includes nearly 50 percent new selections which continue to make this text current globally oriented interdisciplinary and probing Each student text is packaged with a free Cengage Essential Reference Card to the MLA HANDBOOK Eighth Edition The New Humanities Reader Richard E. Miller, Kurt Spellmeyer, 2003 Designed to help students attain the analytical skills and big picture overview necessary to become informed citizens the collection contains challenging and important readings from diverse fields that address critical issues in contemporary society Ideas and research from wide ranging sources provide opportunities for students to synthesize materials and come up with their own ideas and solutions Students will be engaged by reading and rereading analyzing and working with these selections because they present powerful ideas not simply because they are models of good writing style The New Humanities Reader Richard Earl Miller, 2011 THE NEW HUMANITIES READER International Edition presents 25 challenging and important essays from diverse fields that address current global issues This cross disciplinary anthology helps readers attain the analytical skills necessary to become informed citizens Ideas and research from wide ranging sources provide opportunities for students to synthesize materials and formulate their own ideas and solutions The thought provoking selections engage students and encourage students to make connections for themselves as they think read and write about the events that are likely to shape their lives The Fourth Edition includes nearly 25% new reading selections which continue to make this text current globally oriented interdisciplinary and probing The New Humanities Reader Richard Earl Miller, Kurt Spellmeyer, 2005 The New Humanities Reader presents 32 challenging and important essays from diverse fields that address current global issues The authors contend that there is a crisis within the humanities today due to specialization within narrow fields of scholarship resulting in a higher education system that produces students who lack the general cross disciplinary knowledge needed to better understand today s complex world The selections encourage students to synthesize and think critically about ideas and research formerly kept apart This approach challenges readers to resist mimetic thinking and instead creatively connect ideas to help them understand and retain what they read Through this process of reading discussing and writing students develop the analytical skills necessary to become informed citizens Focused on today s issues the selections represent both well known nonfiction authors and newly published writers and are drawn from such periodicals as The New Yorker and Natural History and from best selling books including

Reading Lolita in Tehran Fast Food Nation and Into the Wild Students will be engaged by reading and rereading analyzing and working with these selections not simply because they are models of good writing but because they are also deeply thought provoking pieces that invite readers to respond
