IGY General Report Series World Data Center A.,1961 U.S. Aeronautics and Space Activities United States. President,1962 Occupying Our Space Cristina Devereaux Ramirez,2015-04-02 Winifred Bryan Horner Outstanding Book Award Winner Occupying Our Space sheds new light on the contributions of Mexican women journalists and writers during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries marked as the zenith of Mexican journalism Journalists played a significant role in transforming Mexican social and political life before and after the Revolution 1910 1920 and women were a part of this movement as publishers writers public speakers and political activists However their contributions to the broad historical changes associated with the Revolution as well as the pre and post revolutionary eras are often excluded or overlooked This book fills a gap in feminine rhetorical history by providing an in depth look at several important journalists who claimed rhetorical puestos or public speaking spaces The book closely examines the writings of Laureana Wright de Kleinhans 1842 1896 Juana Bel n Guti rrez de Mendoza 1875 1942 the political group Las mujeres de Zit cuaro 1900 Hermila Galindo 1896 1954 and others Grounded in the overarching theoretical lens of mestiza rhetoric Occupying Our Space considers the ways in which Mexican women journalists negotiated shifting feminine identities and the emerging national politics of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With full length Spanish primary documents along with their translations this scholarship reframes the conversation about the rhetorical and intellectual role women played in the ever changing political and identity culture in Mexico Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2002

Space and Time in African Cinema and Cine-scapes Kenneth W. Harrow,2022-06-28 This book is the first of its kind to bring basic notions of contemporary physics to bear on African cine scapes In this book renowned African cinema scholar Kenneth W Harrow presents unique new ways to think about space and time in film with a specific focus on African and African diasporic cinema Through a series of case studies he explores how cinema creates and represents time and space and more specifically how a cinema centered in African landscapes and figures accomplishes this He reflects on the issues and problems posed by scientists when faced with the basic questions of what space and time are and their solutions or conclusions giving both film studies and African studies scholars access to new ways to formulate their thinking about African cine scapes Working beyond the limits of a framework based in a postcolonial and cultural understanding of time and space Harrow demonstrates how a scientific understanding of time and space can open up new approaches to African cinema and cinema in general A unique interdisciplinary book that encourages brand new ways to approach cinematic texts and specifically African cine scapes Positive Discipline: The First Three Years, Revised and Updated Edition Jane Nelsen,Cheryl Erwin, MA,Roslyn Ann Duffy,2015-02-24 The celebrated Positive Discipline brand of parenting books presents the revised and updated third edition of their readable and practical guide to communicating boundaries to very young children and solving early discipline problems to set children up for success Over the years millions of parents have used the amazingly effective strategies of Positive Discipline to raise happy well behaved and successful children Research has shown that the first three years in a child s life are a critical moment in their development and that behavior patterns instilled during that time can have profound implications for the rest of a child s life Hundreds of thousands of parents have already used the advice in Positive Discipline The First Three Years to help set effective boundaries forge strong foundations for healthy communication and lay the groundwork for happy and respectful relationships with their young children Now this classic title has been revised and updated to reflect the latest neuroscientific research and developments in positive discipline parenting techniques

Reading Autoethnography James M. Salvo,2019-10-22 Reading Autoethnography situates autoethnographic insights within the context of two fundamental concerns of critical qualitative inquiry justice and love Through philosophical engagement it gives close readings of written passages taken from leading autoethnographers and frames the philosophical project of autoethnography as one that is both political and interpersonal It does this to highlight how autoethnographic lessons can allow us to think through how we may achieve a flourishing for all something that is both related to justice as it pertains to the political and when situations are in excess of justice related to love as it pertains to feeling at home in the world with others As such this book will be of interest to those who have a burgeoning interest in autoethnography and seasoned autoethnographers alike anyone interested in critical qualitative inquiry as a discourse promoting justice and love and any scholar who has encountered the ethical question of What ought we do Reading Joycean Temporalities ,2017-10-02 In Reading Joycean Temporalities Jolanta Wawrzycka gathered scholars who address James Joyce s experimental treatment of narrative time in terms that go beyond the much discussed monologue interior and stream of consciousness Contributors examine Joyce s attempts to render temporal simultaneity through inescapably spatial means of language including his deployment of Lessing s concepts of nacheinander and nebeneinander analyse Joyce s handling of modalities of time in finitude and temporal disharmonies in time sense and tackle Joyce s engagements with historical time Homeric time and with poetic markers of time The essays re contextualize modernist and postmodernist critical theoretical philosophical and narratological polemics on time temporality relativity language and memory and offer insightful readings of Joyce s double timing writing of finitude time without measure and psychological vs mechanically measured time Contributors are Val rie B n jam Tim Conley Erika Mih lyca Stephanie Nelson Christine O Neill C il n Owens Fritz Senn Annalisa Volpone and Jolanta Wawrzycka

The Sun from Space Kenneth R. Lang, 2008-10-20 The First Edition of The Sun from Space completed in 1999 focused on the early accomplishments of three solar spacecraft SOHO Ulysses and Yohkoh primarily during a minimum in the Sun s 11 year cycle of magnetic activity The comprehensive Second Edition includes the main findings of these three spacecraft over an entire activity cycle including two minima and a maximum and discusses the significant results of six more solar missions Four of these the Hinode RHESSI STEREO and TRACE missions were launched after the First Edition was either nished or nearly so and the other two the ACE and Wind spacecraft extend our investigations from the Sun to its varying input to the Earth The Second Edition does not contain simple updates or cosmetic patch ups to the material in the First Edition It instead contains the relevant discoveries of the past decade integrated into chapters completely rewritten for the purpose This provides a fresh perspective to the major topics of solar enquiry written in an enjoyable easily understood text accessible to all readers from the interested layperson to the student or professional
