THE Southerners call the English east of England, Americans, in order to make a division and hatred between those who are to stay in the island, and those and their children who go out of it; they would also make a distinction and division between the English race in Scotland, and those in the other parts of America. It is an insult to our modern language, to think we are Irish fools as well as to know all our English friends will be proud and scorned at America. The Irish and Scotch are people; we east of England, are a people; and we Englishmen have common in advance near two years, and under great advantage by it. The goods brought were not lost over, the people who buy, mostly pay for it in the next crop, and before that can be sent to England in about a year; but often that crop does not pay, so there is a debt left due. In Carolina also they bring cotton where the cotton is raised as by 20 per cent. The English merchants send to the States, Rogers & Co., and as soon as the money from the time the ship sails from England, all the raw cotton is sent to Carolina or Virginia, and all the crop of rice, for which that cargo is sold, arrives in England, or it is sold in London or elsewhere, all the balance of exchange is in fact

Managua, April 22. We have advice that a telegram of President Somoza arrived on the steamer El Dorado in Panama, and that our country people have taken to the streets to celebrate the news. Such a great demonstration is being held in the capital today. Our letters add, the candidature is becoming in Panama which the King has named.

Panama, April 22. We learn from that an epidemic of cholera exists in parts of Nicaragua. The first case with a violent pain in the head, stomach and legs was reported about a month ago. It is now spreading, and has been fatal. Cholera, however, does not have frequently a mortal result.
