Patterns And Cages Reconstructing The Self:

Patterns and Cages Helen Manalad-Dizon,1991 Patterns and Cages Helen Gotico,1997 Filipinas Magazine,1997 Bibliography of Southeast Asia Kim See Ch'ng,2003 TheBibliography of Southeast Asia A Decade of Selected Social Science Publications in the English Language 1990 2000 comprises 6 521 entries of published works The selection broadly represents the documentation of the political economic and social and cultural processes of one of the most interesting eras of the previous millennium Reconstructing Adult Masculinities Emma E. Cook,2016-03-22 Over the past two decades Japan s socioeconomic environment has undergone considerable changes prompted by both a long recession and the relaxation of particular labour laws in the 1990s and 2000s Within this context freeters part time workers aged between fifteen and thirty four who are not housewives or students emerged into the public arena as a social problem This book drawing on six years of ethnographic research takes the lives of male freeters as a lens to examine contemporary ideas and experiences of adult masculinities It queries how notions of adulthood and masculinity are interwoven and how these ideals are changing in the face of large scale employment shifts Highlighting the continuing importance of productivity and labour in understandings of masculinities it argues that men experience and practice multiple masculinities which are often contradictory sometimes limiting and change as they age and in interaction with others and with social structures institutions and expectations Providing a fascinating alternative to the stereotypical idea of the Japanese male as a salaryman this book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese culture and society social and cultural anthropology gender and men s studies Spinal Imaging and Image Analysis Shuo Li,Jianhua Yao,2014-12-17 This book is instrumental to building a bridge between scientists and clinicians in the field of spine imaging by introducing state of the art computational methods in the context of clinical applications Spine imaging via computed tomography magnetic resonance imaging and other radiologic imaging modalities is essential for noninvasively visualizing and assessing spinal pathology Computational methods support and enhance the physician s ability to utilize these imaging techniques for diagnosis non invasive treatment and intervention in clinical practice Chapters cover a broad range of topics encompassing radiological imaging modalities clinical imaging applications for common spine diseases image processing computer aided diagnosis quantitative analysis data reconstruction and visualization statistical modeling image guided spine intervention and robotic surgery This volume serves a broad audience as contributions were written by both clinicians and researchers which reflects the intended readership as well being a potentially comprehensive book for all spine related clinicians technicians scientists and graduate students Government Foresighted Leading Yunxian Chen,Jianwei Qiu,2016-12-08 Over the past several decades of reform and opening up to the outside world remarkable economic growth has been achieved in China and has drawn considerable world attention The question of how to explain that phenomenon and the road China has taken towards its modernization have been the focus of attention from worldwide economists and experts This book attempts to explore

China's economy from the perspective of government foresighted leading which gives full play to government functions particularly those of regional governments On the one hand government foresighted leading enables government to exercise foresighted leading by means of foundations mechanisms and regulations of market economy On the other hand it could reduce government malfunction and minimize the cost of remedying defects Government foresighted leading theory is an important innovation and contribution to the theoretical configuration of economics It not only offers an explanation of China's continuous economic growth but further classifies economics into microeconomics macroeconomics and mezzoeconomics which includes regional economics industrial economics or structural economics supplementing the traditional microeconomics and macroeconomics system

The Social Cage Alexandra Maryanski, Jonathan H. Turner, 1992 The authors assert that traditional sociological theories of human nature and society do not pay sufficient attention to the evolution of big brained hominoids resulting in assumptions about humans propensity for groupness that go against the record of primate evolution When this record is analyzed in detail and is supplemented by a review of the social structures of contemporary apes and the basic types of human societies hunter gathering horticultural agrarian and industrial commonplace criticisms about the de humanizing effects of industrial society appear overdrawn if not downright incorrect The book concludes that the mistakes in contemporary social theory as well as much of general social commentary stem from a failure to analyze humans as big brained apes with certain phylogenetic tendencies This failure is usually coupled with a willingness to romanticize societies of the past notably horticultural and agrarian systems

Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration Doran Larson,2017-07-17 Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration works from the premise that if the law establishes and maintains both its practical and symbolic authority on the basis of its monopoly on legally sanctioned violence and the suffering threatened and delivered by such violence then we cannot know the full human cost or concrete moral status of any legal state without human witness to the depth and manner of suffering meted out by such violence The prison writer stands in the position to offer such witness The prison writer knows the law's violence in the flesh For every other writer reflection upon the degree and manner of suffering meted out under legal sanction that is reflection upon the full human cost of the contemporary legal order is necessarily speculative In close readings of first person witness from prisons in the U S Ireland and Africa Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration discovers literary tropes that chart at once local national and transnational conditions of carceral experience the extant conditions of legalized suffering In exhibiting the labor required to move from institutionalized abjection to the minimum requirements of rights bearing personhood this witness offers the sole credible vision of the possibility of a post carceral understanding of freedom
