How to Reach 72 in a Jewish Art R. B. Kitaj, Marlborough Gallery, 2005 March 1 April 2 2005 Imagining Jewish Art Aaron Rosen, 2009 What does Jewish art look like Where many scholars critics and curators have gone searching for the essence of Jewish art in Biblical illustrations and portraits of rabbis Rosen sets out to discover Jewishness in unlikely places How he asks have modern Jewish painters explored their Jewish identity using an artistic past which is by and large non Jewish In this new book we encounter some of the great works of Western art history through Jewish eyes We see Matthias Grunewald's Isenheim Altarpiece re imagined by Marc Chagall 1887 1985 traces of Paolo Uccello and Piero della Francesca in Philip Guston 1913 1980 and images by Diego Velazquez and Paul Cezanne studiously reworked by R B Kitaj 1932 2007 This highly comparative study draws on theological philosophical and literary sources from Franz Rosenzweig to Franz Kafka and Philip Roth Rosen deepens our understanding not only of these three modern painters but also of how art might serve as a key resource for rethinking such fundamental Jewish concepts as family tradition and homeland Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Daghani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Daghani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image American Artists, Jewish Images Matthew Baigell, 2006-03-16 Born over a fifty year period the artists in this volume represent several generations of twentieth century artists Examining the work of such influential artists as Mark Rothko Max Weber and Ruth Weisberg Baigell directly confronts their Jewish identity as a religious cultural and psychological component of their lives and explores the way in which this influence is reflected in their art Drawing upon their common heritage Baigell reveals the different ways these artists responded to the Great Immigration the Depression the Holocaust the founding of the state of Israel and the rise of feminism Each artist's varied Jewish experiences have contributed to the creation of a visual language and subject matter that reflect both Jewish assimilation and Jewish continuity in ways that inform modern Jewish history and changes in present day America Offering a fresh examination of well known artists as well as long overdue attention to lesser known artists Baigell s incisive observations are indispensable to our understanding of the Jewish themes in these artists work Written in a lively and spirited prose this book is compulsory reading for those interested in modern American art and Jewish studies Jewish Studies Andrew Bush,2011-03-08 This text introduces the basic approach of the Key Words in Jewish Studies series by organizing discussion around key concepts in the field that have emerged over the last two centuries history and science race and religion self and community identity and memory Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of Jewish Art Ben Schachter, 2017-12-15 Contemporary Jewish art is a growing field that includes traditional as well as new creative practices yet criticism of it is almost exclusively reliant on the Second Commandment's prohibition of graven images. Arguing that this disregards the corpus of Jewish thought and a century of criticism and interpretation Ben Schachter advocates instead a new approach focused on action and process. Departing from the traditional interpretation of the Second Commandment Schachter addresses abstraction conceptual art performance art and other styles that do not rely on imagery for meaning. He examines Jewish art through the concept of melachot work like creative activities as defined by the medieval Jewish philosopher Maimonides. Showing the similarity between art and melachot in the active processes of contemporary Jewish artists such as Ruth Weisberg Allan Wexler Archie Rand and Nechama Golan he explores the relationship between these artists' methods and Judaism's demanding attention to procedure. A compellingly written challenge to traditionalism. Image Action and Idea in Contemporary Jewish Art makes a well argued case for artistic production interpretation and criticism that revels in the dual foundation of Judaism and art history. Current Biography Yearbook, 2008 New Art Examiner, 1996 The independent voice of the visual arts Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1989-09 The Print Collector's Newsletter, 1990
