Theatre Worlds in Motion S.E. Wilmer, H. van Maanen, 2024-04-02 Theatre Worlds in Motion aims to clarify the different theatre traditions and practices in Western Europe from a historical and sociological perspective The book grew out of a perceived need among theatre scholars who had recognised that while they understood the theatre system of their own country they often found it difficult to discover how it compared with other countries The chapters analyse the basic components and dynamics of theatre systems in seventeen Western European nations in order to elucidate how the systems function in general and how they vary in different cultures The book provides a sense of what has been happening recently in particular countries and indicates how the theatre systems have developed over time and have led to the current practices and structures Each national chapter considers the historical tradition and place of theatre within the country and analyses the role of the state in fostering theatre during the last fifty years Material from the national chapters has been used in two general chapters at the beginning and end of the book to provide an overview to developments in all Western Europe The introductory chapter on decentralisation discusses the tendency amongst governments to encourage cultural development outside the national capital by providing subsidy for regional theatre venues and theatre companies and in many cases by developing the decision making and budgetary powers for the theatre to regional and local authorities The epilogue on the functioning of theatre examines the common structures of theatre in society as described in the seventeen national chapters and it proposes areas for future research

Inter-Art Journey Nurit Yaari, 2015-04-01 In recent years inter medial studies have attracted increasing attention in arts theory The notion of inter mediality presupposes that each established art such as theatre painting and cinema indicates the existence of a particular medium which preserves its distinct features in translations from art to art and especially in its combinations with others in single works Nonetheless this field of research is presupposed already in the traditional studies of ekphrasis which focus on the verbal accounts of nonverbal works of art and in Wagner s notion of Gesamtkunstwerk This renewed interest generated new fields of research such as a the likelihood of the arts reflecting common grounds b the necessity of a shared metalanguage b the possibility of inter medial translation and d the inter medial coexistence within a single work of art without hindering the reading interpreting and experiencing abilities of receivers In honor of Eli Rozik Ph D professor emeritus former head of the Department of Theatre Studies and Dean of the Faculty of Arts Tel Aviv University this collection provides overviews of all these theoretical issues and tackles the contemporary practical questions that arise from attempts to transgress the boundaries between the established disciplines of arts studies Considering first the theoretical aspects of inter art inter mediality and nonverbal literacy Exploring the Common Grounds of the Arts goes on to discuss by means of performance analysis dialogues between the arts within a single work and correspondences between visual and auditory stimuli in musical contexts It concludes with a discussion of practical examples of inter mediality in religious representations official processions and public performances The Theatre of Truth ,2008-02-26 Doctoral Dissertation University of California Berkeley 1995ABSTRACT Jacob Moreno MD 1889 1974 is known today as the founder of psychodrama which he defined as the science which explores the truth by dramatic methods This dissertation investigates Moreno primarily as a theatre artist It starts with a philosophical analysis of the concepts of acting improvisation and spontaneity and then consolidates the elements of Moreno s theory of the nature and function of theatre which are dispersed throughout his writings and have never been thoroughly collected in one place It also examines how Moreno discovered the healing power of drama while he directed his Theatre of Spontaneity in Vienna 1920s and in New York 1930s The appendix contains Moreno s earliest theatrical text The Godhead as Comedian translated for the first time in its entirety from the 1919 German edition 325 pages including 19 p of German and English references chronology www.scheiffele.com Theatre West ,2022-06-08
