Reaching For A Star Through Poetical Imagery:

Reaching for a Star Through Poetical Imagery Dorothy Kendrix Hunt, 1987-05-01 Vance County, North Carolina
Andre Vann, 2000 The African American community has played a vital role in the development and success of Vance County over the years from antebellum times to Reconstruction to the Civil Rights era to the present Making a difference in all walks of life educational spiritual commercial and civic the black citizens of this historic Tar Heel county share an impressive story one marked by a determination and undeniable will to succeed through economic hardships and social challenges Simile and Metaphor in Greek Poetry from Homer to Aeschylus Arthur Leslie Keith, 1914 Self and Symbolism in the Poetry of Michelangelo, John Donne and Agrippa D'Aubigne A.B. Altizer, Alma B. Altizer, 1973-07-31 Alienation ecstasy death rebirth in the poetry of Michelangelo Donne and d Aubigne these archetypal themes make possible the ultimate formulation of new poetic symbolizations of self and world As their poetry evolves from a primarily rhetorical towards a fully symbolic mode images of loss of self in ecstasy or in alienation of death and rebirth recur with increasing frequency and intensity Whether the context is love poetry or religious poetry the basic problem remains the same love is the link between the two kinds of poetry And love is indeed a problem for these three poets since it involves the self in relation to the other the other being either God or another human being Increasingly the work of each poet centers on a need to analyze or abolish the gulf separating subject and object self and other The dominant mode of most of the three poets work is neither rhetorical nor symbolic but expressive This transitional mode reveals the individual poet s most urgent concerns and conflicts his sense of self in Its most isolated or burdensome affirmative or struggling state Under lying most of their poems is a profound self consciousness a heightened awareness of self as a powerful separate entity with a corresponding objectification of all reality outside of self The Renaissance in general is a time of increasing individualism and 1 self consciousness The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry , 2016-09-01 The May Fourth Movement launched an era of turmoil and transformation in China as Western ideas and education encroached on the Confucian traditions at the root of Chinese society The Republican period 1919 49 witnessed an outpouring of poetry in a form and style new to China written in the common people s language baihua plain speech The New Poetry broke with the centuries old tradition of classical poetry and its intricate forms and the rise of China s modern poetry reflects the rise of modern China The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry presents English translations of over 250 poems by fifty poets including a rich selection of poetry by women writers to provide a nuanced picture of the rapid development of vernacular verse in China from its emergence during the May Fourth Movement through the years of the Japanese invasion to the Communist victory in the Civil War in 1949 Michel Hockx introduces the historical and literary contexts of the various schools of vernacular poetry that developed throughout the period the pioneers formalists symbolists peasants and soldiers poets and Shanghai poets of the late 1940s Each selection of verse begins with a biographical sketch of the author s life and literary career including their roles in the Civil War and Japanese occupation

Introducing English readers to master poets who are virtually unknown to Western audiences this anthology presents a collection of verse written in an age of struggle that attests to the courage sensitivity and imagination of the Chinese people

Strandberg,2021-12-14 Though it has won the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award and the Bollingen Prize the poetry of Robert Penn Warren still is not widely or well understood In this study Victor H Strandberg redresses this imbalance by providing a comprehensive survey of the poetic canon of this gifted complex and much neglected poet Warren writes in the tradition of Western poets concerned with the painful experience of a forced one way passage from innocence into the world's stew of time and loss This passage Strandberg explains results for Warren in bifurcation of the self into warring segments a clean idealistic surface ego and a polluted undiscovered self in the unconscious Revelation of the dirty part of human personality is tellingly evoked in many of Warren's major works As the poet's vision expands however these conflicting elements are unified in a mystic osmosis of being whereby the world which once provoked fear and disgust may now be totally loved In addition to close analysis both of individual poems and of the poet's overall development Strandberg reviews critical opinion of Warren's poetry over the last three decades and assesses his place among fellow poets Both as prophecy and as art he concludes Robert Penn Warren's poetry is so significant versatile and excellent as to rank him among the finest and most fertile talents of his age Arabic Poetry Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2006-09-27 Since the late 1940s Arabic poetry has spoken for an Arab conscience as much as it has debated positions and ideologies nationally and worldwide This book tackles issues of modernity and tradition in Arabic poetry as manifested in poetic texts and criticism by poets as participants in transformation and change It studies the poetic in its complexity relating to issues of selfhood individuality community religion ideology nation class and gender Al Musawi also explores in context issues that have been cursorily noticed or neglected like Shi'i poetics Sufism women's poetry and expressions of exilic consciousness Arabic Poetry employs current literary theory and provides comprehensive coverage of modern and post modern poetry from the 1950s onwards making it essential reading for those with interests in Arabic culture and literature and Middle East studies The Poetics of Apocalypse Martha Nandorfy, 2003 Guided by the duende liminal principle of creativity and death Lorca represents New York as dystopia cum Armageddon ultimately redeemed by the Blacks of Harlem and the telluric forces unleashed to retake the decadent soulless civilization of North America BOOK JACKET Poetry in Pieces Michelle Clayton, 2011-01-10 Set against the cultural and political backdrop of interwar Europe and the Americas Poetry in Pieces is the first major study of the Peruvian poet César Vallejo 1892-1938 to appear in English in more than thirty years Vallejo lived and wrote in two distinct settings Peru and Paris which were continually crisscrossed by new developments in aesthetics politics and practices of everyday life his poetry and prose therefore need to be read in connection with modernity in all its forms and spaces Michelle Clayton combines close readings of Vallejo's writings with cultural historical and theoretical analysis connecting Vallejo and Latin American poetry to the broader panorama of international modernism and the avant garde and to writers and artists such as Rainer Maria Rilke James Joyce Georges Bataille and Charlie Chaplin Poetry in Pieces sheds new light on one of the key figures in twentieth century Latin American literature while exploring ways of rethinking the parameters of international lyric modernity The Science Fiction of Poetics and the Avant-Garde Imagination Michael Golston, 2023-11-19 How the tropes of science fiction infuse and inform avant garde poetics and many other kindred arts This insightful playful monograph from Golston does exactly what it advertises modeling poetics based on how poetry and some parallel artistic endeavors has filtered through a century plus of science fiction This is not a book about science fiction in and of itself but it is a book about the resonances of science fiction tropes and ideas in poetic language The germ of Golston s project is a throwaway line in Robert Smithson s Entropy and the New Monuments about how cinema supplanted nature as inspiration for many of his fellow artists The movies give a ritual pattern to the lives of many artists and this induces a kind of low budget mysticism which keeps them in a perpetual trance Golston charts how the demotic appeal of sci fi much like that of the B movie cross pollinated into poetry and other branches of the avant garde Golston creates what he calls a regular Rube Goldberg machine of a critical apparatus drawing on Walter Benjamin Roman Jakobson and Gilles Deleuze He starts by acknowledging that per the important work of Darko Suvin to situate science fiction critically the genre is premised on cognitive estrangement But he is not interested in the specific nuts and bolts of science fiction as it exists but rather how science fiction has created a model not only for other poets but also for musicians and landscape artists Golston s critical lens moves around quite a bit but he begins with familiar enough subjects Edgar Rice Burroughs Mina Loy William S Burroughs From there he moves into more alien terrain Ed Dorn s long poem Gunslinger the discombobulated work of Clark Coolidge Sun Ra Ornette Coleman and Jimi Hendrix all come under consideration The result of Golston s restless rich scholarship is the first substantial monograph on science fiction and avant garde poetics using Russian Formalism Frankfurt School dialectics and Deleuzian theory to show how the avant garde inherently follows the parameters of sci fi in both theme and form On the Nature of Poetry Kenneth Verity, 2007-06-01 The entire history of Western poetry is surveyed in this study from the ancient world the Middle Ages the Renaissance and the modern period Two hundred poems extracts are included and 10 poets are covered in depth with critical appraisals of their lives and work Problems of translation in poetry are carefully considered and the book provides a working definition of poetry calling it a form of expression human beings turn to when they need to say something important in a memorable way
