Hurewitz,2008-04-30 Historian Hurewitz brings to life a vibrant and all but forgotten milieu of artists leftists and gay men and women whose story played out over the first half of the twentieth century and continues to shape the entire American landscape In a hidden corner of Los Angeles the personal first became the political the nation s first enduring gay rights movement emerged and the broad spectrum of what we now think of as identity politics was born Portraying life over more than forty years in the hilly enclave of Edendale now part of Silver Lake Hurewitz considers the work of painters and printmakers looks inside the Communist Party s intimate cultural scene and examines the social world of gay men He discovers why and how these communities inspiring both one another and the city as a whole transformed American notions of political identity with their ideas about self expression political engagement and race relations From publisher description

Etched in Memory Gladys Engel Lang,Kurt Lang,1990 How is it that some established artists but not others come to be considered worth remembering For answers Etched in Memory looks at how history interacts with personal biography The authors dig deeply into the archives for material on the careers and posthumous fates of nearly 300 British and American printmakers half of them women active during the Etching Revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The authors examine the effects of changing taste on artistic productivity on building a reputation and on the selective survival of artists within the collective memory They document the influence on careers of family milieu of acces to art education of sponsorship and networks of having or lacking money and of being in the right place at the right time Being remembered requires at minimum that the artist s work be preserved and deposited in the cultural archives It is here that demographics and other circumstances put women at a cumulative disadvantage Uniform Trade List Annual ,1977 Bruce McCallister David W.
