Blindness and Writing Heather Tilley,2018 In this innovative and important study Heather Tilley examines the huge shifts that took place in the experience and conceptualisation of blindness during the nineteenth century and demonstrates how new writing technologies for blind people had transformative effects on literary culture Considering the ways in which visually impaired people used textual means to shape their own identities the book argues that blindness was also a significant trope through which writers reflected on the act of crafting literary form Supported by an illuminating range of archival material including unpublished letters from Wordsworth s circle early ophthalmologic texts embossed books and autobiographies this is a rich account of blind people s experience and reveals the close and often surprising personal engagement that canonical writers had with visual impairment Drawing on the insights of disability studies and cultural phenomenology Tilley highlights the importance of attending to embodied experience in the production and consumption of texts True Lies Samuel Amago,2006 Rosa Montero metafiction literary cannibalism and the construction of personal identity Mapping the storied self consciousness and cartography in the fiction of Juan Jose Millas Narrative schizophrenia and the anxiety of influence in the novels of Nuria Amat Indeterminacy for indeterminacy s sake textual narcissism and the fiction of Javier Mar as Narrative truth and historical truth in Javier Cercas s Soldados de Salamina Carlos Canaque turns metafiction against Itself The Return of the Gift Harry Liebersohn,2010-12-06 This book is a history of European interpretations of the gift from the mid seventeenth to the early twentieth century Reciprocal gift exchange pervasive in traditional European society disappeared from the discourse of nineteenth century social theory only to return as a major theme in twentieth century anthropology sociology history philosophy and literary studies Modern anthropologists encountered gift exchange in Oceania and the Pacific Northwest and returned the idea to European social thought Marcel Mauss synthesized their insights with his own readings from remote times and places in his famous 1925 essay on the gift the starting point for subsequent discussion The Return of the Gift demonstrates how European intellectual history can gain fresh significance from global contexts Light ,1907
