Twelve by Twelve Bill Powers, 2010-10-06 Why would a successful American physician choose to live in a twelve foot by twelve foot cabin without running water or electricity To find out writer and activist William Powers visited Dr Jackie Benton in rural North Carolina No Name Creek gurgled through Benton's permaculture farm and she stroked honeybees wings as she shared her wildcrafter philosophy of living on a planet in crisis Powers just back from a decade of international aid work then accepted Benton s offer to stay at the cabin for a season while she traveled There he befriended her eclectic neighbors organic farmers biofuel brewers eco developers and discovered a sustainable but imperiled way of life In these pages Powers not only explores this small patch of community but draws on his international experiences with other pockets of resistance This engrossing tale of Powers s struggle for a meaningful life with a smaller footprint proposes a paradigm shift to an elusive Soft World with clues to personal happiness and global healing
