Paul The Law And The Jewish People:

Paul, the Law, and the Jewish People E. P. Sanders, 1983
Sanders, 1985 Matthew, Paul, and the Anthropology of Law David A. Kaden, 2016-09-30 Drawing from Michel Foucault's understanding of power David A Kaden explores how relations of power are instrumental in forming law as an object of discourse in the Gospel of Matthew and in the Letters of Paul This is a comparative project in that the author examines the role that power relations play in generating discussions of law in the first century context and in several ethnographies from the field of the anthropology of law from Indonesia Mexico the Philippines and colonial era Hawaii Discussions of law proliferate in situations where the relations of power within social groups come into contact with social forces outside the group David A Kaden's interdisciplinary approach reframes how law is studied in Christian Origins scholarship especially Pauline and Matthean scholarship by focusing on what makes discourses on law possible For this he relies heavily on cross cultural ethnographic materials from legal anthropology

Anti-Judaism in Early Christianity: Paul and the Gospels Peter Richardson, David Granskou, Stephen G. Wilson, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1986-04-30 The period since the close of World War II has been agonizingly introspective not least because of the pain of reassessing Christianity's attitude to Judaism The early Christian materials have often been examined to assess their role in the long standing negative attitude of Christians to Jews The motivation for the early church's sometimes harsh attitude was partly theological it needed to define itself over against its parent and partly sociological it needed to make clear the line that divided the fledgling group of Christian believers from the group with which it was most likely to be confused This collection of studies emphasizes the context and history of early Christianity in reconsidering many of the classic passages that have contributed to the development of anti Judaism in Christianity The volume opens with an essay that clearly delineates the state of the question of anti Judaism in early Christianity Then follow discussions of specific passages in the writings of Paul as well as the Gospels

The New Perspective on Paul James D.G. Dunn, 2008 The New Perspective on Paul By author James D G Dunn published on January 2008 by James D G Dunn 2008

Paul and the Gentiles Terence L. Donaldson, 1997-01-01 In the first major analysis of Paul's understanding of Gentile salvation in several years Bible scholar Terence Donaldson offers a creative approach to the apostle's theological convictions According to Donaldson Paul as a believer in Jesus Christ did not abandon his Jewish frame of reference but reconfigured it especially by the stimulus of his mission to the Gentiles

A Jew to the Jews David Rudolph, 2016-10-21 David J Rudolph raises new questions about Paul's view of the Torah and Jewish identity in this post supersessionist interpretation of 1 Corinthians 9 19 23 Paul's principle of accommodation is considered in light of the diversity of Second Temple Judaism and Jesus' example and rule of accommodation

A Jew to the Jews David J. Rudolph, 2011 David Rudolph's primary aim is to demonstrate that scholars overstate their case when they maintain that 1 Cor 9 19 23 is incompatible with a Torah observant Paul A secondary aim is to show how one might understand 1 Cor 9 19 23

as the discourse of a Jew who remained within the bounds of pluriform Second Temple Judaism Part I addresses the intertextual contextual and textual case for the traditional reading of 1 Cor 9 19 23 Weaknesses are pointed out and alternative approaches are considered The exegetical case in Part II centres on interpreting 1 Cor 9 19 23 in light of Paul's recapitulation in 1 Cor 10 32 11 1 which concludes with the statement Be imitators of me as I am of Christ Given the food related and hospitality context of 1 Cor 8 10 and Paul's reference to dominical sayings that point back to Jesus example and rule of adaptation it is argued that 1 Cor 9 19 23 reflects Paul's imitation of Jesus accommodation oriented table fellowship with all As Jesus became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews Pharisees and sinners Paul became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews strict Jews those under the law and Gentile sinners This Cambridge University dissertation won the 2007 Franz Delitzsch Prize from the Freie Theologische Akademie

One Gospel Nathan N. Hoff, 2023-12-18 Is faith in Messiah necessary to the content of saving faith in the Old Testament as it is in the New While the dispensational tradition has been clear that salvation in every age includes a common object God a common basis Christ's death and a common requirement faith it has not always agreed on the content of saving faith across the testaments Written within the dispensational tradition One Gospel seeks to advance the discussion by looking at Paul's use of the Abraham story in Romans 4 This work contends there is continuity between the Old Testament and the New as illustrated by Abraham and Paul The content of saving faith must always include faith in Messiah who in the progress of revelation is identified as Jesus Christ

Circumcision as a Malleable Symbol Nina E. Livesey, 2010 Revised thesis Ph D Southern Methodist University 2007

Paul against the Nations Neil Elliott, 2023-11-10 Some of the most heated contests around the apostle Paul today concern the effort to understand him wholly within Judaism and the effort to interpret him over against the culture and ideology of the early Roman Empire Here Neil Elliott argues that these two conversations belong together and must be resolved together by understanding Paul as a Jew living out Israel's ancient hopes under the pressures of Roman imperial power

Paul and Mark Oda Wischmeyer, David C. Sim, Ian J. Elmer, 2014-08-20 The hypothesis that the Gospel of Mark was heavily influenced by Pauline theology and/or epistles was widespread in the nineteenth century but fell out of favour for much of the twentieth century In the last twenty years or so however this view has begun to attract renewed support especially in English language scholarship This major and important collection of essays by an international team of scholars seeks to move the discussion forward in a number of significant ways tracing the history of the hypothesis from the nineteenth century to the modern day searching for historical connections between these two early Christians analysing and comparing the theology and christology of the Pauline epistles and the Gospel of Mark and assessing their reception in later Christian texts This major volume will be welcomed by those who are interested in the possible influence of the apostle to the Gentiles on the earliest Gospel urgency of Jewish Christian understanding and reconciliation Each contribution is rich and instructive and the resulting whole offers a fascinating picture of the relationship of Jews and Christians today

Behold the Antichrist Delos Banning Mckown,2010-12 During his long productive life the great English philosopher and exponent of utilitarianism Jeremy Bentham 1748 1832 wrote not just on political philosophy but also clandestinely on religion Under the pseudonym of Philip Beauchamp he published an attack on natural religion called Analysis of the Influence of Natural Religion on the Temporal Happiness of Mankind and under the pseudonym of Gamaliel Smith he published a book of New Testament criticism called Not Paul But Jesus In addition Bentham bravely released under his own name Church of Englandism and Its Catechism Examined a thorough biting critique of Anglican doctrine These little known works are discussed at length by philosopher Delos B McKown in this informative contribution to Bentham scholarship McKown introduces these major works on religion and then presents an extensive synopsis of each He defends Bentham against the criticisms of opponents where necessary but does not hesitate to criticize Bentham when he feels he goes astray McKown also shows how Bentham s attacks on the Christianity of his time which denigrated human life in the here and now for some imagined future postmortem state of glory fully complemented his utilitarian philosophy of the greatest happiness to the greatest number of people This thorough analysis of three little known works by one of philosophy's great minds makes an outstanding contribution to Bentham scholarship and will be of interest to humanists and philosophers of religion

Paul, the Law, and the Covenant A. Andrew Das, 2001 The now familiar new perspective asserts that the covenantal nomism characteristic of second temple Judaism softened the Mosaic law's requirement of perfect obedience Because of God's gracious covenant with Israel manifested in election and the provision of atoning sacrifices one could be righteous under the law despite occasional failures to obey the law perfectly This view concludes that Paul as a first century Jew could not have been troubled by the law's stringent demands because it was generally understood that the gracious framework of the covenant provided a way of dealing with occasional lapses Consequently it is claimed Paul's problem with the law must have to do with its misuse as a means of enforcing ethnic boundaries and excluding Gentile believers However as Das demonstrates in this book whenever the gracious framework of covenantal nomism is called into question the law's demands take on central importance Das traces this development in a number of second temple Jewish works and especially in the writings of Paul Covenantal nomism is probably an apt characterization of Paul's opponents and indeed of Paul's past life thus he can assert that formerly he was blameless under the law But now Paul sees God's grace as active only in Christ He emphatically denies that God will show special grace in his judgment of Jews to do so would be favoritism Similarly Paul sees no atoning benefit to the sacrificial system In effect Paul is no longer a covenantal nomist Since the gracious framework of the covenant has collapsed all that remains for Paul is the law with its oppressive requirement of perfect obedience and ethnic exclusivism Contra the new perspective the works of the law should not be construed so narrowly as only the law's ethnic exclusivity Christ is the end of the law in general both in the sense that he is the goal to which the law always pointed and in that he is the sole agent of God's grace apart from which the law's demands would be impossible

Paul's Letter to the Romans Colin G. Kruse, 2012-06-14 Paul's Letter to the Romans may well be the most influential book in Christian history In this Romans commentary Colin Kruse shows how Paul expounds the gospel against the background of God's sovereign action as creator judge and redeemer of the world Valuable additional notes on important theological themes and difficult texts such as Paul's discussion of same sex relationships the salvation of all Israel and the woman Junia who was well known among the apostles further connect Romans to contemporary issues Throughout his commentary Kruse expertly guides readers through the plethora of interpretations of Romans providing a reliable exposition of this foundational epistle The Old Greek Translation of Daniel 7-12 Sharon Pace Jeansonne, 2023-10-31 Investigates whether differences between the OG translation and the Hebrew Aramaic parent text of Daniel 7-12 are due to intentional theological Tendenz as has been predominantly proposed in the past or to errors or the unintentional cross linguistic mechanics of translation or to a combination of these reasons Jeansonne's investigation proceeds in five stages
