Dying Swans and Madmen Adrienne L. McLean, 2008-02-19 From mid twentieth century films such as Grand Hotel Waterloo Bridge and The Red Shoes to recent box office hits including Billy Elliot Save the Last Dance and The Company ballet has found its way time and again onto the silver screen and into the hearts of many otherwise unlikely audiences In Dying Swans and Madmen Adrienne L. McLean explores the curious pairing of classical and contemporary art and entertainment high culture and popular culture to reveal the ambivalent place that this art form occupies in American life Drawing on examples that range from musicals to tragic melodramas she shows how commercial films have produced an image of ballet and its artists that is associated both with joy fulfillment fame and power and with sexual and mental perversity melancholy and death Although ballet is still received by many with a lack of interest or outright suspicion McLean argues that these attitudes as well as ballet's popularity and its acceptability as a way of life and a profession have often depended on what audiences first learned about it from the movies

Romantic Desire in (Post)modern Art and Philosophy Jos De Mul, 1999-07-16 In this erudite and wide ranging discussion of postmodernism and romanticism in twentieth century art and philosophy Jos de Mul sheds a fascinating light on the ambivalent character of our present culture which oscillates between modern enthusiasm and postmodern irony Along the way he engages the work of such thinkers as Nietzsche Freud Heidegger Habermas Lacan Barthes and Derrida visual artists Magritte and Stella poets Georg and Coleridge and composers Schonberg Cage and Reich among others providing a sort of intellectual history of Romantic Modernist and Postmodernist tempers

A Reader's Guide to the Narrative and Lyric Poetry of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Rodney Edgecombe, 2015-10-05 Beddoes poses a peculiar problem for critics and scholars who wish to redress the marginal position that he occupies in the Romantic canon a problem seemingly unique to him and created in part by his misconception of his own strengths as a writer An extremely good poet who had things turned out differently might have functioned as a missing link between Keats and Tennyson he fatally divided his attention between verse and medicine a discipline that by his own admission made in the poem composed for Zo King served to wither his creative gift This fission of energy was bad enough but more damaging still was his misconception of metier for whatever mental resources remained to Beddoes after gruelling days in the classroom he invested in writing an unstageable drama instead of in his primary gift for lyric verse Whereas the Beddoes revival that has been gathering momentum in recent years has centred on Death's Jest Book the play onto which the poet directed some might say misdirected so much of his creative energy this study focuses wholly on his lyric and narrative verse much of which has received short critical shrift It follows the sequence of poems set out in the Donner edition and focuses on their verbal richness and inventiveness as they unspool upon the page Blackwell's of

Design and Visual Culture from the Bauhaus to Contemporary Art Edit Tóth, 2018-05-16 This book complements the more textually based Bauhaus scholarship with a practice oriented and creative interpretive method which makes it possible to consider Bauhaus related works in an unconventional light Edit Tóth argues that focusing on the functionalist approach of the Bauhaus has hindered scholars from properly understanding its design work With a global scope and under studied topics the book advances current scholarly discussions concerning the relationship between image technologies and the body by calling attention to the materiality of image production and strategies of re channeling image culture into material processes and physical body space the space of dimensionality and everyday activity Pina Bausch's Dance Theater Gabriele Klein, 2020-05-07 This volume provides new ground breaking perspectives on the globally renowned work of the Tanztheater Wuppertal and its iconic founder and artistic director Pina Bausch The company's performances how it developed its productions the global transfer of its choreographic material and the reactions of audiences and critics are explained as complex interdependent and reciprocal processes of translation This is the first book to focus on the artistic research conducted for the Tanztheater's international coproductions and features extensive interviews with dancers collaborators and spectators and provides first hand ethnographic insights into the work process By introducing the praxeology of translation as a key methodological concept for dance research Gabriele Klein argues that Pina Bausch's lasting legacy is defined by an entanglement of temporalities that challenges the notion of contemporaneity The
