Reaching Out Her Young Children Learning:

Understanding How Young Children Learn Wendy L. Ostroff, 2012-08-24 Human beings are born to learn During the last few decades developmental science has exploded with discoveries of how specifically learning happens This provides us with an unprecedented window into children s minds how and when they begin to think perceive understand and apply knowledge Wendy Ostroff builds on this research and shows you how to harness the power of the brain the most powerful learning machine in the universe She highlights the processes that inspire or propel learning play confidence self regulation movement mnemonic strategies metacognition articulation and collaboration and distills the research into a synthesis of the most important takeaway ideas that teachers will need as they design their curriculum and pedagogy Each chapter has suggested activities for exactly how teachers can put theory into practice in the classroom When you understand how your students learn you will know how to teach them in ways that harness the brain s natural learning systems Dr Wendy L Ostroff is Associate Professor in the Program for the Advancement of Learning at Curry College

Learning Environments for Young Children Sandra Feinberg, Joan F. Kuchner, Sari Feldman, 1998 The vision of Learning Environments for Young Children Rethinking Library Spaces and Services is about learning families and community where the public library presents a community based educational setting in which librarians serve as educators guides coaches and facilitators of lifelong active learning access for children to enriching satisfying and developmentally appropriate resources and learning opportunities diverse collections programs and technical resources for young children and the adults in their lives programs and resources that encourage children s focused participation creativity critical thinking cooperation and problem solving and a nonjudgmental integrated and interdisciplinary approach to lifelong learning developing the whole person child or adult Included in Learning Environments for Young Children are field tested measuring instruments that you and your staff can use to conduct a qualitative assessment of your library s children s services These ready to use forms will help you collect information that will highlight the importance of early childhood services in presentations to funding sources trustees and other key stakeholders

Helping Children Learn About Domestic Abuse and Coercive Control Catherine Lawler, Abigail Sterne, Nicky Armstrong, 2020-10-23 This beautifully illustrated and sensitively written storybook and accompanying professional guide have been created to help young children understand about domestic abuse and coercive control Floss is a happy little puppy who loves going to Doggy Daycare and playing with her best friend Houdini The story explores how things change when her Mum s new friend Boss comes into their lives Floss s story supports children who have experienced domestic abuse and trauma as they make sense of their feelings teaching them to seek help and stay safe The supporting guidebook helps adults to work through the story effectively putting the professional in a position to have important conversations with children about what to do if something at home does not feel right This set Can be used to address the topic of domestic abuse and coercive control with individuals small groups and whole classes enabling dialogue around a sensitive issue Offers activities for supporting children safety planning strategies and guidance for taking on a key adult role Can be used to support the PSHE curriculum particularly around the topic of healthy relationships This set is a vital tool for teachers social care staff therapists and other professionals working to teach young children about domestic abuse and coercive control It provides an important vehicle for talking to children about staying safe and their emotional wellbeing

Burton,Cynthia Crump Taggart,2011-07-21 Learning from Young Children Research in Early Childhood Music presents research on the importance of fostering musical growth during early childhood With research designs ranging from statistical mixed methods survey content analysis and case study to philosophical inquiry this book will practitioners base their practice in research and offers a wide range of information for scholars and researchers studying early childhood music learning and development American Children in Chronic Poverty Cynthia E. Lamy,2012-10-26 Why is it so difficult for some people to escape poverty Cynthia Esposito Lamy answers that question in American Children in Chronic Poverty Complex Risks Benefit Cost Analyses and Untangling the Knot by describing the complex and interacting knot of problems that children face as they grow up in poverty Through a vast store of research on topics related to children families and poverty and methods to estimate social return on investment Lamy determines which programs and policies produce benefits that exceed costs providing evidence for an efficient fight against poverty Specific expert policy recommendations for keeping poverty from ruining children s potential are described within three broad themes bringing equity to our educational system supporting families as they transition through difficulties and making work pay Lamy concludes with foundational concepts for building an overarching model of poverty fighting to bring separate narrowly defined programs and policies together Benefit cost analysis confirms what the great religions have been trying to tell us for millennia when we respect and care for the most vulnerable members of our society we create a strong successful society in which everyone prospers The Sesame Effect Charlotte F. Cole,June H. Lee,2016-03-10 The Sesame Effect details the wide ranging work of Sesame Workshop and its productions across the world With an emphasis on impact and evidence from research on projects in low and middle income countries the book tells the stories behind the development of an international family of Muppet characters created for the locally produced adaptations of Sesame Street Each chapter highlights the educational message of international co productions and presents the cultural context of each project Readers will understand the specific needs of children living in a given locale as well as gain insight into the educational drivers of each project These projects often deal with difficult issues from race relations in the United States to HIV AIDS education in South Africa to building respect across cultural divides in the Middle East Readers will see how local productions have helped build a new mindset that values the importance of early childhood education and how Sesame Street promotes a brighter future by building children's academic skills encouraging healthy habits and by fostering attitudes that counter negative stereotypes and create appreciation of and respect for others The Sesame Effect shows how when magnified across the millions of children touched by the various international programs Sesame Workshop and its projects are making a difference around the world Inside Edition, 1994-08 Children's Learning in Laboratory and Classroom Contexts Joseph Campione, Kathleen Metz, 2007-06-21 During the second half of the twentieth century Ann Brown was one of the world's premier researchers into the cognitive development of young children Sponsored by the Spencer Foundation this edited festschrift honors her work and memory by bringing together a collection of original studies that extend many of the theories and themes of School Innovations in Review: Title III. President's National Advisory Council on Supplementary Centers and Services (U.S.), 1971 Ready to Learn Anne Burke, 2010 This timely book explores innovative ways teachers can use play based activities to build a strong literacy foundation for young learners It is committed to creating classrooms that feature collaborative learning spaces where children work with their peers assume roles and viewpoints and communicate naturally with each other This comprehensive approach to learning looks at functional and constructive play as well as more structured dramatic play and games with rules Observations of children's play moments and activities directed by children themselves are shared along with practical suggestions for how adults can guide students in planned and informal activities to enrich their early literacy skills Publisher Children Today, 1983 Family Involvement in Children's Education Janie E. Funkhouser, Miriam R. Gonzales, 1997 Schools that are most successful in engaging parents and other family members in support of their children's learning look beyond traditional definitions of parent involvement parent teacher organizations or signing report cards to a broader conception of supporting families in activities outside of school that can encourage their children's learning This idea book is intended to assist educators parents and policy makers as they develop school family partnerships identifying and describing successful strategies used by 20 local Title I programs Following an executive summary the book notes resources for involving families in education includes research supporting such partnerships and describes how Title I encourages partnerships Next the book describes successful local approaches to family involvement in education organized around strategies for overcoming common barriers to family involvement including 1 overcoming time and resource constraints 2 providing information and training to parents and school staff 3 restructuring schools to support family involvement 4 bridging school family differences and 5 tapping external supports for partnerships Finally the book presents conclusions about establishing and sustaining partnerships noting that at the same time that successful partnerships share accountability specific stakeholders must assume individual responsibility and that those schools that succeed in involving large numbers of parents invest energy in finding solutions for problems not excuses Four appendices present profiles of 10 successful partnerships descriptions in table format of 20 successful local
