

In its ordinary sense, Ikhtilaf is used and deployed in a prelegal register and outside of the religious sphere, simply because the differences or divergences at stake are neither juridical nor religious. They may also be familial, social, political or even tied to personal convictions. In a certain manner, this usage, which belongs to the realm of lived experience—daily social existence—is a “secularized” usage, independent of all religious determination. Ikhtilaf thus acquires a positive connotation which valorizes its worldly and ordinary usage, considering on it a social function of great importance, which Difference in the Islamic Context guarantees mutual respect between members of society and social groups, the acceptance of all kinds of differences, and the recognition of the other in its differences.

Concept of Muslim Ummah : The Community in Islam is not founded on race, nationality, locality, occupation, kinship, or special interests. It does not take its name after the name of a leader or a founder or an event. It transcends national borders and political boundaries. The foundation of the community in Islam is the principle which designates submission to the will of Allah, commitment to His cause. In short, an Islamic community is present only when it is united and directed by Islam. The Islamic community has a historic mission: the beyond mere survival, sheer power, branding, or psychological community.

Lack of Unity Among Muslims: Solidarity, cooperation and standing together are important and basic elements for constructing a sound, united Islamic society of the sincere Muslim were to take a brief look at the situation of Muslims throughout the world today . It would be enough to make him active in establishing unity among Muslims. Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) initiated the concept of Ummah in the Muslim society integrating individuals of different colors, races, ethnicities and social classes with equality into one united brotherhood, and as the Islamic dominions expanded, this Ummah assumed even a greater diversity and included a variety of people knitted together into common bonds- the like of which the world has never witnessed, generated an open society for all its creed and where the only criterion worth consideration was human righteousness. But the Ummah today is distributed into many divisions and sects. Each one has severed its relations with the other. There are differences due to political parties, different ideologies, professions and trades. The differences of the poor and rich classes were the foundations of dislike. This and the worship of Allah was the conclusive instrument for making divergences into factions and to remove the international, national and language differences.

وَأَنَّ أُمَّةً أَتَتْكُمْ لَهَا نَصِيحَةٌ وَأَنَّ أُمَّةً أَتَتْكُمْ مَقْطُونٌ

And know that this community of yours is one community, and I am your Lord. So take Me as your Protection.

Today this has become a means of no disputing and quarrelling. This has brought the whole Ummah to brink of disunion, as the Holy Quran says:

فَقُلْ: أَتَدْعُونَ إِلَى بَدْعٍ كَبَرٍ لَمْ يَكُن لَكُمْ بِهِ كَلِمَةٌ

But they have broken their religion among them into sects, each group rejecting in the belief.

Allah Almighty has ordained differences between human beings in their mental capabilities, their languages, the color of their skin and their perceptions and thoughts.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ يَخْلُقَ مَا يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ ذَكِيٌّ

And of His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the diversity of your languages and your colors. Indeed in that are signs for those of knowledge.

All this naturally gives rise to a multiplicity and variety of opinions and judgment provided that difference do not exceed their limits and provided they remain within the standard norms and proper behavior, this a phenomenon that could prove to be positive and extremely beneficial there can be called as constructive differences and are a sign of a healthy society in which complete free what is best as the Holy Quran says.

وَأَنَّ أُمَّةً أَتَتْكُمْ لَهَا نَصِيحَةٌ وَأَنَّ أُمَّةً أَتَتْكُمْ مَقْطُونٌ

“...If Allah willed, He would have made you one nation. But that He may test you in what He has given you - no strife (as in a race) in good deeds...”

Differences in scientific and intellectual opinions can lead to progress and prosperity, and on a philosophical level, are beneficial if they lead to certainty (Faqr) since all people must doubt, question, and differ from a matter before arriving at the truth. Therefore, Islam does not reject reasoning in the field of jurisprudence (fiqh) as long as it is not commensured with politics or personal aims and concerns. Thus all Muslim scholars agree that the Ijtihad (jurisprudential scholar) exercises free rewards for every correct decision and even one for every incorrect one, for he is endeavoring with all his effort to reach the correct decision.
