Performing The Pilgrims A Study Of Ethnohistorical Role Playing At Plimoth Plantation:

Performing the Pilgrims Stephen Eddy Snow, 1993 A scholarly inquiry into how portrayals of the Pilgrims evolved from glorification to more accurate reconstruction of history through performance The various ways in which the Pilgrims have been represented over the past three hundred years reflect important changes in American culture This study of a phenomenon at Plimoth Plantation reveals a pattern created by progressive cultural forces in the United States to establish historical accuracy It traces the transformation in the styles of portraying the cultural history of one of America's earliest immigrant groups the Pilgrims of Plymouth Massachusetts In the nineteenth century the Pilgrim story was romanticized in poetry and paintings The purpose of such portrayals was glorification not historical accuracy After the fourth Thursday of every November was designated by President Lincoln as Thanksgiving Day the Pilgrim image became ubiquitous in American popular culture Those simple hardworking settlers of one of America's first towns began to assume mythic proportions This study of how the Pilgrims have been represented in American cultural life mainly focuses on the development of the performances in the Living Museum of Seventeenth Century Plymouth at Plimoth Plantation After World War II a plan was devised to replicate the First Street of Plymouth By the late 1950s Pilgrim houses were reconstructed and mannequins depicted scenes of Pilgrim life Docents dressed in somewhat inauthentic period garb described the historical significance of the tableaux The cultural revolution of the 1960s brought also a revolution in the style of representing the Pilgrims In an attempt to define the real Pilgrims the idea of sainted ancestors was eradicated James Deetz an anthropologist from Harvard established a new approach to ethnohistorical research In portraying the Pilgrims in this era reenactors made no attempt to glorify but instead to give earnest assessment of all ethnographic data available and to re create an authentic Pilgrim Deetz and his colleagues established a living museum in which history was no longer described and discussed but rather reenacted This book documents and analyzes the momentous shift in the style of representing the history at Plimoth Plantation It closely examines the emergence of the first person role playing re creation that is based upon performing ethnography An important work in the field of performance studies it explores postmodern cultural forces at work in the late twentieth century Stephen Snow Ph D RDT BCT is Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Creative Arts Therapies at Concordia University in Montreal Most recently he completed a three year project 2005-2008 in Performance Ethnography with adults with developmental disabilities at Concordia's Centre for the Arts in Human Development of which he is a Co Founder

Ethnodramatherapy Stephen Snow, 2021-11-24 Ethnodramatherapy explores the integration of the performance ethnography method known as ethnodrama with the principles and practices of drama therapy to establish a sound theoretical formulation for ethnodramatherapy and considers its use as art as therapy as research and as a vehicle for social justice The book begins by defining ethnodramatherapy an original synthesis created by the author through deep study and practice of Mienackowski's ethnodrama combined with 35 years of his own practice and research in drama therapy creative arts therapies and therapeutic theatre The book describes the origins of ethnodramatherapy along with its evolution and method It then delves into applications of the practice highlighted by five case studies with different audiences in different settings Subjects include adults with developmental disabilities female adolescents in youth protection caregivers for loved ones with mental illnesses and Chinese students exploring controversial issues of oppression in China Complex ethical issues are reviewed and suggestions are made on how to deal with some of the challenging ethical situations that are likely to arise in the ethnodramatherapy process What emerges is a powerful tool that harnesses theatrical art ethnographic research and the clinical techniques of drama therapy to create a potential for emancipatory experience for both performers and audiences This exciting and dynamic synthesis of drama therapy performance ethnography theatrical art and social activism will be of interest to the whole community of theatre practitioners and scholars who use theatre to effect individual and social change including the disciplines of applied theatre theatre education experimental theatre performance studies and of course drama therapy psychodrama and the other creative arts therapies

Theories of Performance Elizabeth Bell, 2008-02-11 Theories of Performance invites students to explore the possibilities of performance for creating knowing and staking claims to the world Each chapter surveys explains and illustrates classic modern and postmodern theories that answer the questions What is performance Why do people perform and How does performance constitute our social and political worlds The chapters feature performance as the entry point for understanding texts drama culture social roles identity resistance and technologies

We Are What We Remember Laura Mattoon D'Amore, Jeffrey Meriwether, 2013-01-16 Commemorative practices are revised and rebuilt based on the spirit of the time in which they are re created Historians sometimes imagine that commemoration captures history but actually commemoration creates new narratives about history that allow people to interact with the past in a way that they find meaningful As our social values change race gender religion sexuality class our commemorations do too We Are What We Remember The American Past Through Commemoration analyzes current trends in the study of historical memory that are particularly relevant to our own present our biases our politics our contextual moment and strive to name forgotten overlooked and denied pasts in traditional histories Race gender and sexuality for example raise questions about our most treasured myths where were the slaves at Jamestowne How do women or lesbians protect and preserve their own histories when no one else wants to write them Our current social climate allows us to question authority and especially the authoritative definitions of nation patriotism and heroism and belonging How do we un commemorate things that were mis commemorated in the past How do we repair the damage done by past commemorations The chapters in this book contributed by eighteen emerging and established scholars examine these modern questions that entirely reimagine the landscape of commemoration as it has been practiced and studied before
