Raymond Radiguet A Biographical Study With Selections From His Work:

Raymond Radiguet Margaret Crosland, 1976 Biografie van de Franse auteur Raymond Radiguet 1903 1923 die zeer bevriend was met Jean Cocteau De biografie bevat een Engelstalige selectie uit zijn werk The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization The Rise of the French Novel Martin Turnell, 1978 Martin Turnell's The Rise of the French Novel is a successor to his highly praised earlier books The Novel in France 1951 and The Art of French Fiction 1959 His aim now however is somewhat different as can be seen from the title It is well known that the reputations of many writers novelists especially diminish for a period following their deaths Although in the eighteenth century Marivaux Crillon and Rousseau all enjoyed a great deal of popularity during their lifetimes it is only recently that they have been subject to truly searching studies Yet they remain little read in English speaking countries Turnell emphasizes that in spite of the hostility of French critics and the fact that the novel did not reach its supremacy even in France until the nineteenth century the beginning of its great rise was indeed with such writers as these Their strong influence led such nineteenth century novelists as Stendhal and Flaubert to all kinds of changes related to style the enormous increase in the range of subject matter and the marked development of language Flaubert is the most striking example It was pointed out some time ago by Eisenstein that Madame Bovary anticipates cinematic technique One of Turnell's most interesting chapters explores the connections between the novel and film in general and Madame Bovary in particular In our own time two of the most popular French novelists in both the United States and England are Alain Fournier and Radiguet They are given enthusiastic appreciations in Turnell's thoughtful book Free-Lancers and Literary Biography in South Africa Stephen Gray, 2021-11-01 This collection is concerned with the problems and pleasures of writing literary biography in the context of South African writing Stephen Gray's introduction outlines the choice faced by the researcher between writing revisionist history la Strachey and the personal bias the portraitist must take into account when conducting the retrieval especially of lost and enigmatic figures la Symons Concentrating on the unattached irregulars of the arts in South Africa often the arts of their times Gray stresses the value of the free lance figure in the formation of an evolving colonial and post colonial literature Subjects included are Charles Maclean alias John Ross who recorded his experiences of the Zulu King Shaka in Natal's first captivity narrative Douglas Blackburn rated as the successor of Swift for his satires of the Anglo Boer War conflict Beatrice Hastings polymath journalist whose lovers included Katherine Mansfield and Amedeo Modigliani Stephen Black founder of indigenous South African drama in English Edward Wolfe the Bloomsbury painter who began as a child actor in the mining town of Johannesburg Bessie Head who became the Botswana based wise woman of African literature before her untimely death in depend on and radically diverge from autobiographical reality they are uniquely instructive about the nature of fiction itself. Reading the life stories in relation to the plots Mortimer brings into sharp critical focus plot plotting and the plotable. Always interesting often revealing this probing analysis of a special type of autobiographical fiction with its distinctive treatment of real and fictionalized women will stimulate and entertain the reader.
