The Rawleigh Man Told Me Ruth St. John Thomas,1994      W. T. Rawleigh Co. v. Bowen, 308 MICH 122 (1944) ,1944 33

Grandad's Wheelies Jack Lasenby,2016-08-29 When Jack visits his grandparents they tell him stories each outdoing the other with a tale taller and wilder than the last When Jack visits his grandparents there s no television to entertain him No internet no mobile phone no tablets In fact there s no technology or modern distractions at all But he still likes to visit because Grandad and Granny tell him stories each trying to outdo the other with a tale taller and wilder than the last Did you ever hear about the dragon of Waitemata harbour Or the bridge between the North and South islands Or why the Beehive is round in shape and who REALLY made the Marlborough Sounds And then there s the pumpkin larger than a garden shed and a wheelbarrow that converts into a boat for a seasick kangaroo There are lost false teeth eels and the ingenious invention of the world s first rotary clothesline helicopter and a flying train that touches down at the station in Nelson With equally wild watercolour illustrations throughout by Bob Kerr Grandad s Wheelies is a hilarious rollicking yarn stitching together a picture of life in New Zealand a couple of generations back that is just about true Jack can t get enough of his Grandad and Granny s stories and readers young and old will love them too      The Words of My Roaring Robert Kroetsch,2000 I was electioneering By God people were listening People were looking my way And some joker with his arse beginning to ache from sitting too long on a nail had to clear his throat and chip in Backstrom what have you got to offer I looked at the speaker and saw he was a farmer and I said Mister how would you like some rain A new edition of another classic from one of Canada s most enduring novelists Introduction by Thomas Wharton      W. Illywhacker Peter Carey,2010-09-01 In Australian slang an illywhacker is a country fair con man an unprincipled seller of fake diamonds and dubious tonics And Herbert Badgery the 139 year old narrator of Peter Carey s uproarious novel may be the king of them all Vagabond and charlatan aviator and car salesman seducer and patriarch Badgery is a walking embodiment of the Australian national character especially of its proclivity for tall stories and barefaced lies As Carey follows this charming scoundrel across a continent and a century he creates a crazy quilt of outlandish encounters with characters that include a genteel dowager who fends off madness with an electric belt and a ravishing young girl with a dangerous fondness for rooftop trysts Boldly inventive irresistibly odd Illywhacker is further proof that Peter Carey is one of the most enchanting writers at work in any hemisphere      Leather Wings Marilyn Duckworth,2016-02-01 Shortlisted for the Commonwealth Writers Prize this novel explores love obsession and stranger danger Wallace is a door to door salesman When he meets six year old Jania his life gains a new dimension He is in love This is pure adoration Or is it Esther reluctant grandmother is too self absorbed to notice the drama that is about to break Innocence carries its own dangers love grows where least expected The little girl might have some answers of her own but who will listen      My Story His Glory Gwen Lewis,2022-11-03 From the very first page of My Story His Glory readers quickly connect with the colorful characters of this engaging work by first time author Gwen Lewis We are quickly introduced to the main character of the story a little girl born into poverty and inequality We learn that she grew up during a time when all the social institutions were segregated and Jim Crow laws prevailed She is the ninth of ten children born to Ruth and Ab Mason Demoralized by bigotry and hatred her parents tried to instill a sense of pride and goodness into their children Though neither of her parents were formally educated they championed education as the vehicle to independence and a better way of life for their children The book reveals intimate details about her impoverished home life in an honest unpretentious way Life was sometimes hard but there were also times of contentment and joy As we continue to follow her story we also see ourselves in the struggles she faced when she eagerly left home for college Choosing to attend the historic Tuskegee Institute located forty miles from where she grew up was a point of great pride for her We witness the grace and goodness of God and how he never left her alone It is interesting as well as inspiring to witness the love and compassion of God as he carried her when she didn't even know he was there Later she would learn to recognize his gentle hand We laugh at her childhood antics cry with her as she painfully recalls personal losses and rejoice with her as she triumphs over her enemies After reading My Story His Glory we walk away inspired with a desire to know this ever present God she affectionately calls Father *G.E.N.I. Griswold Isaac Disraeli, 1847 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan, William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Morley, Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1823 Women's University Narratives, 1890-1945, Part II Anna Bogen, 2017-11-20 The years 1890 1945 saw an unprecedented outpouring of fiction focused on British university life much of it reflecting the drastic change that had swept through the higher education system in the late nineteenth century Among these narratives a significant subgroup focused on the lives of women students newly admitted to the structures of higher education system their presence still stridently and sometimes even violently opposed especially at Oxbridge These novels and short stories collected here largely unknown today were widely discussed and debated in the public sphere during the early twentieth century contributing not only to the formation of public knowledge and opinion about education through cultural figures like the Girton Girl or the undergraduette but also sparking debate about many wider social and cultural issues from the place of the women writer in the literary scene to the emergence of new discourses around psychology and the body The majority have not been reprinted since their original publication and until now have been rarely available to scholars The publication of Women's University Narratives 1890-1945 therefore provides a major new resource for scholarship in many areas including women's studies educational history and literary and cultural modernism

Hill of Grace Stephen Orr, 2004 In the rambling countryside of Australia's Barossa Valley in 1951 old school Lutheran William Miller is living with a shocking secret His intense Bible studies have revealed to him what no other scholars have been able to discover the exact date of the Apocalypse Armed with the secret of the prophecy a group of followers join William to help deliver the news and prepare for the end Yet as the seasons pass in the valley and the final day approaches the faith of the locals is put to the test Was it truly the voice of God that spoke to William on the Hill of Grace or is he simply deluded This thought provoking novel is inspired by the true story of one of the founders of the Seventh Day Adventist movement
