Sandford and Merton Lucy Aikin, 1895 Catalogue of Title Entries of Books and Other Articles, 1898 Mapping Men and Empire Richard Phillips, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996. Adventure stories produced and consumed in vast quantities in eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth-century Europe narrate encounters between Europeans and the non-European world. They map both European and non-European people and places. In the exotic, uncomplicated, and malleable settings of stories like Robinson Crusoe, they make it possible to imagine and to naturalise and normalise identities that might seem implausible closer to home. This book discusses the geography of literature and looking at where adventure stories chart colonies and empires, projecting European geographical fantasies onto non-European real geographies, including the Americas, Africa, and Australasia.
