How Not to Be Human

Matthew Calarco, 2024-07-09 Current debates in the environmental humanities animal studies and related fields increasingly revolve around this question What to do with the human Is the human a category worth preserving Should it be replaced with the post human Should marginalized and minoritarian groups advocate for a universal humanism What is the relationship between humanism and anthropocentrism Is a genuinely non anthropocentric mode of thinking and living possible for human beings This book argues that the writings of twentieth century poet Robinson Jeffers offer twenty first century readers a number of crucial insights concerning such questions and timely advice about how not to be human For Jeffers our tendency to turn inward on ourselves and to indulge in human narcissism is at the heart of the social economic and existential ills that plague modern societies As a remedy Jeffers recommends turning ourselves outward beyond the self and beyond the human and learning to affirm and even love the inhuman cosmos in all of its terrible beauty In the process Jeffers helps us find our way back to ourselves but this time no longer as human in the traditional sense but as plain members of the inhuman world

The Ox-Bow Man Jackson J. Benson, 2006-07-27 Walter Van Tilburg Clark author of the classic novel The Ox Bow Incident was one of the West's most important literary figures a writer who contributed mightily to the tradition of viewing the West realistically and not through the veil of myth and romance As a comparatively young man he published three novels and a collection of short stories then remained almost silent for the rest of his life the victim of a paralyzing case of writer's block Now Jackson J Benson one of the country's foremost literary biographers has produced the first full length biography of this brilliant enigmatic and ultimately tragic figure Based on widely scattered sources personal papers and correspondence interviews with family members friends and others and Clark's unpublished stories and poems Benson's biography focuses on Clark's intellectual and literary life as a writer teacher and westerner Benson masterfully balances his engaging account of the experiences people and settings of Clark's life with a penetrating examination of his complex psyche and the crippling perfectionism that virtually ended Clark's career as well as offering up a thoughtful assessment of Clark's place in Western writing In these pages Clark lives again a warm complex and ultimately anguished human being Benson's remarkably astute and sensitive biography is destined to be the book that readers and researchers consult first for information about this major western writer

Cooper, David Cooper, 2002-09-11 Fifty Key Thinkers on the Environment is a unique guide to environmental thinking through the ages Joy A Palmer herself an important and prolific author on environmental matters has assembled a team of thirty five expert contributors to summarize and analyse the thinking of fifty diverse and stimulating figures from all over the world and from ancient times to the present day Among those included are Philosophers such as Rousseau Spinoza and Heidegger Activists such as Chico Mendes Literary giants such as Virgil Goethe and Wordsworth Major religious and spiritual figures such as the Buddha and St Francis of Assisi Lucid scholarly and informative these fifty essays offer a fascinating overview of mankind's view and understanding of the physical world

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study

Adrienne Rich's Later Poetry Alec Marsh, 2024-12-12 Reorienting understandings of Adrienne Rich's later work through her interest in Marx and Marxist politics this book engages with this overlooked part of her oeuvre through considerations of issues such as race nationhood and gender From 1983 onward after she visited revolutionary Nicaragua until the end of her life Rich's political vision can best be described as Marxist Humanist Until recently very little attention has been paid to Rich's interest in Marx there is no in depth treatment of the effect of Marx's humanistic philosophy on Rich's later work or even on her unwavering but altered dedication to Women's Liberation This book fills this gap showing how Rich's discovery of Marx's humanism affected her poetry In doing so it makes a significant intervention into debates about the direction of American poetics and argues powerfully for a greater consciousness of political engagement through poetry

Twentieth-Century American Poetics: Poets on the Art of Poetry Dana Gioia, David Mason, Meg Schoerke, 2004 This comprehensive chronological anthology includes 58 essays on poetry by 53 poets Starting with James Weldon Johnson and Robert Frost the book offers diverse and often conflicting accounts of the nature and function of poetry The collection includes rarely anthologized essays by Jack Spicer Rhina Espaillat Anne Stevenson and Ron Silliman as well as work by some of the finest younger critics in America including William Logan Alice Fulton and Christian Wiman

Golden Dreams Kevin Starr, 2011-09-09 A narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Kevin Starr's acclaimed multi volume Americans and the California Dream is an unparalleled work of cultural history In this volume Starr covers the crucial postwar period 1950 to 1963 when the California we know today first burst into prominence Starr brilliantly illuminates the dominant economic social and cultural forces in California in these pivotal years In a powerful blend of telling events colorful personalities and insightful analyses Starr examines such issues as the overnight creation of the postwar California suburb the rise of Los Angeles as Super City the reluctant emergence of San Diego as one of the largest cities in the nation and the decline of political centrism He explores the Silent Generation and the emergent Boomer youth cult the Beats and the Hollywood Rat

Pack the pervasive influence of Zen Buddhism and other Asian traditions in art and design the rise of the University of California and the emergence of California itself as a utopia of higher education the cooling of West Coast jazz freeway and water projects of heroic magnitude outdoor life and the beginnings of the environmental movement More broadly he shows how California not only became the most populous state in the Union but in fact evolved into a mega state en route to becoming the global commonwealth it is today Golden Dreams continues an epic series that has been widely recognized for its signal contribution to the history of American culture in California It is a book that transcends its stated subject to offer a wealth of insight into the growth of the Sun Belt and the West and indeed the dramatic transformation of America itself in these pivotal years following the Second World War Wild Anthropocene Louise Economides, 2025-04-17

Wild Anthropocene examines four key areas the politics of deep time neoliberalism's socio ecological impacts global population growth and inter species entanglement to demonstrate how literature illuminates progressive solutions to Anthropocene challenges The book argues that technological mitigation of contemporary environmental crises must be complimented by a politics committed to multispecies justice Central to this new politics is the project of reimagining our relationship with time as something other than its status within capitalist praxis The book brings together poetry and fiction written by a diverse range of writers to demonstrate how contemporary literature addresses important connections between social oppression and environmental issues It also critiques techno managerial visions of the future that celebrate humanity's ever growing control over ecosystems by examining multiple sources of wildness temporal environmental and technological that expose the problematic ideology underwriting such aspirations Readers will be introduced to a way of understanding the Anthropocene that while being informed by recent discoveries in earth science and evolutionary biology also makes a strong case for humanities based understanding of environmental politics This interdisciplinary text will be a useful addition to theoretical discussions on the Anthropocene for scholars researchers and students in the environmental humanities literary studies ecocriticism and environmental philosophy

Intertwined Lives Lois W. Banner, 2010-12-15 A uniquely revealing biography of two eminent twentieth century American women Close friends for much of their lives Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead met at Barnard College in 1922 when Mead was a student Benedict a teacher They became sexual partners though both married and pioneered in the then male dominated discipline of anthropology They championed racial and sexual equality and cultural relativity despite the generally racist xenophobic and homophobic tenor of their era Mead's best selling Coming of Age in Samoa 1928 and Sex and Temperament in Three Primitive Societies 1935 and Benedict's Patterns of Culture 1934 Race 1940 and The Chrysanthemum and the Sword 1946 were landmark studies that ensured the lasting prominence and influence of their authors in the field of anthropology and beyond With unprecedented access to the complete archives of the two women including hundreds of letters opened to scholars in 2001 Lois Banner examines the impact of their difficult childhoods and the relationship between them in the context of their circle of family friends husbands lovers and colleagues as well as the calamitous events of their time She shows how Benedict inadvertently exposed Mead to charges of professional incompetence discloses the serious errors New Zealand anthropologist Derek Freeman made in his famed attack on Mead's research on Samoa and reveals what happened in New Guinea when Mead and colleagues engaged in a ritual aimed at overturning all gender and sexual boundaries In this illuminating and innovative work Banner has given us the most detailed balanced and informative portrait of Mead and Benedict individually and together that we have had
